THE COLLEGE GAME
OFFICIAL PROGRAM

25¢
Frustration football has been the name of the game for the UNLV Rebels thus far in this most challenging season in the short five year history of the school.

Bill Ireland's Rebels are now 1-5, could just as easily be 5-1, and tonight play host to the powerful Titans of Cal State, Fullerton.

UNLV has played the California school one previous time (1970) and the Rebels came up with a stunning 20-10 victory over the Titans when they were 4-0 going into the game.

This season's Titans are 3-2 coming off of last weekend's blasting at the hands of Hawaii 49-15 at Honolulu while UNLV lost the "Mud Bowl" last weekend to Santa Clara, 28-14, in the California city in the first of four homecoming games UNLV will play in this year. Next weekend UNLV hits the road for two Homecoming games. The first will be on October 28 at Weber State and then its on to the Orange Bowl and the University of Miami. On November 18 the Rebels will host Nevada, Reno in its own Homecoming game.

The Rebel defense has been coming in with good performances consistently throughout the season, but the offense has been hit with a great number of turnovers, have had 12 passes intercepted, 13 fumbles lost, and two punts blocked thus far.

After leading the nation's punters for one week with a 45.9 average, junior Rebel punter Jim DiFiore is still in the top five in the country with his super 44.7 yard average on 30 kicks this year.

It's time now to HELP the Rebels with our SUPPORT to come through with a victory over the Titans ......

GOOD LUCK REBELS!
The passing game, as we know it today, was perfected by Gus Dorais, the passer, and Knute Rockne, the receiver on the 1912-13 Notre Dame teams.

In 1913, against Army, they introduced their weapon to the East. Dorais threw 21 passes and completed 17 of them for 243 yards. The wide-open style of attack, which gained big yardage, baffled the cadets but won the crowd and the game. The Irish were victorious 35-13 and threw the game of football into a new era.

1. Football has always spawned many nicknames. Two of the game's most colorful characters were "Mr. Inside" and "Mr. Outside". What were their real names?
2. What football player later became a Supreme Court Justice?
3. One of football's greatest players was also tagged "The greatest athlete in the world." Who was he?
4. Paul Hornung, the "Golden Goal," is one of the greatest punters ever to put on a football jersey. What number was on that jersey?
5. Who was the youngest player ever to participate in a major league baseball game?
6. What university holds more all time individual collegiate season football records than any other?
7. What school holds the record for most consecutive football victories?
8. This year Joe Namath threw six touchdown passes in one game. What is the record?
9. What is the record for the longest UNLV pass interception and return?
10. Who has the Rebel record for longest punt return?

HALFTIME HUDDLE—UNLV offensive line coach Ron Smeltzer talks it over with Rebel linemen during halftime of UNLV-Missouri Southern game two Saturdays ago. Players facing camera are Bob Doonan (64) and Steve Henry (59) and behind Smeltzer is Rebel graduate assistant coach Don Kennedy.

TOP RUSHER—UNLV’s leading rusher, Steve Matousek (16) picks up some more yardage on sweep against Missouri Southern. The junior tailback now has 300 net yards rushing for a 4.3 average gain per carry.

The 1973 Monte Carlo. A personal luxury car of the first rank. With elegance, silence, comfort and the confident handling you find in much more expensive cars.
Monte Carlo has been redesigned and re-engineered to the extent that we think you’ll find it one of the finest riding, most precise handling cars you’ve ever driven.
Chevrolet engineers have succeeded in combining this excellent ride and handling with a new body design that reflects the sophistication of these mechanical refinements. Right down to the rear seat opera windows.

And added to these qualities, our engineers have created a quietness that strikes everyone who drives the car. And quietness is one sure mark of a luxury automobile.
The 1973 Monte Carlo. A new and better way to see the U.S.A. Enjoy the game. And remember to buckle up on your way home.

Chevrolet. Building a better way to see the U.S.A.

A Fan's Glossary

By JOHN MOSER
Las Vegas Review - Journal

Having trouble figuring out just what in Hades is going on out there on the field? Confused with an onslaught of funny-sounding terms and phrases that are more akin to Egyptian hieroglyphics than the game of football?

For quick relief, try the handy gridiron glossary prepared with the aid of relentless research by the Review-Journal's John Moser. It comes complete with a life-long guarantee that provides a handy air-sick bag if you should get a grumbling in the pit of your stomach. And, it is mild.

