JUBULATION! A PCAA Championship!
For almost a quarter of a century Jerry Tarkanian's home has been the basketball court. And every year, as he presides as the head of this prestigious household, he preaches virtues such as hard work, discipline and loyalty.

It has been a happy home for as long as anyone can remember — or at least the past 22 consecutive seasons. For the 11th straight year, Tarkanian will head one of Las Vegas' most successful and closely knit families — the UNLV Runnin' Rebel Basketball team.

Tarkanian may be regarded as the fatherly figure to some, especially his son Danny, who is the Rebel's starting point guard, but all regard him as one of the basketball's finest collegiate coaches of all time.

Not only does Tarkanian's career record (352-86) distinguish him as the winningest active collegiate basketball coach, but he seems to emerge at the zenith of every basketball category. Take last season (1982-83) as an example:

The Rebels finished the year with an overall mark of 28-3, which ranked second only to the University of Houston. They completed NCAA conference play with a final overall record of 28-3, and swept the post-season tournament. They advanced to the NCAA Western Regional tournament, but were knocked out by North Carolina State — the 1983 National Champs — in the final minutes. Both wire services considered the Rebels worthy of a No. 1 ranking.

While at UNLV, Tarkanian has molded the Rebels into a veritable basketball dynasty. Within his ten seasons at UNLV, Tarkanian has compiled records of 28-3, 20-6, 24-5, 29-2, 29-3, 20-8, 21-8, 23-4, 16-12 and 20-10. Tarkanian has never suffered a losing season as a head coach and has compiled a winning record of 283-90. There is only one team in UNLV history that he did not defeat — Arizona State. Although the Rebels were edged by the Sun Devils, 84-81, they bounced back to capture the tournament title.

The only two teams who conquered Tarkanian on their home court during the 1973-74 campaign were the University of Houston, 75-72, and Texas, 82-76. The Rebels tallied a successful record at their old home, the Las Vegas Convention Center. At one point the Runnin' Rebels posted a 72 game homecourt streak — which is the longest homecourt streak in the NCAA history books. Their historical string of home wins was curtailed by the University of New Mexico in 1977-78, narrowly losing 102-98.

The 15 NCAA records Tarkanian's Rebels hold is just an off-shoot of their winning tradition. Among the national records are: Most wins in an NCAA tournament — 15; Most preseason polls — 15; Most points in one game, 164 (Hawaii-Hilo, 1975-76); a winning streak of 72 home games (1962-1983).

Tarkanian has not only transformed UNLV into a formidable basketball power, but he has performed similar magic acts at other schools. Riverside City College, Tarkanian's first post-season stint, was in the cellar of its conference for two straight seasons. Tarkanian turned the program around, and through the years 1962-69 compiled an overall record of 133-19 in which he placed in the conference championship.

Tarkanian then ventured to Pasadena CIty College who was, at that time, at the bottom of its conference. Through the years 1966-68 he amassed a 67-4 record and forged his fourth state title.

While at Long Beach, 1969-73, Tarkanian never lost a home bout in five straight seasons. At one point, there was a string of 65 wins. No other Junior College coach in the history of California basketball has even come close to his grandeur.

Another attribute that Tarkanian, who was named 1975 Coach of the Year, has mastered is the ability to recruit. He is known in almost all basketball circles as the "Pied Piper of Basketball Recruiting." —

Many of Tarkanian's players do not end their collegiate careers at college; for them college basketball is just a beginning. Among the players that have gone on to the professional ranks are Chuck Terry (Houston Rockets), Eric McWilliams (Houston Rockets), George Trapp (Detroit Pistons), Bob Rule (Cleveland Cavaliers), Ed Ratliff (Houston Rockets), John Q. Trapp (Los Angeles Lakers), Glenn MacDonald (Boston Celtics) and Leonard Gray (Seattle SuperSonics). UNLV alumni professional players also include Ricky Sobers (Chicago Bulls), Larry Moffett (Houston Rockets), Eddie Owens (Buffalo Braves), Jackie Robinson (Seattle SuperSonics), Sam Smith (Chicago Bulls), Glen Gorden (Denver Nuggets), Sidney Green (Chicago Bulls), and Reggie Theus (Chicago Bulls). Thus, Green, Sobers, Smith and Gorden combine to score all still active in the NBA.

In Tarkanian's ten years at UNLV, 19 players have been drafted by the NBA. Six players from the 1976-77 team alone were drafted by the NBA — which is an NCAA and basketball record.

