There is an old adage that says something to the effect: "The third time is the charm." Well, if there is any truth at all to that ancient quote, then Jerry Tarkanian's third year as the UNLV basketball coach should be the finest yet.

And, if, year number three is better than number two, it will be a great Rebel year in 1975-76. Last season was UNLV's finest ever, a 24-5 record, the West Coast Athletic Conference championship, and the Rebels advanced to the Division I playoffs for the first time and ended the season in the top 20 in both the PI and AP polls.

To be the best is not the easiest challenge ever accepted by a man, but Tarkanian has made the commitment and he and his staff are dedicated to that goal. Winning is a fact of life to Jerry Tarkanian - on the court and off. In 19 years of coaching in the collegiate, high school and junior college ranks, the third-year Rebel coach has known nothing but success.

In seven seasons as a major college coach (five at Cal State, Long Beach), Tarkanian has the highest winning percentage in collegiate basketball, winning 166 games while losing only 31. In two seasons with the Rebels have brought in a 44-11 record (24-5 in 1973-74 and 20-6 in 1974-75). What is equally amazing is that Takanian NEVER lost a home game at Long Beach. His 49er teams won 65 straight games in the Campus Gym and Long Beach arena, culminating with a nationally-televised impressive 77-66 victory over Marquette that drew a PCAA and CSU LB record crowd.

At UNLV, Tark's troops have won 21 straight games going into the 1975-76 season and in two years in Las Vegas, the Rebels, in the friendly confines of the Las Vegas Convention center, are 29-2. The only two losses have been to Texas Tech, 82-76, and to the University of Houston, 75-72. Both were during the 1973-74 season.

Sell-out crowds have been traditional in the Tarkanian era. In the Rebels two WCAC seasons with Tarkanian, UNLV did not lose a home game in 16 nights. UNLV has now withdrawn from the WCAC to compete as a Division I independent so as to schedule the best competition possible. The Rebels are also developing as a strong road team as well under Tarkanian's guidance. In two seasons, UNLV is 15-9 on the road, including the first-ever Division I playoffs at the end of last season. (Continued on Page 20)

The University Rebels Club

Certainly one of the finest in the nation, the University Rebels Club is the driving force behind booster support for the UNLV athletic program. With continued active membership participation, the URC is growing even stronger.

This past year the URC had its greatest fund raising drive ever, raising nearly $450,000 for the support of the grant-in-aid program for Rebel athletics. This total is also one of the top five in the nation, and, to think UNLV has had only just over a decade of graduating classes, so the alumni roster isn’t very long.

The honorary list of alumni at UNLV is one of the largest as the record drive would indicate all the thousands of Rebel boosters there are in the community. URC co-ordinator is Davey Pearl and the director of athletic fund-raising for the university is Dr. Wayne Pearson. No university in the country has two more dedicated men than Pearl and Pearson and they have literally become living legends among booster groups across the nation.

William “Wildcat” Morris is back as President of the University Rebels Club this year, but, Morris has never been to far behind the scenes in Rebel athletics, and, was one of the main men who helped establish football at UNLV.

On July 10, 1975, Caesars Palace Hotel hosted the grandest URC “Thank You” Banquet of all as nearly 2,500 Rebel boosters were honored by one of the all-time greats – Mr. Frank Sinatra.

The URC office on the UNLV campus is open daily and all Rebel boosters and friends are urged to drop by and say hello to Wayne and Davey. Information regarding the URC and what it takes to become a UNLV scholarship donor may be obtained by calling 739-3614 or dropping by their office.

In the sub-regional game played on the campus of Arizona State in Tempe, UNLV defeated San Diego State, 90-80. In the NCAA Regional tournament in Portland, Ore., the Rebels were narrowly trimmed by Arizona State, 84-81, but, bounced back in the consolation game to defeat a favored University of Montana team, 75-67.

