Dear NSU Sports Fan:

Welcome to another, and we hope for all of us a successful, Nevada Southern University Intercollegiate Athletics sporting event. We sincerely hope you enjoy this major sports activity, as your attendance has indicated your continued enjoyment of games in past seasons.

You are watching the NSU Rebels, one of the best teams in the country — a team ranked in the Top 10 in the nation in their division last year. We of the University are justly proud of our fine athletics, and the excellent job of coaching and program directing being done by Coach Rolland Todd and Athletic Director Michael Drnkich. We feel certain your support of all our teams, present and future, will by their showing of skill and sportsmanship in this game, be justified.

We thank all our loyal fans for their support. A special "Thank You" must go to members of the Century Club, a part of the University Rebel Club, for their unequalled contributions to the NSU Athletic Program.

Again, welcome — and thank you for coming.

In the 1967-68 season, he compiled a 15-11 record; last season the Rebels posted a 21-6 mark. He began his playing career at Strathmore, California, High School. He was scoring leader in 1953-54 at Fresno State College.

Todd is a Fresno State graduate (1958) and completed his master's degree at the University of Washington in 1963.

His previous college coaching experience at Riverside City College (winner of 35 straight during 1963-64) and Los Angeles State where he was as assistant for two years prior to coming to Nevada Southern.

Coach Todd's enthusiasm and refusal to rest on the laurels of last year's success has brought to Nevada Southern the most talented group of basketball players in the history of the school, that coupled with returning lettermen should make for an exciting Rebel basketball team that Southern Nevadans can be proud of.

FRESHMEN BASKETBALL COACH — BILL SCOBIE

ASSIST. FRESHMEN BASKETBALL COACH — LES REESE

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS — MICHAEL DRAGULICH
The 1967-68 basketball season should prove to be an interesting one for the Wolf Pack. The slide from top o' the heap conference champs in 1965-66 to a tie for next to the bottom rung of the ladder in 1966-67 was a painful experience for the usually competent Wolves, but Coach Jack Spencer has high hopes for his current squad.

By the first of the year when the conference season begins, the team should have gained much in experience and teamwork. Going into his ninth season at Nevada with inexperienced juniors and several good men from last year's frosh squad, Coach Spencer forecasts 1967 as a building year. He reports that what the team lacks in experience, it will make up in hustle, desire, better defense, and improved shooting. He does not plan to employ last year's slow-down offense, but will use a fast break at every opportunity.

The offensive punch should come from 6-3 Alex Boyd, high scoring freshman (24.3 average); Dexter Wright, 6-3 center also from the frosh squad; Hugh Gallagher, returning letterman, and Roy Lesh, a transfer from Rangely J.C. in Colorado.

Other returnees who should provide stability for the "new look" Nevada team include Joe Madigan, 1967's leading Conference rebounder, Terry Gilmartin who was used as a spot player last year and is very fast; and Ed Gladding, one of the hardest workers on the squad.
