A “Vegas” Overture for Band

World Premiere
Commemorating the 50th Anniversary of the University of Nevada, Las Vegas

This work is dedicated to the UNLV Wind Orchestra, Thomas G. Leslie, conductor. “Scarlet and Silver Jubilee” is a creative testament to the dedication, bold leadership and visionary spirit of the UNLV Presidential Cabinet, 50th Anniversary Celebration Committee, and the Dean of the College of Fine Arts.

Nessun Dorma

Aria from the final act of “Turandot”

The Aria, whose title translates from Italian as “No one will sleep”, follows the proclamation by the Princess Turandot that no one shall sleep: They shall all spend the night attempting to find out the name of the unknown prince, Calaf, who has set the challenge that if his name cannot be found out, the cold Princess Turandot will marry him. Calaf sings, indicating his certainty that their efforts to discover his name will be in vain.

Le Sentier

World Premiere

“In June of 2005, I was invited to serve as a guest performer and musical arranger for the UNLV Wind Orchestra in special concert performances at the Festival des Anches located in the picturesque French Riviera town of La Croix Valmer. As part of the lodging amenities, my family and I were privileged to stay at a beautiful villa called La Vieux Saunier. Rolling hills bordered by the Mediterranean Sea and the perfectly complimentary vineyards, orchards, wildlife and a tranquil lifestyle enjoyed by its citizenry became the impetus for the composition of Le Sentier.

Le Sentier, translated as the path or the way, is a musical rendering of my family’s travels throughout France which begins with original thematic material evoking the pastoral environs unique to Provence. A second, but perhaps more prominent musical motive is borrowed from the pre-recorded musical cue, vocalized by a female voice and repeatedly played on the public address system before the announcement of train arrivals and departures, and familiar to passengers at train stations throughout France. The third, gradual introduction of themes from the 4th movement of Bach’s Cantata No. 140, Wachet Auf (BWV 140) includes the main hymn tune borrowed by Bach and written by Hans Sachs (1494-1576) with text written by Philipp Nicolai (1556-1608). These are also used to emblematize the main body of the piece reminiscent of our many excursions including those from Toulon in the south, to Caen in the northern region of Normandie, and on to the famed Val De Loire region. To represent the final leg of this memorable journey, Bayeaux to Paris, I chose the American hymn
To God Be The Glory signaling, with motivic restatements of the aforementioned themes, the final arrival to the person and place figuratively and literally more glorious than that of any great city."

Jesus lui dit: Je suis le chemin, la verite, et la vie. Nul ne vient au Pere que par moi. — Jean 14:6

Le Sentier is lovingly dedicated by the composer to mentor and friend Dr. Harry Begian, Director of Bands Emeritus, University of Illinois, and specially commissioned for the UNLV Wind Orchestra, Thomas G. Leslie, Conductor.

October

"October is my favorite month. Something about the crisp autumn air and the subtle changes in light always make me a little sentimental, and as I started to sketch I felt that same quiet beauty in the writing. The simple, pastoral melodies and subsequent harmonies are inspired by the great English Romantics (Vaughan Williams, Elgar) as I felt that this style was also perfectly suited to capture the natural and pastoral soul of the season. I'm quite happy with the end result, especially because I feel there just isn't enough lush, beautiful music written for winds. October was premiered May 14, 2000 and is dedicated to Brian Anderson, a man who brought it all together."

Tribute

Tribute was composed for the Commander of the U.S. Army Band Col. Eugene W. Allen and his wife, Claire, to honor all American women who have served their country in the armed forces. The work was premiered in April, 1985, at Radford University with the composer conducting The United States Army Band. Other significant performances include those by the Northwestern University Symphonic Wind Ensemble under the direction of John P. Payntner. The work is ceremonial in character with two outer fanfare-like sections contrasted by a lyrical middle section.

Tribute was runner-up for the 1986 Oswald Award for band composition sponsored by the American Bandmasters Association. Composer-conductor Mark Camphouse is currently Associate Professor of Music and Director of Bands at Old Dominion University in Virginia.

