TONIGHT'S GAME

UNLV VS MARSHALL UNIVERSITY

By Dominic Clark
UNLV Sports Information Director

"2-0 isn't bad, but 3-0 sounds even better."

That's the phrase echoed over the campus of the University of Nevada, Las Vegas as the Rebels prepared for the tonight's invasion of the Thundering Herd from Marshall University.

While Ron Meyer's Rebels enter the game with easy wins over the State College of Arkansas, 38-6 and Cal State, Los Angeles, 42-7, Jack Lengyel's Herd knocked off Morehead State of Kentucky, 24-17 in their season opener last weekend.

Like UNLV, Marshall had a poor year in 1972 with a 2-10 record, but back are 22 starters tonight who were lettermen.

In two games UNLV has proven to be a strong defensive and offensive team with a strong ground attack as evidenced by the number of school records set last week against CSLA.

As a team, UNLV tied the single-game mark for most attempts rushing (69) and set a new mark in most net yards gained rushing (370), and came in with the most first downs rushing (20) by any Rebel team before.

Individually, it was Mike Thomas night against CSLA as the 5-10, 188 pound diminutive keg of dynamite for two school standards as he totalled 292 yards on 43 carries for a 6.8 per-carry average. He has scored four touchdowns, three rushing and one passing.

Rebel fans may see the home team take to the air more tonight than the previous two games as UNLV has been effective in the few times they have thrown the ball, completing 16 passes for 136 yards and four touchdowns.

Besides Thomas, rushing well-for UNLV has been senior fullback Steve Matousek, who has churned the turf for 53 yards on 17 carries for a nine-yard average carry and one six-pointer.

The two big threats offensively for the Herd to watch tonight are quarterback Reggie Lengyel's UNLV has been effective in the few times they have thrown the ball, completing 16 passes for 136 yards and four touchdowns.

A Fan's Glossary

BY JOHN MOSER
R-J Sportswriter

Football is fun to watch for two reasons: (1) It displays the product of hours and hours of conditioning and hard work and (2) You're not the one getting the tail knocked out of him out there on the field.

Football is like a western on TV, an auto race or Christian Day at the Roman Coliseum. People like to watch controlled violence. It's a release, an avenue by which you can air your own frustrations.

And you can air your frustrations from the stands much better if you have an understanding of some of the intricate, clever language of football. So don't wait another minute, take in and ingest the following football terms, and remain seated after the final gun, there will be a pop quiz.

TWO-POINT CONVERSION -- Billy Graham appealing for abstinence and morality.

WISHBONE ATTACK -- Team meal on Thanksgiving Day.

ON SIDE KICK -- When the bad guys start a fight with Tomo, Gabby Hayes or Smiley Burnett.

DEFENSIVE LINEMEN -- Embarrassed power company employees making excuses for line that falls on the highway.

COFFIN CORNER -- I as Vegas Blvd. North and Washington, the location of Bunker Bros.

POWER SWEEP -- An electric broom.

ILLEGAL RECEIVER DOWNFIELD -- Irate fan throwing his transistor radio at official, which misses him by inches at the three yard line.

ILLEGAL SHIFT -- House dress worn by big, sick bird.

FREE SAFETY -- Come on fans, buckle your seat belts.

SLOT BACK PASS -- Mechanic cleaning out coins from a Buely nickel machine and heaving them over to cashier.

UNLV Scene

BY MARK HUGHES
Information Director

Enrollment at the UNLV campus took another jump this fall -- up six per cent over a year ago. Officials at the university believe there will be more than 6,500 students attending classes when all has been tabulated.

The hike comes at a time when many universities are experiencing enrollment declines. The national average, in fact, shows no increase. But UNLV continues to defy the trend.

There are 3,659 registered as full-time students and another 2,317 attending on a part-time basis this semester. Out-of-state enrollment stands at 409, an increase of about 15 per cent over a year ago.

Next fall, UNLV inaugurates an all-computerized registration system which will do away with the long lines and the frustrations that go along with them. Here is a look at how it went this time:

Football Coaches Show Culinary Expertise
(After all, they've been eating all their lives.)

While the popular conception may be that most collegiate football coaches eat, drink and sleep football, in actuality, the majority of them spend their meal-times eating food. The following are some of the favorite recipes of six of the nation's more prominent gridiron bosses as prepared by their wives.

BEAR'S FUDGE PIE
by Mrs. Paul (Mary Harmon) Bryant
(University of Alabama)
Melt one stick of butter and two squares of chocolate over hot water, take off stove and stir in one cup of sugar, 1/4 cup of flour (sifted), pinch salt and two eggs (beaten slightly). Then add one tablespoon of vanilla extract. Put in pie pan and bake in oven heated to 375 degrees. Turn down to 325 degrees and cook 30 minutes. Serve warm with ice cream. Nuts may be added to mixture before baking if desired.

BAKED CHICKEN AND RICE
by Mrs. Vincent J. Dooley
(University of Georgia)
Put 12-ounce and one 6-ounce can of 12-ounce and one 6-ounce can of meat in a bowl. Mix ingredients and brown meat in cream, then cool water. While chicken is cooking mix together, chuck or lamb, rice, salt, pepper and cinnamon. Add this mixture chicken and simmer or bake in slow oven until rice is done (about 30 minutes). For extra flavor squeeze the juice of lemon on top of the rice mixture just before serving.

LASAGNE
by Mrs. Bill Fulcher
(Georgia Tech)
Brown in butter 1 garlic button, 1 onion, 2 stalks celery and chili powder just to taste. Add 1 lb. ground round and brown. Add—2 cloves, 2 cups cooked macaroni, 2 small cans tomato sauce, 1 large can stewed tomatoes with juice, 2 small cans kidney beans without juice, Lawry's salt and pepper, 1 teaspoon chopped green chilies. Cook until vegetables are done and meat is brown. Cook for 45 minutes, until center is very hot. Makes 12 to 14 servings.

CORN FRITTERS
