HOW DO YOU FEEL ABOUT COMMERCIALS?

BUT, HOOVER-GORIN IS A CREATIVE ADVERTISING AGENCY WITH OFFICES IN LAS VEGAS, LOS ANGELES, AND SOON, NEW YORK CITY.

DID YOU KNOW THAT OUR CLIENTS REPORTED FROM 45% TO 200% INCREASE IN CONSUMER RESPONSE? NOW, WHO DO YOU WANT TO HANDLE YOUR DON RICKLES TALK-ALIKE CONTEST?
There is an old adage that says something to the effect: "The third time is the charm." Well, if there is any truth at all to that ancient quote, then Jerry Tarkanian's third year as the UNLV head basketball coach should be the finest yet.

And, if year number three is better than number two, it will be a great Rebel year in 1975-76. Last season was UNLV's finest ever, a 24-5 record, the West Coast Athletic Conference championship, and the Rebels advanced to the Division I playoffs for the first time and ended the season in the top 20 in both the UPI and AP polls.

To be the best is not the easiest challenge ever accepted by a man, but Tarkanian has made the commitment and he and his staff are dedicated to that goal.

Winning is a fact of life to Jerry Tarkanian - on the court and off. In 19 years of coaching in the collegiate, high school and junior college ranks, the third-year Rebel coach has known nothing but success.

In seven seasons as a major college coach (five at Cal State, Long Beach), Tarkanian has the highest winning percentage in collegiate basketball, winning 166 games while losing only 31. His two seasons with the Rebels have brought in a 44-11 record (20-6 in 1973-74 and 24-5 in 1974-75).

What is equally amazing is that Takanian NEVER lost a home game at Long Beach. His 49er teams won 65 straight home games in the Campus Gym and Long Beach arena, culminating with a nationally-televised impressive 77-66 victory over Marquette that drew a PCAA and CSU LB record crowd.

At UNLV, Tark's troops have won 21 straight games going into the 1975-76 season and in two years in Las Vegas, the Rebels, in the friendly confines of the Las Vegas Convention Center, are 29-2. The only two losses have been to Texas Tech, 82-76, and to the University of Houston, 78-72. Both were during the 1973-74 season.

Sell-out crowds have been traditional in the Tarkanian era. In the Rebels two WCAC seasons with Tarkanian, UNLV did not lose a home game in 14 nights. (UNLV has now withdrawn from the WCAC to compete as a Division I independent so as to clear the way to schedule the best competition possible. The Rebels are also developing as a strong road team as well under Tarkanian's guidance. In two seasons, UNLV is 15-9 on the road, including the first-ever Division I playoffs at the end of last season. (Continued on Page 20)

Certainly one of the finest in the nation, the University Rebels Club is the driving force behind booster support for the UNLV athletic program. With continued active member participation, the URC is growing even stronger.

This past year the URC had its greatest fund raising drive ever, raising nearly $450,000 for the support of the grant-in-aid program for Rebel athletics. This total is also one of the top five in the nation and, to think, UNLV has had only just over a decade of graduating classes, so the alumni roster isn’t very long.

The honorary list of alumni at UNLV is one of the largest as the record drive would indicate all the thousands of Rebel boosters there are in the community. URC co-ordinator & Davey Pearl and the director of athletic fund-raising for the university is Dr. Wayne Pearson. No university in the country has two more-dedicated men than Pearl and Pearson and they have literally become living legends among booster groups across the nation.

William “Wildcat” Morris is back as President of the University Rebels Club this year, but, Morris has never been too far behind the scenes in Rebel athletics, and, was one of the main men who helped establish football at UNLV.

On July 10, 1975, Caesars Palace Hotel hosted the grandest URC “Thank You” Banquet of all as nearly 2,500 Rebel boosters were honored by one of the all-time greats – Mr. Frank Sinatra.

The URC office on the UNLV campus is open daily and all Rebel boosters and friends are urged to drop by and say hello to Wayne and Davey. Information regarding the URC and what it takes to become a UNLV scholarship donor may be obtained by calling 739-3614 or dropping by their office.
Gil Castillo has the most experienced manager in collegiate basketball today. In addition, Gil Castillo has been with one coach longer than any other student manager in college basketball.

What else can you really say about a young man who has devoted seven years of his 24 to the coach he knows best — Jerry Tarkanian. Seven years is a long tenure as an assistant coach, but as a student manager it's unheard of.

