HOW DO YOU FEEL ABOUT COMMERCIALS?

BUT, HOOVER-GORIN IS A CREATIVE ADVERTISING AGENCY WITH OFFICES IN LAS VEGAS, LOS ANGELES, AND SOON, NEW YORK CITY.

DID YOU KNOW THAT OUR CLIENTS REPORTED FROM 45% TO 200% INCREASE IN CONSUMER RESPONSE? NOW, WHO DO YOU WANT TO HANDLE YOUR DON RICKLES TALK-ALIKE CONTEST?

ABOUT THE SAME AS I FEEL ABOUT Howard Cosell, G.L. Vitto, and Diaper Rash . . . You Turkey!

GEE, THAT'S EXCITING . . . BUT, PLEASE DON'T MOVE INTO MY NEIGHBORHOOD!
There is an old adage that says something to the effect: "The third time is the charm." Well, if there is any truth at all to that cient quote, then Jerry Tarkanian’s third year as the UNLV basketball coach should be the finest yet.

And, if, year number three is better than number two, it will a great Rebel year in 1975-76. Last season was UNLV’s finest season, a 24-5 record, the West Coast Athletic Conference championship, and the Rebels advanced to the Division I playoffs for the first time and ended the season in the top 20 in both the PI and AP polls. To be the best is not the easiest challenge ever accepted by a man, but Tarkanian has made the commitment and he and his staff are dedicated to that goal.

Winning is a fact of life to Jerry Tarkanian — on the court and off. In 19 years of coaching in the collegiate, high school and junior college ranks, the third-year Rebel coach has known nothing but success. In seven seasons as a major college coach (five at Cal State, Long Beach), Tarkanian has the highest winning percentage in collegiate basketball, winning 166 games while losing only 31. In two seasons with the Rebels have brought in a 44-11 record (20-6 in 1973-74 and 24-5 in 1974-75).

What is equally amazing is that Takanian NEVER lost a home game at Long Beach. His 49er teams won 65 straight, 0 home games in the Campus Gym and Long Beach arena, culminating with a nationally-televisioned impressive 77-66 victory over Marquette that drew a PCAA and CSU LB record crowd.

At UNLV, Tark’s troops have won 21 straight games going into the 1975-76 season and in two years in Las Vegas, the Rebels, in the friendly confines of the Las Vegas Convention Center, are 29-2. The only two losses have been to Texas Tech.

62-76, and to the University of Houston, 75-72. Both were during the 1973-74 season. Sell-out crowds have been traditional in the Tarkanian era. In the Rebels two WCAC seasons with Tarkanian, UNLV did not lose a home game in 14 nights. (UNLV has now withdrawn from the WCAC to compete as a Division I independent so as to clear the way to schedule the best competition possible. The Rebels are also developing as a strong road team as well under Tarkanian’s guidance. In two seasons, UNLV is 15-9 on the road, including the first-ever Division I playoffs at the end of last season. (Continued on Page 20)

Good luck U.N.L.V. during your 1975-76 Basketball Season from the State of Nevada

Certainly one of the finest in the nation, the University Rebels Club is the driving force behind booster support for the UNLV athletic program. With continued active member participation, the URC is growing even stronger.

This past year the URC had its greatest fund raising drive ever, raising nearly $450,000 for the support of the grant-in-aid program for Rebel athletics. This total is also one of the top five in the nation, and, to think UNLV has had only just over a decade of graduating classes, so the alumni roster isn’t very long.

The honorary list of alumni at UNLV is one of the largest as the record drive would indicate all the thousands of Rebel boosters there are in the community. URC co-ordinator is Davey Pearl and the director of athletic fund-raising for the university is Dr. Wayne Pearson. No university in the country has two more dedicated men than Pearl and Pearson and they have literally become living legends among booster groups across the nation. William "Wildcat" Morris is back as President of the University Rebels Club this year, but Morris has never been too far behind the scenes in Rebel athletics and, we one of the main men who helped establish football at UNLV.

On July 10, 1979, Caesars Palace Hotel hosted the grandest URC "Thank You" Banquet of all, as nearly 2,500 Rebel boosters were honored by one of the all-time greats- Mr. Frank Sinatra.