Tarkanian has been honored with other coaching citations throughout his stellar career. He has coached in the People-to-People Sports Committee in April and May of 1968 and he coached the Junior College Olympic Team of that same year.

In the summer of 1983, Tarkanian added another feather to his cap as he accepted the position of Assistant Director of Athletics with designated duties as Director of Community Relations for the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics in the community of Las Vegas and the state of Nevada.

A native of Euclid, Ohio, Tarkanian attended Pasadena City College before graduating from Fresno State in 1955. He then went on to earn his masters degree — with honors — in Educational Management from Redlands University.

Tarkanian and his ever active and involved wife, Lois, reside with their four children — Pamela, Jodie, George and Danny, in the Chatsworth Heights section of Las Vegas.

The Runnin' Rebel Basketball team is indeed a happy family. Jerry Tarkanian intends to keep it that way.

GAME NOTES: The UNR/UNLV cross state rivalry began in 1961 when the Rebels were defeated by a score of 51-71... the Wolf Pack finished last year posting a 17-10 overall and a 10-4 conference record which earned them an invitation to the Big Sky Post-season Tournament. Gone from last year's squad are Billy Allen, who set the national career assist record, Sam Mosely and All Big Sky Ken 'Tree' Green... head coach Sonny Allen is approaching the 300 win plateau, needing ten more wins to achieve that memorable mark... UNR, like the Rebels, will be playing in a new home starting this year-the Lawlor Events Center, which seats 11,000, back for the Wolf Pack are returning starters Dannie Jones, redshirt Curtis High and John Welch... recruits include JC Player of the Year Roosevelt Brown and the Arizona Prep Player of the Year Uvonte Reed.
RUNNIN’ REBEL MANIA
“How to be an AWESOME Rebel Fan!”

SHOW 'EM YOUR COLORS

RED (of course) Red shirt, red pants, red sweaters, red shoes, red socks, red hats, and don’t stop there! A Rebel fan that’s true. Wears RED through and through. Red underwear, if you catch our drift. Imagine how impressive 18,500 awesome Rebel fans will look in a sea of red.

DON'T JUST WEAR IT, CARRY IT

Now, artificial noisemakers are a no-no as far as the rules go, so bring something else...a pom pom, a “Tark” towel (you can wave it OR chew on it...but if you’re going to chew on it, make sure it’s a clean one), a banner or sign (TV cameras LOVE signs).

HEY ALL YOU REBEL FANS, STAND UP AND CLAP YOUR HANDS

Now that you’re in the arena, that doesn’t mean you can just sit on your hands. Part of the game is the fans getting into it. The cheerleaders and pep band are there to lead you. Follow along, do a little yelling, a little clapping, a little feet stomping. Don’t just wait for the team to do good...you’ve got to help them along. And, if the cheerleaders aren’t in your area, whose to say you can’t get up and lead a few yourself (come on, show a little backbone!).

You say you don’t know the words to the fight song? Well, clap along...get on your feet...show a little spirit!

DO YOUR BIT

You can help keep the team motivated. The cheerleaders can’t do it all. We need you to participate along. Here are some cheers to help you along. (You say the underlined words).

GO REBELS GO -- GO FIGHT REBELS FIGHT -- FIGHT WIN REBELS WIN -- WIN GO--FIGHT--WIN!

SAY U -- U
SAY N -- N
SAY UNLV-- (clap, clap)

IF YOU WANT TO GO SAY GO -- GO
IF YOU WANT TO FIGHT SAY FIGHT -- FIGHT
IF YOU WANT TO WIN THEN YOU BETTER PITCH IN SAY SO, FIGHT, WIN!

Now that’s not too hard, is it? We might want to lead you in some organized things that will involve everybody in the arena. Now, don’t wait for the guy next to you to join in. YOU lead HIM. Maybe we’ll get one side of the arena to yell “U”...the next side to say “I”...and the next section to say “O”...and the next section to say “W”...may everybody can handle it? Maybe we’ll ask you to follow along, for example. “We say Runnin’ -- you say Rebels (us) Runnin’ -- (you) Rebels.” “We say Silver -- you say Red. (Just Silver -- (you) Red” “We say Tark -- you say Shark. (Just Tark -- (you) Shark.”

Now, that’s a fun one! The most important thing an AWESOME Rebel fan can do is be there through and through. Good time (and we expect a lot of those) and bad times (if we stick together, there won’t be any bad times). Just remember: the Rebels are YOUR RUNNIN’ REBELS!

