JERRY TARKANIAN STORY

There is an old adage that says something to the effect: "The third time is the charm." Well, if there is any truth at all to that ancient quote, then Jerry Tarkanian's third year as the UNLV head basketball coach should be the finest yet.

And, if year number three is better than number two, it will be a great Rebel year in 1975-76. Last season was UNLV's finest ever, a 24-5 record, the West Coast Athletic Conference championship, and the Rebels advanced to the Division I playoffs for the first time and ended the season in the top 20 in both the UPI and AP polls.

To be the best is not the easiest challenge ever accepted by a man, but Tarkanian has made the commitment and he and his staff are dedicated to that goal.

Winning is a fact of life to Jerry Tarkanian - on the court and off. In 19 years of coaching in the collegiate, high school and junior college ranks, the third-year Rebel coach has known nothing but success.

In seven seasons as a major college coach (five at Cal State, Long Beach), Tarkanian has the highest winning percentage in collegiate basketball, winning 166 games while losing only 31. His two seasons with the Rebels have brought in a 44-11 record (20-6 in 1973-74 and 24-5 in 1974-75).

What is equally amazing is that Takanian NEVER lost a home game at Long Beach. His 49er teams won 65 straight home games in the Campus Gym and Long Beach arena, culminating with a nationally-televised impressive 77-66 victory over Marquette that drew a PCAA and CSU LB record crowd.

At UNLV, Tark's troops have won 21 straight games going into the 1975-76 season and in two years in Las Vegas, the Rebels, in the friendly confines of the Las Vegas Convention Center, are 29-2. The only two losses have been to Texas Tech, 82-76, and to the University of Houston, 75-72. Both were during the 1973-74 season.

Sell-out crowds have been traditional in the Tarkanian era. In the Rebels two WCAC seasons with Tarkanian, UNLV did not lose a home game in 14 nights. UNLV has now withdrawn from the WCAC to compete as an independent so as to clear the way to schedule the best competition possible. The Rebels are also developing as a strong road team as well under Tarkanian's guidance. In two seasons, UNLV is 15-9 on the road, including the first-ever Division I playoff at the end of last season. (Continued on Page 20)

Good luck U.N.L.V. during your 1975-76 Basketball Season from the State of Nevada

Certainly one of the finest in the nation, the University Rebels Club is the driving force behind booster support for the UNLV athletic program. With continued active member participation, the URC is growing even stronger.

This past year the URC had its greatest fund raising drive ever, raising nearly $450,000 for the support of the grant-in-aid program for Rebel athletics. This total is also one of the top five in the nation, and, to think UNLV has had only just over a decade of graduating classes, so the alumni roster isn’t very long.

The honorary list of alumni at UNLV is one of the largest as the record drive would indicate all the thousands of Rebel boosters there are in the community. URC co-ordinator is Davey Pearl and the director of athletic fund-raising for the university is Dr. Wayne Pearson. No university in the country has two more dedicated men than Pearl and Pearson and they have literally become living legends among booster groups across the nation.

William “Wildcat” Morris is back as President of the University Rebels Club this year, but, Morris has never been too far behind the scenes in Rebel athletics, and, was one of the main men who helped establish football at UNLV.

On July 10, 1975, Caesars Palace Hotel hosted the grandest URC “Thank You” Banquet of all as nearly 2,500 Rebel boosters were honored by one of the all-time greats—Mr. Frank Sinatra.

The URC office on the UNLV campus is open daily and all Rebel boosters and friends are urged to drop by and say hello to Wayne and Davey. Information regarding the URC and what it takes to become a UNLV scholarship donor may be obtained by calling 739-3614 or dropping by their office.

THE UNIVERSITY REBELS CLUB
RAP, RAP, RAP ... IT'S THE SCRapper
by Dominic Clark
UNLV Sports Information Director

Who is the guy? What's he trying to do, make us work harder? This guy never stops running around. It's not uncommon at all for players visiting the Las Vegas Convention Center the past three seasons to make these comments regarding one Rebel basketball player who has become fond in the thoughts of Rebel fans as "Gondo." Glen Gondrezick is actually a relatively quiet, generally soft-spoken, almost shy young man from Boulder Colo., but, of course, as we all know it's off the court.

On the court, it's a totally different story. Glen proudly wears no. 25 in the Rebel starting lineup, and, although he has not yet to make an all-tournament team, the 6'6 junior has left more than his impression on UNLV opponents.

Playing basketball for him is total commitment. From the moment he steps onto the court, thoughts of anything else but basketball leave his head. He's always jumping, running, diving, twisting, hurling, sprinting, grappling, blocking, and doing all those things normally confined to descriptions of other sports than basketball. But what the 6'6 junior has done for himself and UNLV has contributed greatly to the rapid growth of the Rebel basketball program.

After a freshman season in 1973 which saw him perform only limitedly, Gondo broke into the Rebel starting lineup last season and has not come out of it since. A sophomore for the WCAC champion Rebels, Glen averaged 11.8 points per game, and got down 5.9 rebounds per game.

