UNLV CONCERT SINGERS
& CHAMBER CHORALE
David B. Weiller, Conductor

Sunday, December 2, 2007
Artemus W. Ham Concert Hall
2:00 p.m.
French composer and organist Maurice Duruflé combines the free-flowing quality of the traditional Gregorian chant with striking 20th century harmonies in order to convey the text's timeless message. Ubi caritas is one of four unaccompanied motets composed in 1960.

Ubi caritas

Ubi caritas et amor, Deus ibi est.

Congregavit nos in unum Christi amor.

Exultemus et in ipso iucundumur.

Timeamus et amemus Deum vivum.

Et ex corde diligamus nos sincero.

(Anonymous 10th century)

Where there is charity and love, there is God.
The love of Christ has gathered us together into one community.
Let us rejoice and be glad in it.
Let us revere and love the living God.
And let us love one another with a sincere heart.

Fall softly, snow

Snow, fall softly on the scarred earth;
cover us with thy pure white;
cool our fever'd face tonight.
Snow, fall softly at the Savior's birth.

Star, shine steadfast on the inconstant land.
Keep the plain path clear to find;
shine e'en though our eyes are blind.
Star, shine steadfast for the lonely band.

Maid, sing sweetly on this noisy sphere.
'Neath the thundrous wars increase, let thy low voice whisper, "Peace."
Maid, sing sweetly that the world may hear.

Boy, grow quickly in this searing clime.
Overcome sin's bitter loss;
Hasten thou 'ward the cross.
Boy, grow quickly and redeem our time.

(Anonymous 15th century poem)

---

There is no rose

There is no rose of such vertu
as is the rose that bare Jesus,
Alleluia.

For in this rose contained was heaven and earth in little space.
Res miranda [fantastic event].

By that rose we may well see
there be one God in persons three,
Alleluia, res miranda, pares forma [equal image].

Then leave we all this worldly mirth
and follow we this joyous birth,
Alleluia.

(Anonymous 15th century poem)
WASSAIL SONG (from Five English Folk Songs, 1913) . . . . . . . . ARR. RALPH VAUGHAN WILLIAMS (1872-1958)

This eighteenth-century folk carol from the Gloucestershire region of England is an open and direct celebration of the most secular functions of the holiday season. It is a very skillfully crafted tribute to the raucous rituals of Christmas cheer, with a strong melody that is eminently suitable to the liveliness of Gloucestershire. The existence of multiple wassail songs illustrates the widespread popularity of the traditional wassail custom.

MESSIAH (excerpts) .......................................................... GEORGE FRIDERIC HANDEL (1685-1759)

"In 1741 Handel chose to stage two new Italian operas for his English audiences. It was a final effort to revive interest in the form that had been his chief means of musical expression during thirty-five years of working life. The attempt failed: both operas failed miserably, and by the spring Handel was giving serious thought to returning to Germany. Against this depressing background [librettist] Jennens conceived and executed his plan for a new oratorio to fire Handel's enthusiasm. Handel had been invited to give a series of oratorio concerts in Dublin and he could see that a new oratorio would be a suitable way of concluding a successful season. In fact the Dublin season turned out to be all that Handel could have wished, and duly culminated with the first performance of Messiah on 13 April 1742. In 1750 Handel began a practice of making Messiah the last oratorio of his annual Lent season at Covent Garden. By the time of Handel's death in 1759 Messiah had become the most frequently performed of all his oratorios, a position it was never to relinquish." (from program notes by Anthony Hicks)

UNLV Symphony Orchestra

The UNLV SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA is comprised of undergraduate and graduate music majors/minors in the UNLV College of Fine Arts as well as non-music majors. The mission of this performing ensemble is threefold: to train music majors to become professional performers and teachers; to introduce non-music majors to higher quality music making; and to enrich the cultural life of UNLV and Las Vegas community. The orchestra presents a number of programs each season that include a variety of the orchestral standard repertoire, ranging from early Baroque through contemporary. The UNLV Symphony Orchestra performs at least one major work with chorus every year as well as one complete opera.

Student soloists are featured throughout the year either on the Student Solists Concert or as guest artists for winning the annual Solo Concerto Competition. The list of guest soloists with the UNLV Symphony Orchestra includes Sarah Chang, Rachel Lee, Edgar Meyer, Wei Wei Le, Andrew Smith, Mykola Sul, Oleg Krysa, Kaitlen Tully and many others. Past music directors include James Stivers, Felix Viscuglia, Tad Suzuki, Harold Weller and George Stelluto.

UNLV Choral Ensembles

The UNLV CHORAL ENSEMBLES maintain an active schedule of appearances each year and enjoy a reputation for excellent performances throughout the southwest and beyond. The choirs recently were praised for a concert described as "...glorious, yet disciplined. The choruses performed with unaffected charisma." Under the direction of David B. Weiller and Jocelyn K. Jensen, the choirs (University Concert Singers, Chamber Chorale and Women's Chorus) present several concerts annually on the university campus and in the greater Las Vegas community. Annual tours have encompassed the southwestern United States as well as Hawaii, New York, Mexico, and Canada. Past concert highlights include holiday performances with the world-renowned Boston Pops Esplanade Orchestra conducted by Keith Lockhart and participation in a massed choir performance in New York City's Carnegie Hall conducted by John Rutter.