The URC office on the UNLV campus is open daily and all Rebel boosters and friends are urged to drop by and say hello to Wayne and Davey. Information regarding the URC and what it takes to become a UNLV scholarship donor may be obtained by calling 739-3614 or dropping by their office.
SUPER FANS

Two of the biggest Rebels Super Fans the past two years have been Leo and Lucia Tarkanian, pictured here at a recent Rebel home game. Leo, Jerry Tarkanian's uncle, said he seldom went to a Long Beach State game but he and his wife come here to UNLV games because they like our style of play. Commuting from Reedley, California, for Rebel home games, the Tarkanians even travelled to see the Rebels play in the NCAA Regionals in Portland last year and went with the team to Hawaii this season. Now, those are SUPER FANS...
In the sub-regional game played on the campus of Arizona State in Tempe, UNLV defeated San Diego State, 90-80. In the NCAA Regional tournament in Portland, Ore., the Rebels were narrowly trimmed by Arizona State, 84-81, but, bounced back in the consolation game to defeat a favored University of Montana team, 75-67.

Before Long Beach, where Tarkanian’s reputation first drew national acclaim, he spent seven seasons in the Junior College ranks at Riverside and Pasadena City Colleges. At Riverside (1962-66), he had a 131-9 overall record, which included three consecutive state championships and four league championships in five years. So other junior college coach in the history of California basketball has achieved those heights. At Pasadena (1966-68), Tarkanian was 67-4 and bagged a fourth state title while finishing in the runner-up spot another time.

An astonishing feature of his wins is that they were accomplished at schools which had never previously won a basketball championship. Riverside was last in its conference two consecutive years before Tarkanian; Pasadena was last in its conference the previous year, Long Beach had never won a championship in basketball, and UNLV had never finished higher than fourth in the WAC.

The outstanding coach started his coaching career with five years in high school at San Joaquin Memorial, Antelope Valley and Redlands High Schools. Regarded as one of the great recruiters in the nation, “The Pied Piper” of college basketball landed for Long Beach such nationally recognized superstars as Sam Robinson, George Trapp, Chuck Terry, Leonard Gray and Roscoe Pondexter. In his first year at UNLV, Tarkanian may have recruited as well as he did during his entire tenure at Long Beach State.

As his winning tradition continues to grow, so has his reputation. Two years ago Tarkanian brought three high school All-Americans performers to be with him. All juniors this season, they are Eddie Owens (Houston, Texas), Lewis Brown and Jackie Robinson (both Los Angeles). Berkowitz is the first international player to attend UNLV.

Jerry Tarkanian is a towel-chewing, nail biting, hard-working Armenian who came to Las Vegas with a COMMITMENT TO EXCELLENCE as his inspiring philosophy. He will settle for nothing less than excellence from his players, both on and off the court. In addition to a nationally-recognized basketball program for UNLV, Tarkanian has developed a tutorial program for his players that paid high dividends. A trademark of Tarkanian players is that they almost without an exception, earn their college degree, even though some of them do it during the off season as they are in professional basketball.

UNLV attempts to emphasize equally the importance of academics AND basketball to all its student-athletes. Evidence of his strong belief in academics is his selection as “Professor of the Year” in 1970 by the students of Long Beach State. He was also honored as “Father of the Year” in 1966 by Riverside County for his “guidance and care on and off the court of all the young men under his tutelage, as well as his family of four.”
Tarkanian's players have gone on to play in professional basketball. They include Chuck Terry (Houston Rockets), Eric McWilliams (Houston Rockets), George Trapp (Detroit Pistons), Bob Rule (Cleveland Cavaliers), Ed Ratleff (Houston Rockets), John O. Trapp (Los Angeles Lakers), Leonard Gray (Seattle SuperSonics), and most recently Ricky Sobers (Phoenix Suns). Darrell Evans who played for Tarkanian in junior college, is a starter for the Atlanta Braves in major baseball.

An intense individual, he has coached in Ecuador for the People-to-People Sports Committee, and in April and May of 1968, he coached the Junior College Olympic Team in the Olympic Trials.

The 45-year-old coach easily won the hearts of Las Vegas fans, and, the L.A. Times called him an "instant Las Vegas Celebrity." A true-champion-builder, when he arrived at Long Beach, the team was unknown nationally. When he left, it was an established power, second in the West only to UCLA.

A native of Euclid, Ohio, Tarkanian attended Pasadena City College before graduating from Fresno State in 1956. He received his Master's degree from Redlands University in 1960.

Tarkanian and his devoted and totally-involved wife Lois, reside with their four children - Pamela, Jodie, Danny and George - in their new Las Vegas home.

With Tarkanian tradition and image, the speaking engagements for clinics and banquets come in nearly every day. He will average nearly one a week during the off-seasons. Las Vegas is a town known for having the best, and, Jerry Tarkanian is surely at the top of that list.
I dare ya 't shoot.