Before Long Beach, where Tarkanian’s reputation first drew national acclaim, he spent seven seasons in the Junior College ranks at Riverside and Pasadena City Colleges. At Riverside (1962-66), he had a 131-9 overall record, which included three consecutive state championships and four league championships in five years. No other junior college coach in the history of California basketball has achieved those heights. At Pasadena (1966-68), Tarkanian was 67-4 and bagged a fourth state title while finishing in the runnerup spot another time.

An astonishing feature of his wins is that they were accomplished at schools which had never previously won a basketball championship. Riverside was last in its conference two consecutive years before Tarkanian; Pasadena was last in its conference the previous year, Long Beach had never won a championship in basketball, and UNLV had never finished higher than fourth in the WCAC.

The outstanding coach started his coaching career with five years in high school at San Joaquin Memorial, Antelope Valley and Redlands High Schools. Regarded as one of the great recruiters in the nation, “The Pied Piper” of college basketball landed for Long Beach such nationally recognized superstars as Sam Robinson, George Trapp, Chuck Terry, Ed Ratliff, Leonard Gray and Rowcoe Pondexter. In his first year at UNLV, Tarkanian may have recruited as well as he did during his entire tenure at Long Beach State.

As his winning tradition continues to grow, so has his reputation. Two years ago Tarkanian brought three high school All-America performers to be with him. All junior this season, they are Eddie Owens (Houston, Texas), Lewis Brown and Jackie Robinson (both Los Angeles). New recruits this year were JC All-Star Sam Smith (from Las Vegas), and freshmen Reggie Thous (Inglewood, Calif.) and Mickey Berkowitz (Tel-Aviv, Israel). Berkowitz is the first international player to attend UNLV.

Jerry Tarkanian is a towel-chewing, nail biting, hard-working Armenian who came to Las Vegas with a COMMITMENT TO EXCELLENCE as his inspiring philosophy. He will settle for nothing less than excellence from his players, both on and off the court. In addition to a nationally-recognized basketball program for UNLV, Tarkanian has developed a tutorial program for his players that paid high dividends. A trademark of Tarkanian players is that they almost without an exception, earn their college degree, even though some of them do it during the off season as they are in professional basketball.

UNLV attempts to emphasize equally the importance of academics AND basketball to all its student-athletes. Evidence of his strong belief in academics is his selection as “Professor of the Year” in 1970 by the students of Long Beach State. He was also honored as “Father of the Year” in 1966 by Riverside County for his “guidance and care on and off the court of all the young men under his tutelage, as well as his family of four.”

Tarkanian's players have gone on to play in professional basketball. They include Chuck Terry (Houston Rockets), Eric McWilliams (Houston Rockets), George Trapp (Detroit Pistons), Bob Rule (Cleveland Cavaliers), Ed Ratleff (Houston Rockets), John G. Trapp (Los Angeles Lakers), Glenn MacDonald (Boston Celtics), Leonard Gray (Seattle Supersonics), and most recently Ricky Sobers (Phoenix Suns).

Darrell Evans, who played for Tarkanian in junior college, is a starter for the Atlanta Braves in major baseball. An intense individual, he has coached in Ecuador for the People-to-People Sports Committee, and in April and May of 1968, he coached the Junior College Olympic Team in the Olympic Trials.

The 45-year-old coach easily won the hearts of Las Vegas fans, and the L.A. Times called him an "instant Las Vegas Celebrity." A true-champion builder, when he arrived at Long Beach, the team was unknown nationally. When he left, it was an established power, second in the West only to UCLA.

With Tarkanian tradition and image, the speaking engagements for clinics and banquets come in nearly every day. He will average nearly one a week during the off-seasons. Las Vegas is a town known for having the best, and Jerry Tarkanian is surely at the top of that list.

TONIGHT’S OFFICIALS

JUDGE LORINZER CLARK
Umpire DARRELL STROBEL
BIG LEW KEEPS PUTTIN’ THEM IN

Despite playing only 16½ minutes per game, Lewis Brown continues to be a dominant factor in every Rebel game this season. Through the first 18 Rebel games in 1975-76, Big Lew is the team’s third leading scorer (13.4 points per game) and second rebounder (8.9 boards per game).

