Jerry Tarkanian
Head Basketball Coach

Winning is a fact of life to Jerry Tarkanian – on the court and off.

In 17 years of coaching in the collegiate, high school and junior college ranks, the first-year Rebel coach has known nothing but excellence.

In five seasons at Cal State, Long Beach, he ran up an amazing 122-20 record. He is the winniest active major college coach with an .869 percentage. He guided the 49ers to five straight conference championships and four state championships and four NCAA Tournament appearances in five years. No other junior college coach in California history has had such a record. He is the winningest basketball coach in the history of Cal State, Long Beach.

Tarkanian comes to Las Vegas with a COMMITMENT TO EXCELLENCE as his driving philosophy. Not only does he hope to achieve a nationally-ranked basketball program, but he is also working with a special tutoring and counseling program for his players. He emphatically believes the importance of academics and basketball to his student athletes.

Evidence of his strong beliefs in classes is his selection as “Professor of the Year” in 1970 by the students of Long Beach State and his selection as “Father of the Year” in 1966 in Riverside County for his “guidance and care on and off the court to all the young men under his tutelage, as well as his family of four.”

Tarkanian’s players have gone on to establish themselves in the pros. They include: Chuck Terry (Milwaukee Bucks), Eric McWilliams (Houston Rockets), George Trapp (Detroit Pistons), Bob Rule (Cleveland Cavaliers), Ed Ratliff (Houston Rockets) and recently retired John Trapp (Los Angeles Lakers).

An intense individual, he has also coached in Ecuador for the People-to-People Sports Committee, and in April and May of 1968 he coached the Junior College Olympic Team in the Olympic Trials.

The 42-year-old coach has won the hearts of Las Vegas fans and the L. A. Times calls him an “Instant Las Vegas Celebrity.” A true champion-builder, when he arrived at Long Beach, it was unknown nationally. When he left, it was established power, second in the West only to UCLA.

A native of Euclid, Ohio, Tarkanian attended Pasadena City College before graduating from Fresno State in 1956. He received his Masters from the University of Redlands in 1960.

Tarkanian and his devoted and totally-involved wife, Lois, reside with their four children, Pamela, Jodie, Danny and George in Las Vegas.
LEAPING BOBBY — Senior UNLV forward Bobby Florence goes high for Rebound in season-opening game against Texas Tech. Florence has a strong chance to become the all-time career scoring leading for the Rebels.