An extremely strong and hard-working athlete, Glen in 1975-76 has developed into a mature, strong, and hard-working player of national caliber. After the first 12 Rebel games this season, Gondo was the squad's third leading scorer with a 14.4 scoring average. He is also averaging 9.6 rebounds per game, certainly not too shabby for a guard, but his most valuable contribution to the Rebels has been his defense.

Glen constantly hounds, harasses, and intimidates his foes to the tune of making 15 steals already this season and he leads the Rebels in taking charges, averaging almost 4.5 "sacrifices" per game.

Glen Gondrezick may not make an all-Americ team, or even an all-tournament team. But, Glen Gondrezick, will always be in the starting lineup, contributing all that he can, physically, emotionally, and mentally to the success of his team.

As Jerry Tarkanian said recently, "If a coach started five Glen Gondrezick's, he'd never have a losing season.

Glen Gondrezick is one hell of a basketball player.

In the sub-regional game played on the campus of Arizona State in Tempe, UNLV defeated San Diego State, 90-80. In the NCAA Regional tournament in Portland, Ore., the Rebels were narrowly trimmed by Arizona State, 84-81, but, bounced back in the consolation game to defeat a favored University of Montana team, 75-67.

Before Long Beach, where Tarkanian’s reputation first drew national acclaim, he spent seven seasons in the Junior College ranks at Riverside and Pasadena City Colleges. At Riverside (1962-66), he had a 131-9 overall record, which included three consecutive state championships and four league championships in five years. No other junior college coach in the history of California basketball has achieved those heights. At Pasadena (1966-68), Tarkanian was 67-4 and bagged a fourth state title while finishing in the runner-up spot another time. An astonishing feature of his wins is that they were accomplished at schools which had never previously won a basketball championship. Riverside was last in its conference two consecutive years before Tarkanian; Pasadena was last in its conference the previous year, Long Beach had never won a championship in basketball, and UNLV had never finished higher than fourth in the WCAC.

The outstanding coach started his coaching career with five years in high school at San Joaquin Memorial, Antelope Valley and Redlands High Schools. Regarded as one of the great recruiters in the nation, “The Pied Piper” of college basketball landed for Long Beach such nationally recognized superstars as Sam Robinson, George Trapp, Chuck Terry, Ed Ratliff, Leonard Gray and Roscoe Pondexter. In his first year at UNLV, Tarkanian may have recruited as well as he did during his entire tenure at Long Beach State.

Evidence of his strong belief in academics is his selection as “Professor of the Year” in 1970 by the students of Long Beach State. He was also honored as “Father of the Year” in 1966 by Riverside County for his “guidance and care on and off the court of all the young men under his tutelage as well as his family of four.”

Tarkanian's players have gone on to play in professional basketball. They include Chuck Terry (Houston Rockets), Eric McWilliams (Houston Rockets), George Trapp (Detroit Pistons), Bob Rule (Cleveland Cavaliers), Ed Ratleff (Houston Rockets), John Q. Trapp (Los Angeles Lakers), Glenn MacDonald (Boston Celtics), Leonard Gray (Seattle SuperSonics), and most recently Ricky Sobers (Phoenix Suns).

Darrell Evans, who played for Tarkanian in junior college, is a starter for the Atlanta Braves in major baseball. An intense individual, he has coached in Ecuador for the People to People Sports Committee, and in April and May of 1968, he coached the Junior College Olympic Team in the Olympic Trials.

The 45-year-old coach easily won the hearts of Las Vegas fans, and the L.A. Times called him an "instant Las Vegas Celebrity." A true-champion-builder, when he arrived at Long Beach, the team was unknown nationally. When he left, it was an established power, second in the West only to UCLA.

A native of Euclid, Ohio, Tarkanian attended Pasadena City College before graduating from Fresno State in 1956. He received his Master's degree from Redlands University in 1960.

Tarkanian and his devoted and totally-involved wife Lois, reside with their four children – Pamela, Jodie, Danny and George – in their new Las Vegas home.

With Tarkanian tradition and image, the speaking engagements for clinics and banquets come in nearly every day. He will average nearly one a week during the off-seasons.

Las Vegas is a town known for having the best, and Jerry Tarkanian is surely at the top of that list.

Get Richer, Quicker with Ardan

Our merchandising people do a lot more than the usual "buy-a-couple-cases-and-stick-them-on-the-shelf" thing. For example, we consistently buy brand-name products with proven track records and guarantees to back them up. And we've joined the country's largest catalog distributor group with a buying power of over one billion dollars. In 1975, we opened four new showrooms, bringing our total to 13. And we were received with record-breaking attendances. Which might suggest that shopping at Ardan is a dandy way to help your pocketbook. Of course, we don't propose that our low, everyday prices will make you a millionaire overnight. It could take weeks. 1325 East Flamingo Blvd Las Vegas, Nevada 89103 Ph: 702-732-1288 HOURS: M-F: 10am-9pm Sat: 10am-6pm Sun: Noon-6pm Also in Reno
