Scouting Report

Youth and inexperience accent the 1973-74 WSU basketball team which has only two seniors on its roster and three freshmen. Even some of the more experienced players will be just sophomores. Two returning starters are wingmen Sam Miller, 6-2, and Edgar Jeffries, 6-4, who won their first varsity letters as freshmen.

LUXURY TRAVEL ROUTE

Next time your team is traveling why not take LTR, the luxury travel route? LTR can take your team or entire league to where the action is for a lot less money.

You'll get there quickly and comfortably on LTR's air-conditioned, restroom equipped coaches. Arrive together and enjoy the fun. And, of course, LTR will deliver you and your party directly to your destination. Why not call LTR today and make reservations for your next outing?

JERRY TARKANIAN

Head Basketball Coach

Winning is a fact of life to Jerry Tarkanian -- on the court and off.

In 17 years of coaching in the collegiate, high school and junior college ranks, the first-year Rebel coach has known nothing but excellence.

In five seasons at Cal State, Long Beach, he ran up an amazing 122-20 record. He is the winningest active major college coach with an .859 percentage. He guided the 49ers to five straight conference titles (four in the Pacific Coast Athletic Association and one in the California Collegiate Athletic Association) and led them into the NCAA Western Regionals four consecutive years. In final national rankings, his CSULB teams were rated among the top ten of university division teams for three straight years.

What is equally amazing is that Tarkanian NEVER lost a home game at Long Beach. His 49er teams won 65 straight home games in the Campus Gym and the Long Beach Arena, culminating with an impressive 77-66 victory over Marquette that drew a PCAA and CSULB record crowd of 12,987 spectators.

Prior to coming to Long Beach, Tarkanian spent seven years in the jc ranks at Riverside and Pasadena City Colleges. At Riverside (1962-66), he had a 131-9 overall record, which included three consecutive state championships and four league championships in five years. No other junior college coach in the history of California basketball achieved those heights. At Pasadena (1966-68), Tarkanian was 67-4 and bagged a fourth state title while finishing in the runner-up spot another time.

An astonishing feature of his wins is that they were accomplished at schools which had never previously won a basketball championship. Riverside was last in its conference two consecutive years before Tarkanian, Pasadena was last in its conference the previous year and Long Beach had never won a championship in basketball.

The amazing coach started his coaching career with five years in high school at San Joaquin Memorial, Antelope Valley, and Redlands High Schools.

Regarded as one of the great recruiters in the nation, "The Pied Piper of college basketball" landed for Long Beach such nationally recognized superstars as Sam Robinson, George Trapp, Chuck Terry, Ed Ratleff, Leonard Gray and Roscoe Pondexter. Even though he left almost a complete returning number three ranked team at Long Beach, Tarkanian already may have recruited equally as well at UNLV.

He is bringing to his new school such highly-touted high school All-Americans as Eddie Owens (Houston, Texas), Lewis Brown (Los Angeles, California), Jeep Kelly (Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania), and Jackie Robinson (Los Angeles, California). They are joined by a pair of junior college All-Americans, also new recruits, Lawrence Williams (Los Angeles) and Ricky Sobers (New York). They'll combine with returning Rebels Jimmie Baker, a consenses All-American, and Bobby Florence, a fine-shooting senior, to give Tarkanian the makings of a superior team.

Tarkanian comes to Las Vegas with a COMMITTMENT TO EXCELLENCE as his driving philosophy. Not only does he hope to achieve a nationally-ranked basketball program, but he is also working with a special tutoring and counseling program for his players. He emphasizes equally the importance of academics and basketball to his student athletes.

Evidence of his strong belief in classes, as well as games, is his selection as "Professor of the Year" in 1970 by the students of Long Beach State and his selection as "Father of the Year" in 1966 in Riverside County for his "guidance and care on and off the court to all the young men under his tutelage, as well as his family of four."

Tarkanian's players have gone on to establish themselves in the pros. They include: Chuck Terry (Milwaukee Bucks), Eric McWilliams (Houston Rockets), George Trapp (Detroit Pistons), Bob Rule (Cleveland Cavaliers), Ed Ratleff (Houston Rockets) and recently-retired John Q. Trapp (Los Angeles Lakers).

An intense individual, he has also coached in Ecuador for the People-to-People Sports Committee, and in April and May of 1968 he coached the Junior College Olympic Team in the Olympic Trials.

The 43-year-old coach has won the hearts of Las Vegas fans and the L. A. Times calls him an "Instant Las Vegas Celebrity." A true champion-builder, when he arrived at Long Beach, it was unknown nationally. When he left, it was an established power, second in the West only to UCLA.

A native of Euclid, Ohio, Tarkanian attended Pasadena City College before graduating from Fresno State in 1956. He received his Masters from the University of Redlands in 1960.

Tarkanian and his devoted and totally-involved wife, Lois, reside with their four children, Pamela, Jodie, Danny and George in Las Vegas.

MEET TONY MOROCCO
Assistant Varsity Coach

Tony Morocco begins his first season at UNLV after coming from Cal State, Long Beach, where he served in a similiar capacity for coach Tarkanian and the 49ers. Prior to Cal State, Long Beach, he spent one season of recruiting for the University of Arkansas after coming from St. Francis College in Pennsylvania where he worked two years as an assistant coach. His first college coaching position was with the University of Iowa following his 1966 graduation from Youngstown State University in Ohio, where he played his collegiate basketball and earned two All-State certificates. Once an All-State guard for Trafford High School in Pittsburgh, Pa., Morocco returned to his alma mater following his collegiate career to coach at the prep level for three seasons.

A dynamic and energetic recruiter, the aggressive Morocco is given credit for landing at least two of UNLV's high school All-Americas--Eddie Owens and Jeep Kelly.

Morocco, his wife Marilyn and their daughter Nickie reside in Las Vegas.
