There is an old adage that says something to the effect: "The third time is the charm." Well, if there is any truth at all to that oft-quoted quote, then Jerry Tarkanian's third year as the UNLV basketball coach should be the finest yet.

And, if year number three is better than number two, it will be a great Rebel year in 1975-76. Last season was UNLV's finest ever, a 24-5 record, the West Coast Athletic Conference championship, and the Rebels advanced to the Division I playoffs for the first time and ended the season in the top 20 in both the NIT and AP polls.

To be the best is not the easiest challenge ever accepted by a man, but Tarkanian has made the commitment and he and his staff are dedicated to that goal.

Winning is a fact of life to Jerry Tarkanian - on the court and off. In 19 years of coaching in the collegiate, high school and junior college ranks, the third-year Rebel coach has known nothing but success.

In seven seasons as a major college coach (five at Cal State, Long Beach), Tarkanian has the highest winning percentage in collegiate basketball, winning 166 games while losing only 31. Two seasons with the Rebels have brought in a 44-11 record (0-6 in 1973-74 and 24-5 in 1974-75).

What is equally amazing is that Tarkanian NEVER lost a home game at Long Beach. His 49er teams won 65 straight games in the Campus Gym and Long Beach arena, culminating with a nationally-televised impressive 77-66 victory over Marquette that drew a PCAA and CSU LB record crowd.

At UNLV, Tark's troops have won 21 straight games going into the 1975-76 season and in two years in Las Vegas, the rebels, in the friendly confines of the Las Vegas Convention Center, are 29-2. The only two losses have been to Texas Tech, 82-76, and to the University of Houston, 75-72. Both were during the 1973-74 season.

Sell-out crowds have been traditional in the Tarkanian era. In the Rebels' two WCAC seasons with Tarkanian, UNLV did not lose a home game in 14 nights. (UNLV has now withdrawn from the WCAC to compete as a Division I independent so as to clear the way to schedule the best competition possible. The Rebels are also developing as a strong road team as well under Tarkanian's guidance. In two seasons, UNLV is 16-9 on the road, including the first-ever Division I playoffs at the end of last season. (Continued on Page 20).

Certainly one of the finest in the nation, the University Rebels Club is the driving force behind booster support for the UNLV athletic program. With continued active member participation, the URC is growing even stronger.

Last year the URC had its greatest fund raising drive ever, raising nearly $450,000. for the support of the grant-in-aid program for Rebel athletics. This total is also one of the top five in the nation, and, to think, UNLV has had only just over a decade of graduating classes, so the alumni roster isn't very long.

The honorary list of alumni at UNLV is one of the largest as the record drive would indicate all the thousands of Rebel boosters there are in the community. URC co-ordinator is Davey Pearl and the director of athletic fund-raising for the university is Dr. Wayne Pearson. No university in the country has two more dedicated men than Pearl and Pearson and they have literally become living legends among booster groups across the nation.

William "Wildcat" Morris is back as President of the University Rebels Club this year, but Morris has never been too far behind the scenes in Rebel athletics, and, was one of the main men who helped establish football at UNLV.

On July 10, 1975, Caesars Palace Hotel hosted the grandest URC "Thank You" Banquet of all, as nearly 2,500 Rebel boosters were honored by one of the all-time greats—Mr. Frank Sinatra.

The URC office on the UNLV campus is open daily and all Rebel boosters and friends are urged to drop by and say hello to Wayne and Davey. Information regarding the URC and what it takes to become a UNLV scholarship donor may be obtained by calling 739-3614 or dropping by their office.

In the sub-regional game played on the campus of Arizona State in Tempe, UNLV defeated San Diego State, 90-80. In the IJCAA Regional tournament in Portland, Ore., the Rebels were narrowly trimmed by Arizona State, 84-81, but, bounced back in the consolation game to defeat a favored University of Montana team, 75-67.

Before Long Beach, where Tarkanian's reputation first drew national acclaim, he spent seven seasons in the Junior College ranks at Riverside and Pasadena City Colleges. At Riverside (1962-66), he had a 131-9 overall record, which included three consecutive state championships and four league championships in five years. No other junior college coach in the history of California basketball has achieved those heights. At Pasadena (1966-68), Tarkanian was 67-4 and bagged a fourth state title while finishing in the runnerup spot another time.

An astonishing feature of his wins is that they were accomplished at schools which had never previously won a basketball championship. Riverside was last in its conference two consecutive years before Tarkanian; Pasadena was last in its conference the previous year, Long Beach had never won a championship in basketball, and UNLV had never finished higher than fourth in the WCAC.

The outstanding coach started his coaching career with five years in high school at San Joaquin Memorial, Antelope Valley, and Redlands High Schools.

