There is an old adage that says something to the effect: “The third time is the charm.” Well, if there is any truth at all to that client quote, then Jerry Tarkanian’s third year as the UNLV basketball coach should be the finest yet.

And, if, year number three is better than number two, it will be a great Rebel year in 1975-76. Last season was UNLV’s finest year, a 24-5 record, the West Coast Athletic Conference championship, and the Rebels advanced to the Division I playoffs for the first time and ended the season in the top 20 in both the I and AP polls.

To be the best is not the easiest challenge ever accepted by a Rebel coach, but Tarkanian has made the commitment and he and his staff are dedicated to that goal.

Winning is a fact of life to Jerry Tarkanian — on the court and off. In 19 years of coaching in the collegiate, high school and junior college ranks, the third-year Rebel coach has known nothing but success.

In seven seasons as a major college coach (five at Cal State, Long Beach), Tarkanian has the highest winning percentage in collegiate basketball, winning 166 games while losing only 31. In two seasons with the Rebels have brought in a 44-11 record (4-6 in 1973-74 and 24-5 in 1974-75).

What is equally amazing is that Tarkanian NEVER lost a home game at Long Beach. His 49er teams won 65 straight home games in the Campus Gym and Long Beach arena, culminating with a nationally-televised impressive 77-66 victory over Marquette that drew a PCAA and CSU LB record crowd.

At UNLV, Tark’s troops have won 21 straight games going into the 1975-76 season and in two years in Las Vegas, the Rebels, in the friendly confines of the Las Vegas Convention Center, are 29-2. The only two losses have been to Texas Tech, 82-76, and to the University of Houston, 75-72. Both were during the 1973-74 season.

Sell-out crowds have been traditional in the Tarkanian era. In the Rebels two WCAC seasons with Tarkanian, UNLV did not lose a home game in 14 nights. UNLV has now withdrawn from the WCAC to compete as a Division I independent so as to clear the way to schedule the best competition possible.

The Rebels are also developing as a strong road team as well under Tarkanian’s guidance. In two seasons, UNLV is 15-9 on the road, including the first-ever Division I playoffs at the end of last season. (Continued on Page 21.

The University Rebels Club

Certainly one of the finest in the nation, the University Rebels Club is the driving force behind booster support for the UNLV athletic program. With continued active member participation, the URC is growing even stronger.

This past year the URC had its greatest fund raising drive ever, raising nearly $450,000, for the support of the grant-in-aid program for Rebel athletics. This year is also one of the top five in the nation, and, to think UNLV has had only just over a decade of graduating classes, so the alumni roster isn’t very long.

This honorary list of alumni at UNLV is one of the largest as the record drive would indicate all the thousands of Rebel boosters there are in the community. URC co-ordinator is Davey Pearl and the director of athletic fundraising for the university is Dr. Wayne Pearson. No university in the country has two more dedicated men than Pearl and Pearson and they have literally become living legends among booster groups across the nation.

William “Wildcat” Morris is back as President of the University Rebels Club this year, but Morris has never been too far behind the scenes in Rebel athletics, and, was one of the main men who helped establish football at UNLV.

On July 10, 1976, Caesars Palace Hotel hosted the grandest URC “Thank You” Banquet of all, as nearly 2,000 Rebel boosters were honored by one of the all-time greats—Mr. Frank Sinatra.

The URC office on the UNLV campus is open daily and all Rebel boosters and friends are urged to drop by and say hello to Wayne and Davey. Information regarding the URC and what it takes to become a UNLV scholarship donor may be obtained by calling 739-3614 or dropping by their office.

In the sub-regional game played on the campus of Arizona State in Tempe, UNLV defeated San Diego State, 90-80. In the NCAA Regional tournament in Portland, Ore., the Rebels were narrowly trimmed by Arizona State, 84-81, but bounced back in the consolation game to defeat a favored University of Montana team, 75-67.

Before Long Beach, where Tarkanian's reputation first drew national acclaim, he spent seven seasons in the Junior College ranks at Riverside and Pasadena City Colleges. At Riverside (1962-66), he had a 131-9 overall record, which included three consecutive state championships and four league championships in five years. No other junior college coach in the history of California basketball has achieved those heights. At Pasadena (1966-68), Tarkanian was 67-4 and bagged a fourth state title while finishing in the runnerup spot another time.