University choirs have been honored with invited performances for western region and state conventions of the Music Educators National Conference (MENC) and western division conventions of the American Choral Directors Association (ACDA) in Honolulu and Los Angeles. The choirs have performed major works with the Mexico National Symphony in Mexico City, the Nevada Symphony Orchestra, the Las Vegas Philharmonic and the University Symphony Orchestra. Major works presented include Bach's Magnificat and Christmas Oratorio (Part I), Brahms' Ein Deutches Requiem, Handel's Messiah, Mozart's Requiem and Coronation Mass, Beethoven's Symphony #9 and Choral Fantasy, Mahler's Symphony #2, Orff's Carmina Burana, Vaughan Williams' Dona Nobis Pacem, Böhm's Sacred Service (excerpts) and Bernstein's Chichester Psalms.

The university choirs have appeared in numerous fully staged productions in collaboration with UNLV Opera Theatre, including Gluck's Orfeo ed Euridice, Mozart's The Magic Flute, Offenbach's La Perichole, Puccini's La Bohème, Gilbert & Sullivan's H.M.S. Pinafore and Patience, Strauss' Die Fledermaus and Lehár's The Merry Widow. On a lighter note, the choirs have presented concerts of classic musical theatre repertoire, including a concert version of George Gershwin's Pulitzer Prize-winning musical, Of The I Sing. Choir members sang in Barbra Streisand's Millennium New Year's concerts in Las Vegas, with composer-songwriter Marvin Hamlisch, with popular singer Linda Eder and at the opening of the new Wynn Resort.

The UNLV Choral Ensembles sponsor the University Children's Chorale in partnership with the Clark County School District and private schools in southern Nevada. Now in its sixth successful season under the direction of Liz Goodman, Barbara Buer and Jeff Kriske (currently on sabbatical), the UCC has performed with the Las Vegas Philharmonic, appeared by invitation at a National American Orff-Schulwerk Association conference and embarked on a New York tour. In 2006 the UCC sang for the American Guild of Organists Conclave in Las Vegas and traveled to London to appear at the Canterbury Choral Festival.

The UNLV Choral Ensembles also sponsor a student chapter of the American Choral Directors Association (ACDA), which hosted the 1993, 1996 and 2000 Western Division Student Symposium on the UNLV campus. An excellent, dynamic teaching faculty in the Department of Music includes voice faculty members Alfonse Anderson, Michael Cochran, Juliene Baril-Gilmore, Tod Fitzpatrick, Serdar Ilhan, Veen Asher, Carol Kimball and Christine Seitz. The department offers curricula leading to B.A., B.M., M.M., and D.M.A. degrees.
The UNLV Choral Ensembles express their heartfelt appreciation to The Las Vegas Master Singers & Jocelyn K. Jensen, conductor for their vision and commitment in establishing the SUSAN L. JOHNSON SCHOLARSHIP FOR CHORAL STUDIES, a newly endowed scholarship providing ongoing support of talented and deserving choral musicians at UNLV.

Dear Patron of the Arts:

On behalf of the University Choral Ensembles, it is our pleasure to invite you to become a member of the Friends of UNLV Choral Music. The UNLV Choral Ensembles enjoy an outstanding reputation for exciting performances on the university campus and in the greater Las Vegas community. The choirs also travel out of state annually for festivals, music conventions and tours.

Since 1992, over 500 individuals, businesses and corporations have contributed generously in order for us to produce concerts in Las Vegas and continue our travels. Now your support is needed so that we may continue our tradition of providing outstanding musical experiences for our students and for our ever-growing audiences. A contribution of any amount will demonstrate your commitment to the future of the choral art in our community. The calendar included in this evening's program describes the many concerts, festivals and travel experiences that will become a reality due to your generous donation.

Please add your name to our list of donors - any amount you can afford is appreciated and will help us reach our goals. Frankly, we can't do it without you! Your donation will support the costs of running a vibrant university choral program - performances, festivals, music purchases, production costs, travel expenses, advertising, etc. We receive a $3,000 allocation each year from the university, yet this year we will spend at least $30,000 to maintain our current level of activity (music purchases, production costs, travel expenses, advertising, etc.). As you can see, our existence truly depends on your support! Rest assured that our students, in addition to maintaining rigorous academic schedules, also work very hard by selling tickets, hosting fundraisers and, of course, presenting excellent concerts.

We are excited to report that the 2007-2008 concert season includes many special events. Some of our performance projects include An Evening of Musical Theatre, the annual Madrigal/Chamber Choir Festival, Handel's Messiah in December, an African-American Celebration in February, participation in collegiate choral festivals in the spring, and a performance of Honegger's King David with the Las Vegas Philharmonic in May. These are only a few examples of our expenses. As you can see, our existence truly depends on your support!

Gifts to the Friends of UNLV Choral Music may be tax-deductible and will be acknowledged accordingly. Donors at all levels are listed in our concert programs throughout the season. We look forward to seeing you at our performances this year, and we welcome your participation as a member of the Friends of UNLV Choral Music.