TIGHT END GOING DOWN AND OUT - Poor lad having one too many toasts at victory celebration.

FLAIR PASS - Playing catch with a felt-tipped pen.

QUICK PITCH TO THE TAILBACK - Quarterback trying to pawn off his '56 Chevy for only $100 to his backfield buddy.

CLIPPING PENALTY - Nasty situation at Pierre's Poodle Pampering, Inc., where Pierre was found in back room with incisor marks on his forehead. Evidently, pouty felt he took too much off the top.

POWER PLAY - "The Ballad of Boulder Dam," a three-act spectacular that many theater goers have called a damsite better than average.

FIELD GOAL UNDERDOG - Playful bowser pouncing on pigskin behind end zone after successful three-point kick.

PASS INTERFERENCE - Two other guys that had same idea for post-game activity with WCAC secretary Vickie Meador last Saturday in Santa Clara.

UNLV Scene

By Mark Hughes, UNLV Information Director

High school seniors from throughout Nevada are attending tonight’s game as part of the annual Senior Day activities of the University of Nevada, Las Vegas.

Hundreds of students got their first glimpse of the UNLV campus earlier this week during a full day of activities designed to acquaint them with the university’s students and faculty. Special invitations to the UNLV-Cal State Fullerton football contest were extended to each senior who participated, and this evening they are the university’s special guests.

It was a busy day for the high school seniors Tuesday when they started their orientation program on the 300-acre campus. Since the university was unfamiliar territory to most of them, programs were geared to answer any questions they might have about studies, regulations or social activities at UNLV.

At a general assembly in the new Bailey Theatre, the students were welcomed to the campus by UNLV President Roman Zorn, listened to a band and choral concert by university music students and saw an excerpt of the current UNLV dramatic production of “Dial M for Murder.”

Dean Robert E. Glennen, the featured speaker, gave the seniors some pointers on how to succeed during the first year in college – always the toughest.

Next, the students attended informal meetings conducted by each of the seven colleges which offer undergraduate programs where they learned more about specific academic requirements of UNLV.

University students from various campus clubs and departments were on hand to greet the seniors, and there were displays and exhibits around the campus which told even more about the activities available to them as students.

From all reports, Senior Day – 1972 was the largest and most successful ever in the brief history of UNLV. We hope the high school seniors in the stadium tonight enjoy the ball game and the spirit of intercollegiate athletics.

Football Fans Invited to Support College Hall of Fame Gridiron Program

Special Gifts and Endowment Campaign Continues

Fulfilling a pledge to get the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame project moving in 1972, the Foundation's Executive Committee authorized the purchase of a six-floor, sixty-five room former mansion in New York City to serve as its National Headquarters and to house its College Football Hall of Fame. Located at 17 East 80th Street, the building is close to the Metropolitan Museum.

Designed by Cass Gilbert, the architect who designed the Woolworth Building, and built in 1909 as a residence for financier Paul Warburg, the building will provide 25,000 square feet. An impressive staircase leads from the spacious entrance hall to the lecture room-auditorium on the second floor and the library on the third floor. Both rooms extend the full width of the forty-two foot building which also contains a fully-equipped projection room. Two elevators serve the six floors and basement.

The lease with Rutgers University has been cancelled by mutual agreement of Rutgers University and NFF officials. Rutgers President Dr. Edward Blount has wished the Foundation officials well. NFF Chairman Vincent Draddy said: "Building costs are continually escalating. We have succeeded in raising almost $2 million of the $5.5 million it would take, at today's costs, to build and equip the structure we had planned. Re-evaluating the nation's changing economic and social conditions, the Foundation's Executive Committee decided to change the Foundation's priority and concentrate on our educational and leadership programs on behalf of the youth of America. The building will enable us to pursue these goals without delay. The building's immediate availability offers us also an opportunity to utilize our Hall of Fame exhibits in programs that will emphasize the educational aspects of college, intramural, and extramural athletics, competitive campus activities, and the developing of well-rounded scholar-athletes for leadership positions throughout the country. In this way, we shall serve the present and the future, as well as the past."

Concluding, Draddy said: "We will need to continue our Special Gifts and General Endowment campaign so that we may have the necessary funds to fulfill our objectives. We appreciate the fact that many colleges and universities throughout the country are asking that their fans participate in this tax-deductible effort. Contributions may be sent to our present fund-raising office in New York City. Checks should be made out to The National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Building and Endowment Fund, 11 East 44th Street, Suite 1604, New York, New York 10017.