It’s amazing some of the things Big Lew does on a basketball court. Talking to Jerry Tarkanian almost constantly, he can run, jump, intimidate, dribble, pass the ball, and shoot extremely well.

Coach Tarkanian has said that Lewis could just be the fastest man on the Rebel team.

Against the University of New Mexico last Saturday, Lew was in the game during the Rebel delay game and at one point he was at the top of the key, handling the ball like a guard. All of a sudden, he found a passer for a big assist. The Rebels won the game, 80-73.

Lewis has started only three games so far this season, but he still has some impressive stats. In the opening round of the 1975 Steel Bowl Classic, Big Lew scored 24 points and ripped down 17 rebounds to lead the Rebels over highly regarded Syracuse University, 105-83. The Rebels won the 25th annual Steel Bowl Classic, and Big Lew was selected to the all-tourney team along with teammate Eddie Owens.

Against the University of California, Irvine, the 6-10 center scored 27 points, including some crowd-pleasing long jumpers and fancy dribbling and got 16 rebounds in the game as well. In all, he has led the Rebels in rebounding in seven of the first 18 games.

Certainly not bad for a starter, let alone a reserve player. But, as Jerry Tarkanian puts it, "We don’t really have starters, we just have eight guys that play a lot more than the rest and all eight play quite a bit of the time."

Glen Gondrezick plays an average of 27 minutes per game to lead the team, and of the top eight players, talented freshman Reggie Theus is playing 16 minutes per game.

Big Lew is quite popular here in the Las Vegas Convention Center. He is outspoken, aggressive, and enjoys playing before the Las Vegas fans. Lew makes his presence felt every time he steps onto the basketball court.

When Lewis first appeared in the "Pit" last Saturday against UNM, he reacted to some physical play of a Lobo with clinched fists. This brought about the ire of the Lobo fans, but it didn’t bother Lew. He still scored eight points and led the Rebels in rebounding with nine, while playing just 16 minutes of the game.

Lewis Brown has done some exciting things on the court for the Rebels and his contributions to this year’s success have not been minimal.

Big Lew is a fine shooter, making .552 per cent of his shots, better than anyone else on the squad.

Big Lew will help carry the Rebels to another great season. Big Lew is a Runnin’ Rebel.

GET RICHER QUICKER WITH ARDAN

Our merchandising people do a lot more than the usual "buy-a-couple-a-cases-and-stick-them-on-the-shelf" thing.

For example, we consistently buy brand-name products with proven track records and guarantees to back them up. And we've joined the country's largest catalog distributor group with a buying power of over one billion dollars.

In 1975, we opened four new showrooms, bringing our total to 13. And we were received with record-breaking attendances.

Which might suggest that shopping at Ardan is a dandy way to help your pocketbook. Of course, we don't promise that our low, everyday prices will make you a millionaire overnight.

It could take weeks.

June 21-25 (For boys only)

CLASS WILL MEET in the new Paul McDermott Physical Education Complex on the UNLV campus, where there are two new air-conditioned gym and other modern facilities. WHAT’S IT ALL ABOUT? The fundamentals of basketball will be stressed: passing, dribbling, offensive and defensive footwork, defensive stance, ball handling, rebounding techniques, plus a strong emphasis on your shooting technique. DAILY CLASSROOM SESSIONS will highlight technique and strategy, with film sessions and instruction on rules and officiating. Also: full-court organized, officiated games are scheduled each day. INSTRUCTION will be geared to you, individually; lots of personal attention is built into this program. YOUR INSTRUCTORS? UNLV basketball coach Jerry Tarkanian and his coaching staff. The entire camp is organized by “Tark,” one of the great basketball masters, who will be on the floor personally instructing each student. You’ll get the best from the best. REGISTRATION is a breeze: just complete the attached form and return it with your check. The fee is $60 for a one-week session, and includes the Basketball Camp T-shirt, notebook, refreshments, and special awards. Enrollment is limited, so register right away! Plan to bring trunks, T-shirt and basketball shoes to camp.

For MORE INFORMATION, call the UNLV office of Conferences and Institutes: 739-3394
