NORTH AMERICAN ENERGY–WATER NEXUS ROUNDTABLE
Friday, April 1, 2011    •    UNLV Foundation Building, Blasco Event Wing

PROGRAM

• 8:00-8:30 a.m. Continental Breakfast & Networking
• 8:30-8:45 a.m. Opening Remarks
• 8:45-9:15 a.m. Keynote Speaker: Vince Tidwell, Principal Member of the Technical Staff, Sandia National Lab: “Energy-Water Planning in the Western and Texas Interconnects”
• 9:15-10:30 a.m. Panel Discussion: U.S.-Canada Transboundary Perspectives
  Moderator: David Rudolph, University of Waterloo
  Panelists: Kathryn Furlong, University of Montreal
  Kelvin Ketchum, BC Hydro
  Owen Saunders, Canadian Institute of Resources Law
  Terry Surles, Desert Research Institute
• 10:30-10:45 a.m. Break
• 10:45-12:00 p.m. Panel Discussion: U.S.-Mexico Transboundary Perspectives
  Moderator: Tom Piechota, UNLV
  Panelists: Bret Birdsong, William S. Boyd School of Law
  Jorge Durán Encalada, University of the Americas Puebla
  Lorri Gray, U.S. Bureau of Reclamation
  Sally Spener, Int’l Boundary & Water Commission
  Martin “Mike” Pasqualetti, Arizona State University
• 12:00 p.m. Buffet Lunch
• 12:30 p.m. Keynote Speaker: David Rudolph, Director of the Water Institute, University of Waterloo: “The Alberta Oil Sands: Wrestling Bitumen from the Wild North”
• 1:15-1:30 p.m. Roundtable Summary & Wrap-up
• 1:30 p.m. Program Adjournment
• 3:00-5:00 p.m. Optional: Tour of Amonix Manufacturing Facility, North Las Vegas