Regarded as one of the great recruiters in the nation, "The Pied Piper" of college basketball landed for Long Beach such nationally recognized superstars as Sam Robinson, George Trapp, Chuck Terry, Leonard Gray and Roscoe Pondexter. In his first year at UNLV, Tarkanian may have recruited as well as he did during his entire tenure at Long Beach State.

As his winning tradition continues to grow, so has his reputation. Two years ago Tarkanian brought three high school All-America performers to be with him. All juniors this season, they are Eddie Owens (Houston, Texas), Lewis Brown and Jackie Robinson (both Los Angeles). New recruits this year are JC All-Star Sam Smith (from Las Vegas), and freshmen Reggie Theus (Inglewood, Calif.) and Mickey Berkowitz (Tel-Aviv, Israel). Berkowitz is the first international player to attend UNLV.

Jerry Tarkanian is a towel-chewing, nail biting, hard-working Armenian who came to Las Vegas with a COMMITMENT TO EXCELLENCE as his inspiring philosophy. He will settle for nothing less than excellence from his players, both on and off the court. In addition to a nationally-recognized basketball program for UNLV, Tarkanian has developed a tutorial program for his players that paid high dividends. A trademark of Tarkanian players is that they almost without exception, earn their college degree, even though some of them do it during the off season as they are in professional basketball. UNLV attempts to emphasize equally the importance of academics and basketball to all its student-athletes.

Evidence of his strong belief in academics is his selection as "Professor of the Year" in 1970 by the students of Long Beach State. He was also honored as "Father of the Year" in 1966 by Riverside County for his "guidance and care on and off the court of all the young men under his tutelage, as well as his family of four."

Tarkanian’s players have gone on to play in professional basketball. They include Chuck Terry (Houston Rockets), Eric il’lcWilliams (HOuston Rockets), George Trapp (Detroit Pistons), ob Rule (Cleveland Cavaliers, Ed Ratleff (Houston Rockets), John O. Trapp (Los Angeles Lakers), Glenn MacDonald (Boston Celtics), Leonard Gray (Seattle Supersonics), and most recently Ricky Sobers (Phoenix Suns).

Darrell Evans who played for Tarkanian in junior college, is a Sterling for the Atlanta Braves in major baseball.

An intense individual, he has coached in Ecuador for the People-to-People Sports Committee, and in April and May of 1968, he coached the Junior College Olympic Team in the Olympic Trials.

The 45-year-old coach easily won the hearts of Las Vegas fans, and, the L.A. Times called him an “instant Las Vegas Celebrity.” A true-champion-builder, when he arrived at Long Beach, the team was unknown nationally. When he left, it was an established power, second in the West only to UCLA.

A native of Euclid, Ohio, Tarkanian attended Pasadena City College before graduating from Fresno State in 1956. He received his Master’s degree from Redlands University in 1960.

Tarkanian and his devoted and totally-involved wife Lois, reside with their four children – Pamela, Jodie, Danny and George – in their new Las Vegas home.

With Tarkanian tradition and image, the speaking engagements for clinics and banquets come in nearly every day. He will average nearly one a week during the off-seasons.

Las Vegas is a town known for having the best, and, Jerry Tarkanian is surely at the top of that list.

VALLEY BANK

Convenient Branch Offices Located Throughout the Greater Las Vegas Area!
Remember —
"There's A New Spirit of Friendliness at Valley Bank"
BIG DON
"EVER-READY"

Don Weimer is a Runnin' Rebel senior. He is one of only two seniors on the current 23-1 UNLV team. He has been with the program for five years, sitting out the 1973-74 season while clearing up some personal problems.

Big Don doesn't start for the Rebels. As a matter of fact, he hasn't even played that much. But Don Weimer is always ready to help the Rebels.

In 18 games this season, Don has played a total of 121 minutes, an average of six and three-quarter minutes per game. His shooting average is 2.4 points per game, which more accurately, is 2.4 points per six and three-quarter minutes. Like we said, Don's performance has been a help to the success of this year's team.

A hard-working two-year letterman, Big Don came to Las Vegas in 1971 after graduating from his hometown Chula Vista (Calif.) High School. His freshman season at UNLV, he averaged 11.1 points per game and 13.1 rebounds per contest for the last freshman team the school has had.

In each of his first two varsity seasons, Don played in 20 games, scoring an average of 2.2 ppg and 3.2 rpg. He is averaging slightly more playing time this season than last, and his field goal percentage bespeaks his preparedness to play for the Rebels.