"Hey, I like college basketball and being able to help coach Tarkanian is a great thrill for me," comments the hard-working and ever-jovial Gilberta. "I've had a couple of chances to work for pro teams, but I'm happy where I am."

Castillo spent four years with Tarkanian at Cal State, Long Beach and now has completed two years with him at UNLV.

He is a graduate of Pioneer High School in Whittier, California, where he was a two-year starter in baseball and football on his prep team.

For those of you who read this who aren't remembering Gil on the Tarkanian sideline the past six seasons, take a hold of this. Gil is the man solely responsible for seeing that Tarkanian's now-famous "towels-for-chewing" are in the proper place for the start of each Rebel game. Tarkanian has two towels, one dry and one moist, next to him on the sideline for every game he coaches.

Gil takes life in stride, enjoying himself at all times. He is a great man to have around in these pressure-packed hours. Ask Jerry Tarkanian, he'll tell you about his man, Gil Castillo.
In the sub-regional game played on the campus of Arizona State in Tempe, UNLV defeated San Diego State, 90-80. In the NCAA Regional tournament in Portland, Ore., the Rebels were narrowly trimmed by Arizona State, 84-81, but, bouncing back in the consolation game to defeat a favored University of Montana team, 75-67.

Before Long Beach, where Tarkanian's reputation first drew national acclaim, he spent seven seasons in the Junior College ranks at Riverside and Pasadena City Colleges. At Riverside (1962-66), he had a 131-9 overall record, which included three consecutive state championships and four league championships in five years. No other junior college coach in the history of California basketball has achieved those heights. At Pasadena (1966-68), Tarkanian was 67-4 and bagged a fourth state title while finishing in the runnerup spot another time.

An amazing feature of his wins is that they were accomplished at schools which had never previously won a basketball championship. Riverside was last in its conference two consecutive years before Tarkanian; Pasadena was last in its conference the previous year, Long Beach had never won a championship in basketball, and UNLV had never finished higher than fourth in the WCC.

The outstanding coach started his coaching career with five years in high school at San Joaquin Memorial, Antelope Valley and Redlands High Schools. Regarded as one of the great recruiters in the nation, "The Pied Piper" of college basketball landed for Long Beach such nationally recognized superstars as Sam Robinson, George Trapp, Chuck Terry, Earl Ratliff, Leonard Gray and Roscoe Pondexter. In his first year at UNLV, Tarkanian may have recruited as well as he did during his entire tenure at Long Beach State.

At his winning tradition continues to grow, so has his reputation. Two years ago Tarkanian brought three high school All-America performers to be with him. All juniors this season, they are Eddie Owens (Houston, Texas), Lewis Brown and Jackie Robinson (both Los Angeles). New recruits this year are JC All-Star Sam Smith (from Las Vegas), and freshmen Duiggie Thous (Inglewood, Calif.) and Mickey Berkowitz (Tel-Aviv, Israel). Berkowitz is the first international player to attend UNLV.

Jerry Tarkanian is a towel-chewing, nail-biting, hard-working Armenian who came to Las Vegas with a commitment to excellence as his inspiring philosophy. He will settle for nothing less than excellence from his players, both on and off the court. In addition to a nationally-recognized basketball program for UNLV, Tarkanian has developed a tutorial program for his players that paid high dividends. A trademark of Tarkanian players is that they almost without exception, earn their college degree, even though some of them do it during the off season as they are in professional basketball.

UNLV attempts to emphasize equally the importance of academics and basketball to all its student-athletes. Evidence of his strong belief in academics is his selection as "Professor of the Year" in 1970 by the students of Long Beach State. He was also honored as "Father of the Year" in 1966 by Riverside County for his "guidance and care on and off the court of all the young men under his tutelage, as well as his family of four."

Tarkanian's players have gone on to play in professional basketball. They include Chuck Terry (Houston Rockets), Eric McWilliams (Arizona State), George Trapp (Detroit Pistons), Bob Rule (Cleveland Cavaliers), Ed Ratleff (Houston Rockets), John O. Trapp (Los Angeles Lakers), Glenn MacDonald (Boston Celtics), Leonard Gray (Seattle Supersonics), and most recently Ricky Sobers (Phoenix Suns).