APPEARING SOON IN LAS VEGAS
A Brand, Spanking New International Airport

For Dusty Mac, our pesky Nevada sourdough Miner, it's a dream come true. He's been tearing up the place for so long looking for his legendary "lost McCarran Mine," we had to practically build a new airport.

GOOD NEWS
And the good news is that Dusty Mac has "thrown in with us" to make McCarran International Airport bigger and better. He's advising people who use the airport where there might be some construction going on and how to best use the facility (actually, we think Dusty is still diggin' around, but we don't want to call him out on that).

TREMENDOUS GROWTH
The new airport, when completed, will be the talk of the aviation industry. It is being remodeled, at no cost to local taxpayers, to handle Las Vegas' tremendous growth needs through the year 2000 and beyond. So bear with us and give yourself a little extra time to catch your airplane. It's worth waiting for.

McCarran 2000
We'll make it bigger...and better!

DYNASTY IN THE DESERT
25 Years of UNLV Basketball

THE BOOK
This is the FIRST book ever to be published in the history of UNLV basketball and it will come out in conjunction with the opening of the spanking new Rebel home court— the 18,250-seat Thomas and Mack Center.

Remembering the first 25 years of UNLV basketball (1958-83), the book itself will trace the "Roots of the Dynasty in the Desert," which began in 1958 when Michael "Chub" Drakulich became the first head coach for what was then the Southern Branch of the University of Nevada. Following exhaustive research and in-depth interviews with the principals, it will cover each season in the colorful Rebel history, highlighting those not be achieved without looking at those individuals who made the program possible. Former head coaches, assistant coaches, players, fans, and news media personnel have all been interviewed regarding their recollections of Rebel basketball. This special collector's edition will feature nearly 200 four-color and black & white photographs.

THE PUBLISHER
TUCA Productions, Inc. a Las Vegas-based publishing and sports marketing company, is publishing this book in conjunction with the opening of the UNLV Thomas and Mack Center. TOCA has produced or assisted in the production of a variety of sports-related publications, including all of the UNLV athletic programs for the last seven years. Coors Off Road Series (national), LPGA Golf, PBA Showboat tournaments and the Riviera Tennis Classic.

THE TEAM
Combining creative talents to produce this book will be author Dominic Clark (former UNLV Sports Information Director), award-winning artist Michael Miller and nearly 10 photographers whose work will appear in the book. Most of the photographs have never been published.

What They Are Saying...

"Excellent idea. Should bring back a lot of good memories. People who haven't been around all 25 years will find a lot of interesting reading and those who have been around will find nostalgia and many memories being brought back to life. I can't wait."—Chub Drakulich, UNLV Head Basketball Coach 1979-83

"These are the types of things that will make UNLV one of the basketball powers of the nation. As a coach, I can't live in the past, but sure is nice to have a book to help remember it. I worked with Dominic for eight years and I know it will be well done."—Jerry Tarkanian, UNLV Head Basketball Coach 1971-79

"When I think of UNLV Basketball, I can't help but think of my roommate El Sid and that Dominic Clark is the guy who gave it to me. My years at UNLV were very special to me and to be able to see them remembered in this way will be just right. Where can I get a copy?"—Sidney Cozzi, UNLV All-American 1979-83

FALL SPORTS ROUND-UP

MEN CAPTURE THIRD IN PCAA

When the final Rebel harrier crossed the finish line at this years PCAA Championship Meet, senior Al McDaniels, was gleaming with pride, thinking to himself: "I told you so," for it was only three months prior to that day when the Rebels, who turned in a third place PCAA finish, were not even considered worthy of a ranking.

"We built surprise in a few people," McDaniels said with significant smirk. "It was a great season because last year we finished in sixth place, and they didn't even bother to rank us this season."

McDaniels is a master engineer. He planned his strategy prior to the season to peak at the right time -- and it worked.

The highlight of the season occurred at the PCAA Championships when two Rebels earned All-Conference honors. The top Rebel finisher at the Championships was senior Mark Thompson who took second with a 30.27, his best ever. Also earning All-Conference honors was senior German Aranda. Aranda placed in the fourth slot with a time of 30.37, which bettered his finish last year by more than 15 seconds.

McDaniels was exceedingly pleased with several of his hard working harriers. Junior Ron Castonguay bettered his lifetime best by almost two minutes and "really came on at the end of the season."