An astonishing feature of his wins is that they were accomplished at schools which had never previously won a basketball championship. Riverside was last in its conference two consecutive years before Tarkanian; Pasadena was last in its conference the previous year, Long Beach had never won a championship in basketball, and UNLV had never finished higher than fourth in the WCAC.

The outstanding coach started his coaching career with five years in high school at San Joaquin Memorial, Antelope Valley and Redlands High Schools. Regarded as one of the great recruiters in the nation, "The Pied Piper" of college basketball landed for Long Beach such nationally recognized superstars as Sam Robinson, George Trapp, Chuck Terry, Leonard Gray and Roscoe Pondexter. In his first year at UNLV, Tarkanian may have recruited as well as he did during his entire tenure at Long Beach State.

As his winning tradition continues to grow, so has his reputation. Two years ago Tarkanian brought three high school All-American performers to be with him. All juniors this season, they are Eddie Owens (Houston, Texas), Lewis Brown and Jackie Robinson (both Los Angeles). New recruits this year are JC All-Star Sam Smith (from Las Vegas), and freshmen Reggie These (Inglewood, Calif.) and Mickey Berkowitz (Tel-Aviv, Israel). Berkowitz is the first international player to attend UNLV.

Jerry Tarkanian is a towel-chewing, nail-biting, hard-working Armenian who came to Las Vegas with a COMMITMENT TO EXCELLENCE as his inspiring philosophy. He will settle for nothing less than excellence from his players, both on and off the court. In addition to a nationally-recognized basketball program for UNLV, Tarkanian has developed a tutorial program for his players that paid high dividends. A trademark of Tarkanian players is that they almost without exception, earn their college degree, even though some of them do it during the off season as they are in professional basketball.

UNLV attempts to emphasize equally the importance of academics AND basketball to all its student-athletes. Evidence of his strong belief in academics is his selection as "Professor of the Year" in 1970 by the students of Long Beach State. He was also honored at "Father of the Year" in 1968 by Riverside County for his "guidance and care on and off the court of all the young men under his tutelage, as well as his family of four."

BEST WISHES REBELS!
SUDDEN SAM
RIGHT AT HOME

The number of local players who have gone on to become stars for the UNLV Rebels can be counted on one hand, and not only is Sudden Sam Smith one of the finest Las Vegas players ever, he is also one of the best Rebels on this talented 1975-76 Runnin' Rebel squad.

Sudden Sam is a 1973 graduate of Clark High where he was coached by Jack Richardson and Smith attended Seminole Junior College in Oklahoma for two seasons before transferring back to his hometown school.

A high school All-America and a JC All-America player as well, Sudden Sam is a truly tremendous scorer with as much range and accuracy as an anti-aircraft gun. He averaged 32 points per game for one-man show at Seminole and hit for an average from the field of .550 per cent. For UNLV, Sam is one of eight starters for the Rebels and is the team's second-leading scorer. Through the first 20 UNLV games in 1975-76, Sam scored 15.7 points per game, hitting a very healthy .523 from the field, mostly on his "cannon" shots.

Sudden Sam has his own cheering section at the Rebel games and the first sign appeared before the Pan American game. It read: "Section 19 and Sudden Sam will take care of Pan Am." Sam must have liked it, because he responded with 28 points to lead the Rebels to a surprisingly close 100-95 victory over the Texas visitors.

Against Pan Am, Sudden Sam hit 11 of 19 field goals and six of seven charity tosses for his season high. His career high was last year against an Oklahoma City Junior College when he riveted the nets for 59 points.

Sam makes things happen on the basketball court. Coming in after about four minutes into the game, Sam usually comes up with a couple of steals, three or four 30-footers and generally harasses the opponent to give the Rebels a commanding lead.

Last Wednesday night in Reno, the score was 93-91 with just six minutes left in the game. In a period of just 15 seconds, Sudden Sam made a three point play, had a steal and scored seven points to give the Rebels a 98-93 lead and the game.

Against Iowa State on regional television, Sudden Sam came into the game and hit three consecutive shots from no closer than 30 feet. Maybe, he wanted to show the Big Eight fans that he could play, too. Sam's brother, Willie, is an all Big Eight star for the University of Missouri.

Against the University of New Mexico, Sudden Sam made nine consecutive points in the second half as the rebels took the lead for good and went on to win the game before 18,596 in the "Pit". And it goes on, and on.

Sam leads the Rebels in steals, getting over two a game and to say that he makes things happen is an understatement. He has really done a job for the Rebels this season.

Welcome Home, Sam Smith.