Pas Redouble, op. 86

Originally written for four-hand piano, it was transcribed for band by Arthur Frackenpohl. The tempo of a pas redouble varies with the proficiency of the performer(s), as well as the wishes of the composer and the customs of that period. During the mid-nineteenth century, military units in some nations were marching to a cadence of about ninety steps per minute for the slow march (pas ordinaire), 120 for the quick march (pas redouble), and 160 to 180 for the double-quick march (pas de charge).

Ghost Train

"The legend of the Ghost Train is about a supernatural machine that roars out of the night through forgotten towns and empty canyons, and it is deeply rooted in American folklore, and it was this spirit that I tried to capture. The compositional challenge came in creating a larger three movement work from the first movement which was originally conceived and performed as a single event.

I felt that the use of trains as a source of sounds and inspirations was virtually inexhaustible, but I wanted to save the integrity of the original while using it as the architectural foundation. At the Station is just that: the train comes to a roaring halt and the passengers depart. In this movement I see countless images: friends and family reunited, the soaring architecture of the station itself, and the genuine sincerity and innocence of the era. After a reflective pastiche the locomotive builds up steam and slowly departs, grand and graceful. The Motive Revolution is twofold in its implication. The name refers to the period between 1850 and 1870 when steam engines revolutionized transportation, and also describes the cyclical treatment of musical motive throughout the movement. The train blazes across the country side, moonlight glistening of its dark steel, and ends with a final, heroic tribute to these machines and the people who worked them."

Ghost Train was written for and dedicated to Thomas G. Leslie and the UNLV Wind Orchestra.
Eric Whitacre

An accomplished composer, conductor and lecturer, Eric Whitacre has quickly become one of the most popular and performed composers of his generation. The Los Angeles Times has praised his compositions as “works of unearthly beauty and imagination, [with] electric, chilling harmonies,” while The Philadelphia Inquirer has called him “the hottest thing in choral music.” Though he had received no formal training before the age of 18, his first experiences singing in college choir changed his life, and he completed his first concert work, Go, Lovely, Rose, at the age of 21. Eric went on to the Juilliard School, earning his Master of Music degree and studying with Pulitzer Prize- and Oscar-winning composer John Corigliano.

Many of Whitacre’s works have entered the standard choral and symphonic repertories and have become the subject of several recent scholarly works and doctoral dissertations. His works Water Night, Cloudburst, Sleep, Lux Aurumque and A Boy and a Girl are among the most popular choral works of the last decade, and his Ghost Train, Gaudí Silla Eats Las Vegas, and October have achieved equal success in the symphonic wind community. To date, Whitacre’s published works have received thousands of performances and sold well over 350,000 copies worldwide.

As a conductor, Mr. Whitacre has appeared with hundreds of professional and educational ensembles throughout the world. In the last ten years he has conducted concerts of his choral and symphonic music in Japan, Australia, China, Singapore and much of Europe, as well as dozens of American universities and colleges where he regularly conducts seminars and lectures with young musicians.

Most recently, Whitacre has received acclaim for Paradise Lost, a cutting edge musical combining trance, ambient and techno electronica with choral, cinematic, and operatic traditions. Winner of the ASCAP Harold Arlen award, this musical also gained Whitacre the prestigious Richard Rodgers Award for most promising musical theater composer.

Whitacre has received composition awards from the Barlow International Composition Competition, the American Choral Directors Association and the American Composers Forum. His first recording, The Music of Eric Whitacre, was hailed by The American Record Guide as one of the top ten classical albums of 1997. In 2001, he became the youngest recipient ever awarded the coveted Raymond C. Brock commission by the American Choral Directors Association. His music has been featured on dozens of commercial and independent recordings, and a full collection of his a cappella music will be released under the Hyperion label in spring 2006. Mr. Whitacre lives in Los Angeles with his wife, celebrated soprano Hila Plitmann and their son.
