Scouting Report
The Lions are a well-coached, disciplined team that have a tremendous amount of pride and never give up. The Rebels nearly exploded in L.A. earlier this season, but had to settle for a comfortable, but not huge, 66-58 victory. Loyola/Marymount is a credit to the league and can surprise any unsuspecting foe.

305 CONVENTION CENTER DRIVE
As time quickly passes us and our lives unfold before us, the year of another University of Nevada, Las Vegas basketball season and season, he decided to graduate this spring as is the Ventura JC, and started per game.

During the same season, he came off the bench to score 14 points and was a UNLV uniform and at times has used, during the same season.

His finest game of the season this year was when he lead the Rebels in scoring his third and fourth highest scoring games in Rebel history as he canned 44 points out the season a tragedy hit his family and his father passed away.

Last season he came off the bench and hit a 32-footer to give UNLV a 87-85 victory over the WCAC champion University of San Francisco. He is also, like Bolster, a member of the UNLV tennis team.

Shaw is the best defensive player on this year’s team according to head coach Jerry Tarkanian and he has one of the most important jobs on the team according to head coach Jerry Tarkanian and assistant coach Ron Kowalke. He is a member of the UNLV team that has one thing in common, this is their last game for UNLV.

Florence is possibly the most colorful player in UNLV cage history. He led the Rebels in scoring his sophomore and junior seasons with 22.1 and 24.6 per game averages and when some thought he might even ride the pines in 1974, he has come through like the champion that he is and is leading the most talented Rebel team ever in scoring for the third consecutive season. He is the fourth all-time scorer in West Coast Athletic Conference history and he is the third all-time UNLV scorer with 1,608 career points (through 22 games of the 1973-74 season) with a 21.7 lifetime scoring average which is second only to the legendary Elbert Miller who averaged 29.1 per game from 1966-68.

The wily-smooth moving 6-4 forward from Des Moines, Iowa has third and fourth highest scoring games in Rebel history as he canned 44 points against Houston in 1972-73 and 43 against St. Mary’s during the same season.

This year he has a team-high of 39 that he scored in the upset win over the University of Santa Clara. He is another local talent who has remained at home to play his college ball. The Rancho High graduate saw action throughout the season until a tragedy hit his family and his father passed away.

The Hotel Administration major who does his best and accepts his fate gracefully.

The wily-smooth moving 6-4 forward from Des Moines, Iowa has third and fourth highest scoring games in Rebel history as he canned 44 points against Houston in 1972-73 and 43 against St. Mary’s during the same season.

This year he has a team-high of 39 that he scored in the upset win over the University of Colorado on the road. His lifetime field goal percentage is .557, surely one of the finest in the country. He has led the Rebels in scoring 10 times this year.

Bolster is one of the scrappiest players ever to wear a UNLV uniform and at times has played superb. He has "quarterbacked" Rebel teams and if over the expression "giving 100 per cent" can be used, Bolster is the epitome of effort.

His finest game of the season this year was when he came off the bench to score 14 points and lead the Rebels to a 91-87 overtime victory over St. Mary’s. The Ontario, California, product came to UNLV from Ventura JC, and started last year averaging 6.2 points per game.

Wright is a Las Vegas product out of Western High School (class of 1969) and although he could have another year of eligibility because he redshirted one season, he decided to graduate this spring as is the same case with Piercy and Shaw.

"The Bomber" as he is oft-times called because of his proficiency for the long-range jump-shot, has not played too much this year but last year he appeared in 21 games and averaged 3.1 points per game. He’s a hard worker and tries as hard as anyone on the practice court.

He averaged 15.2 points per game as a freshman on the frosh squad and will graduate with a degree in Hotel Administration.

Piercy is the "brains" of the UNLV team as he has three and one-half year grade point average of 3.5 in his accounting major. He, too, has not played extensively during his career as a Rebel, but it has not changed his outlook on life or his feeling about the Rebel program. He is a competitive individual who does his best and accepts his fate graciously.

Last season he came off the bench and hit a 32-footer to give UNLV a 87-85 victory over the WCAC champion University of San Francisco. He is also, like Bolster, a member of the UNLV tennis team.

The wily-smooth moving 6-4 forward from Des Moines, Iowa has third and fourth highest scoring games in Rebel history as he canned 44 points against Houston in 1972-73 and 43 against St. Mary’s during the same season.

This year he has a team-high of 39 that he scored in the upset win over the University of Colorado on the road. His lifetime field goal percentage is .557, surely one of the finest in the country. He has led the Rebels in scoring 10 times this year.

Bolster is one of the scrappiest players ever to wear a UNLV uniform and at times has played superb. He has "quarterbacked" Rebel teams and if over the expression "giving 100 per cent" can be used, Bolster is the epitome of effort.

His finest game of the season this year was when he came off the bench to score 14 points and lead the Rebels to a 91-87 overtime victory over St. Mary’s. The Ontario, California, product came to UNLV from Ventura JC, and started last year averaging 6.2 points per game.

Wright is a Las Vegas product out of Western High School (class of 1969) and although he could have another year of eligibility because he redshirted one season, he decided to graduate this spring as is the same case with Piercy and Shaw.
