ROLLAND TODD
Head Basketball Coach
NEVADA SOUTHERN UNIVERSITY

Rolland Todd begins his fourth year at Nevada Southern as dean of the present coaching staff. Todd has had three winning seasons with the Rebels and boasts a 58-25 record. Last year the Rebels had a 22-7 season (the most wins ever) and earned a berth in the NCAA College Division Tournament in Evansville, Indiana.

Todd was born April 26, 1934, in Strathmore, California. After graduating from high school in Strathmore he played basketball at College of Sequoias and Fresno State College. He was FSC's leading scorer in the 1953-54 season.

The Rebels head man was drafted in 1954 and spent three years in the Army. He returned to Fresno State after his service hitch and graduated in 1958.

The same year he joined the Buchan Bakers of Seattle, Washington, and played for two years in the National Industrial Basketball League. In 1961 he moved to San Francisco to join the SF Saints in the newly formed American Basketball League. During the `62-`63 season the team moved across the Bay and became the Oakland Oaks.

In 1963 Todd also finished work on a master's degree from the University of Washington. He had started to work on the degree while playing in Seattle. After the ABL folded Todd went to Riverside, and for two years he was Jerry Tarkanian's assistant while Riverside City College was winning 35 straight games and two California JC titles.

In 1964 he joined Bill Sharman's staff at Los Angeles State and was there one season before coming to Nevada Southern.

Since taking over the Rebels Todd has advanced the basketball program to its present stage as one of the country's top small college teams.