Darrell Evans who played for Tarkanian in junior college, is a starter for the Atlanta Braves in major baseball.

An intense individual, he has coached in Ecuador for the People-to-People Sports Committee, and in April and May of 1968, he coached the Junior College Olympic Team in the Olympic Trials.

The 45-year-old coach easily won the hearts of Las Vegas fans, and, the L.A. Times called him an "instant Las Vegas Celebrity."

Tarkanian and his devoted and totally-involved wife Lois, reside with their four children - Pamela, Jodie, Danny and George - in their new Las Vegas home.

With Tarkanian tradition and image, the speaking engagements for clinics and banquets come in nearly every day. He will average nearly one a week during the off-seasons.

Las Vegas is a town known for having the best, and, Jerry Tarkanian is surely at the top of that list.

UNLV senior captain Boyd Batts poses in front of the UNLV trophy case with UNLV head basketball coach Jerry Tarkanian. The two are holding the Rebels latest addition to the case — the 1975 Steel Bowl Classic championship trophy.
ODIS RETURNS HOME:

UNLV's student assistant coach for 1975-76 is certainly no stranger to Las Vegas. Odis Allison is a former Rebel basketball great and one of only three former UNLV players who have played in the NBA.

Allison, whose fluid moves helped the Rebels during the 1969-70 and 1970-71 seasons, has left his mark on the UNLV all-time scoring charts as he scored 857 points for a 17.9 career scoring average in the 48 games in which he played.

His 857 points are the 10th highest a UNLV player has ever scored.

Allison was a second-team All-West Coast Athletic Conference pick in his junior season and was a second-team All-WACAC pick in his senior season, although he missed the last part of the season with an injury.

Allison was drafted by the then-San Francisco Warriors (now Golden State) and played the 1971-72 season as a reserve forward.

He returns to UNLV to complete his bachelor's degree and will assist coach Jerry Tarkanian with this season's Rebels.

Allison will work primarily with the younger players, especially the junior varsity team, which will have a 22-game schedule in the 1975-76 season.

It's always nice to have a former Rebel return to his place of collegiate glory. It certainly makes it all seem more worth it.

Welcome home, Odis.

MEET DENNIS HODGES:

NEW UNLV ASST. COACH

Each of Jerry Tarkanian’s first two years at UNLV brought a new assistant coach, the third season’s choice is one of the best basketball minds in the Southwest — Dennis Hodges.

Hodges, 36, comes to UNLV this season by way of the University of New Mexico, where he was an assistant coach to Norm Ellenberger for five successful seasons.

Originally from Everett, Washington, Hodges graduated from Gardena High School in 1957, and earned both his bachelor’s and master’s degrees in physical education from Cal State University, Humboldt. His first degree came in 1965 and his secondary degree was granted in 1967.

While at Humboldt State, he spent his final undergraduate year and his two grad student years coaching the school’s freshman team.

Following his departure from Humboldt, he was head basketball coach for two years at Riverbank (California) High School in central California.

Having decided to pursue his doctorate in education, Hodges went to the University of New Mexico as a graduate student in 1969. After one year of classroom work, he accepted an offer from then UNM coach Bob King and joined the Lobo basketball coaching staff where he spent the next five years, three under Ellenberger as an assistant varsity coach and head scout.

Hodges coached the UNM freshman team for four seasons, compiling a healthy 44-22 record. During his years with the UNM varsity, the Lobos visited the NIT in New York City in 1973 and won the 1973-74 Western Athletic Conference championship.

In addition to scouting all the Rebel opponents this year, he has been assigned by coach Jerry Tarkanian to several West Coast recruiting areas and to work with student assistant Odis Allison and the Rebel Junior Varsity program.

It’s nice to have an addition like Hodges to the Rebel program.

*Preliminary game to UNLV Men's Varsity at Las Vegas Convention Ctr.

Our merchandising people do a lot more than the usual "buy-a-couple-a-cases-and-stick-them-on-the-shelf" thing. For example, we consistently buy brand-name products with proven track records and guarantees to back them up. And we've joined the country's largest catalog distributor group with a buying power of over one billion dollars. In 1975, we opened four new showrooms, bringing our total to 13. And we were rewarded with record-breaking attendances. Which might suggest that shopping at Arden is a dangerous way to help your pocketbook. Of course, we don't promise that our low, everyday prices will make you a millionaire overnight. It could take weeks.
