SCOUTING REPORT

The Lions are on the rampage and recently knocked Santa Clara out of sole possession of first place in the WCAC. Led by 6-8 center Steve Smith and playmaking guard Duane Williamson, the Lions are a rapidly improving team. UNLV beat them in Los Angeles earlier this season, 101-84.

Rebel Seniors Al Clise and Booker Washington

There are only two seniors on this year's UNLV basketball team and both of them are starting guards and co-captains for the year.

Al Clise and Booker Washington are finishing their third and final season with the Rebels and they certainly won't soon be forgotten. Clise, a 6-2 guard from Bellevue, Washington, could certainly win the "Mr. Hustle" award on any team in the nation.

Booker, 6-1 from Birmingham, Alabama, has found a spot not only in the hearts of the Las Vegas fans, but also in the UNLV record books. This season is not over yet, but Booker will finish his career as the third highest all-time scorer in the history of Rebel baskets.

Clise just recently had his career high game of 22 points while "Booker's Bombs" have totalled 43 and the Book also had a career high of 17 assists in one game.

One thing is certain, these two Rebels will not be forgotten.