BEST WISHES REBELS!
Way out West, they have a name for wind and rain and the UNLV Runnin' Rebels. Like the living legends before them, this great team deserves immortalization with a nick-name equal to their accomplishments. We all have heard of the Four Horsemen, the Seven Blocks of Granite and the Miracle Mets.

Well, move over, Crazy Legs, here comes THE HARDWAY EIGHT. What more appropriate term to describe the intense, aggressive, hard-working eight starters for the team from the gambling capitol of the world. For few who aren't familiar, the hardway eight is two fours on the dice.

The Runnin' Rebels have donned it all the hard way. They don't play basketball the easy way.

Glen Gondrezick epitomizes the style of play for this legend among legends. Gondo is constantly scrapping, scrummaging all over the court, jumping, diving for loose balls, and maybe most importantly, taking charges.

The Rebels don't shoot the easy way either. How many layups has Sam Smith taken this season? Yet, Sudden Sam is averaging nearly 17 points per game with cannon shots from the 30-foot range.

While the Runnin' Rebels live up to that name too, how often this great season have we seen Eddie Owens pull up and sink the 15-footer instead of driving in the way. Of course, Robert Smith and Reggie Theus got the ball to him in about five seconds.

One thing the Rebels don't need is a 30-second clock. Heck, a 10-second clock would never buzz the way the Rebels put it up.

There is no team in the country with eight starters. As Jerry Tarkanian has said, "We want our players going full out, and, when they do, they can't last more than six or seven minutes at a stretch." That's why the minute played by the Hardway Eight ranges from 27 minutes to 17 per game.

This record-setting team will finish the season with at least 15 new UNLV marks, yet very few will be individual records. Rather, nearly every team standard will be pushed higher this year by the Runnin' Rebels.

For the first time in the school's history, UNLV's name will appear in the NCAA all-time record book. With the 164-111 victory over the University of Hawaii, Hilo, the Runnin', Gunnin' Rebels set two NCAA marks and tied a third. The 164 points by a single team is a new record as is the 275 by two teams and the 85 points the Runnin' Rebels scored in the first half of that game ties the existing NCAA high-water mark.

The Hardway Eight also has a very solid chance of becoming the highest scoring team in the NCAA history. Currently averaging over 111 points per game, the current mark is 105.1 points per game set in 1972 by Oral Roberts University. The Rebel average for the season will be zero to 17 per game.

No team has worked harder or with greater intensity and aggressiveness than the Hardway Eight. Eight equally-gifted, totally dedicated young athletes who have rolled their way to their most successful and rewarding season in UNLV history.

This team has already won more games, scored more points, collected more rebounds, given off more assists, and come up with more steals than any other in the 18-year history of the program at Las Vegas.

And the Hardway Eight does this with the polish of a veteran entertainer, and the dedication of a missionary.

Eddie Owens is the Rebel All-America candidate, averaging nearly 23 points per game for the well-balanced team, but it may turn out that the "Hardway Eight" itself is the next UNLV All-America.

TWO REBEL SENIORS:
A Fond Farewell

Well, it seems every year 'bout this time we must take time to do the same thing. As the cycle of life goes on, so to another group of seniors play their final home games for UNLV.

Dear old "Alma Mater" and all that stuff aside, the cold reality is that no. 42 will never again be Boyd Batts and no. 44 will never again be filled so physically by Don Weimer.

We're not trying to cause tears, just asking that you take a moment out of this "rush-rush" world of ours, and remember two Rebel Seniors.

Bouncin' Boyd came to UNLV from the land of enchantment and although the NCAA declared that Don Weimer he was eligible immediately at the beginning of the 1974-75 season, the charming WCAC said he had to sit one semester. Little did the jealous conference leaders know, but Boyd became eligible just in time for the league play. And, we all know how he helped lead the Rebels to a 13-1 record and UNLV's only WCAC title with a 9.2 scoring average.

Well, this season, King Boyd is the Rebel captain and starting center and no one has worked harder to contribute to the success of the Rebels than this young man.

Since Boyd became eligible to play for the Rebels, UNLV has had a tremendous record of 42 wins and just three losses for a winning percentage of .933.

Big Don, the 6-10 reserve for the Rebels is a vicious competitor who is completing his fifth year at UNLV, third on the Rebel varsity. He will graduate this summer and plans 'on making Las Vegas his new home. Big Don is a hard-working Rebel who has never lost his confidence or eagerness to play the game of basketball.

Called "Grandpa" by many opponents because of his receding hairline, Big Don has been a popular player in Las Vegas since he arrived here from Chula Vista in 1971.

Tonight is their final hour upon the stage here in Las Vegas. Let's help them make it an evening to remember the rest of their lives.