An intense player, he is aggressive defensively, which certainly fits into the mold that Jerry Tarkanian stresses for his Rebel team. He has had 27 whistles blown on him this season, and, even fouled out twice, but that has not deterred his aggressive play.

"I come to play, and I work hard on the court, that's all I can say," comments the Rebel senior. A Criminal Justice major, Big Don does have more to say off the court. "I will graduate after summer school, I would have graduated this spring but I changed my major, and, I like Las Vegas. I like it so much, I plan to make my home here if I can find adequate occupational opportunities."

The Rebel veteran has found a home in Las Vegas and his own personal stamina and attitude will carry him as far as he wants after he leaves UNLV.

For the present, however, he is "ever-ready" Don of the UNLV Runnin' Rebels.
UNLV SUMMER SOCCER CAMP

The UNLV Summer Soccer Camp is an opportunity for boys and girls to upgrade their soccer skills at UNLV's fine campus. Any boy or girl can learn to play the great game of soccer because, unlike many other sports, height and weight make very little difference. Each camper will be placed in an ability matched group to maximize his/her learning potential. Head coach Tom Khamis and his staff will stress the fundamentals of this great game. Every day, each camper will receive individualized instruction in the areas of passing, dribbling, shooting, goalkeeping, and heading the ball.

UNLV players are going to work with each boy and girl. Through interesting exercises, fun drills, and small-sided games each camper's soccer abilities will improve. From the practice field, the Paul McDermott Physical Education Complex, to the final game, they will see training films, discuss tactics and personal improvement, have a refreshing swim, and conclude the day's activities with an indoor soccer match. In addition to the youth camp, coach Khamis plans an adult session to run the same week in the evenings from 6:00 pm to 9:00 pm each camp day. This session will include "live" coaching, on the field demonstrations, plus talks on tactics and an overview of the game.

To: Office of Conferences and Institutes, Frazier Hall, Room 109, University of Nevada, Las Vegas, Nevada 89154. Registration is easy, just fill out the coupon below and a soccer summer camp flyer will be mailed, plus you'll have the advantage of early enrollment.

For more information, call the UNLV office of Conferences and Institutes: 739-3394

JEWELERS & DISTRIBUTORS

Our merchandising people do a lot more than the usual "buy-a couple-a cases-and stick them-on-the-shelf" thing.
For example, we consistently buy brand name products with proven track records and guarantees to back them up.
And we've joined the country's largest catalog distributor group with a buying power of over one billion dollars.
In 1975, we opened four new showcases, bringing our total to 13.
And we've received with record-breaking attendances.
Which might suggest that shopping at Ardan is a dandy way to help your pocketbook.
Of course, we don't promise that our low, everyday prices will make you a millionaire overnight.
It could take weeks.

Our merchandising people do a lot more than the usual "buy-a couple-a cases-and stick them-on-the-shelf" thing.
For example, we consistently buy brand name products with proven track records and guarantees to back them up. And we've joined the country's largest catalog distributor group with a buying power of over one billion dollars.
In 1975, we opened four new showcases, bringing our total to 13. And we were received with record-breaking attendances. Which might suggest that shopping at Ardan is a dandy way to help your pocketbook. Of course, we don't promise that our low, everyday prices will make you a millionaire overnight. It could take weeks.

UNLV's Division of Continuing Education and Department of Intercollegiate Athletics present
JERRY TARKANIAN BASKETBALL CAMPS 1976
WHO'S INVITED?
Boys and girls between age 8 and the junior year in high school. You will be grouped and instructed according to age.
THREE SESSIONS will be offered—Monday through Friday, 9:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.

- CLASS WILL MEET in the new Paul McDermott Physical Education Complex on the UNLV campus, where there are two new air-conditioned gyms and other modern facilities. WHAT'S IT ALL ABOUT? The fundamentals of basketball will be stressed: passing, dribbling, offensive and defensive footwork, defensive stance, ball handling, rebounding techniques, plus a strong emphasis on your shooting techniques. DAILY CLAS室 SESSIONS will highlight technique and strategy, with full court and instruction on rules and officiating. Also: full-court, organized, officiated games are scheduled each day. INSTRUCTION will be geared to you, individually; lots of personal attention is built into this program. YOUR INSTRUCTORS? UNLV basketball coach Jerry Tarkanian and his coaching staff. The entire camp is organized by "Tark," one of the great basketball mentors, who will be on the floor personally instructing each student. You'll get the best from the best. REGISTRATION is a breeze: just complete the attached form and return it with your check. The fee is $60 for a one-week session, and includes the Basketball Camp T-shirt, notebook, refreshments, and special awards. Enrollment is limited, so register right away! Plan to bring trunks, T-shirt and basketball shoes to camp.