Gary Villas, who came to UNLV with very little 10K experience, emerged as one of the team's most consistent runners. Villas improved so much that "he never saw the 3:1 minute barrier, he just jumped right over it into the 3:1 minute range," McDaniels said.

Mark Valenti was another Rebel that achieved the expectations that were set. "The pressure was really on Valenti because he was our fifth man," McDaniels said. "He was able to withstand the pressure and through hard work he really came through for us."

The Rebels' two freshman proved that they indeed have the potential to be outstanding someday. Blim Brian Bradburn and Ricky Newton turned in their best times ever on some of the most-demanding 10K courses.

Although the team loses its two top runners next year, McDaniels is already looking to replace them with some top caliber talent.

If we can replace them with two runners that are as good, if not better, than Melvin and German than we will become one of the best teams in the PCAA and one of the better teams in the District 8 region," McDaniels said.

LADY REBEL MAKING STRIDES

Mike Strong Head Coach of the Lady Rebel Cross Country team reflected on this years season in an ironic, but logical manner.

"In order to have a good cross country team at UNLV, we're going to have to have a cross country team," he said.

The last statement can not be fully understood unless all the circumstances and facts about the Lady Rebels Cross Country program are revealed. UNLV does not have a cross country team per se, only cross country runners. The majority of the Lady Rebels were transformed middle distance runners due to the lack of depth on the track. Temporarily weighing middle distance runners into lengthy middle distance runners can be compared to having offensive linemen turn cartwheels on a balance beam. Well, it may not be as difficult, as having 250 lb. weightlifter and Olympic weightlifter "getting their center of gravity," but it is, none the less, a difficult transition to make.

Because of the few bonde distance runners on the Lady Rebel roster, the team did not fare as well as Strong has hoped. The Lady Rebels placed third in the first ever PCAA Cross Country Championships held in Santa Barbara. They also finished in a third place finish in their own UNLV Invitational earlier this season.

There were some highlights of the season despite the lack of depth. Most of the optimism radiated from freshman sensation Helen Reidaga. Reidaga, a recruit out of Thunder Bay, Ontario Canada, had several top finishes this season and ran 3,000 meters as fast as 17.28. Helen needs other people...
The difference whole ball game."

Recruiting is the country can coach. But you have to have the horses to be a good programs. Without a person committed to three out of four to University of Arizona State. And swept Southern Utah State. And swept Louisville. And the University of Arizona in Tucson. The 69-game schedule will include 43 home games and 26 road games. The Rebels will also begin their first season in the Southern California Baseball Association (SCBA). The Rebels will play 28 league games with Cal-State-Fullerton, UC-Irvine, Loyola-Marymount University, UC-Santa Barbara, University of San Diego, Pepperdine University, Cal-State Long Beach.

On October 28, another bright spot was Mel's younger brother Todd. Todd, who was strong in the end, led the Rebel staff with 30 strikeouts in 29 innings. Leading the Rebels at the plate was sophomore infielder Moser, who posted a .537 average. Moser, who wore 22 for 41 including an 8 for 10 outing with two home runs in a doubleheader vs the University of Utah. Also junior center Tim Arnold batted .449 with 18 runs batted in and five extra base hits (3 2B, 1 3B, 1 HR).

Overall, the Rebels batted .349 in the fall and the pitching staff had a 4.02 ERA and four shutouts over Taft, Arizona State, Southern Utah State and Utah.

The Rebels open the 1984 season on Friday, February 3 against the University of Arizona in Tucson. The 69-game schedule will include 43 home games and 26 road games. The Rebels will also begin their first season in the Southern California Baseball Association (SCBA). The Rebels will play 28 league games with Cal-State-Fullerton, UC-Irvine, Loyola-Marymount University, UC-Santa Barbara, University of San Diego, Pepperdine University, Cal-State Long Beach.

Fred Dallimore, entering his eleventh season as the skipper, sports a 348-255-1 record.
A conference on the move ... that's the conference on the move, the conference on the move that's eludes: California State University, the conference membership in-

Besides New Mexico State University, the conference membership includes: California State University, Fullerton; California State University, Long Beach; Fresno State University; San Jose State University; University of California, Irvine; University of California, Santa Barbara; University of Nevada, Las Vegas; University of the Pacific; and Utah State University.

Lewis A. Cryer, who begins his sixth year as commissioner of the PCAA, has overseen the conference's phenomenal growth during his tenure.

With his guidance, the PCAA has also grown in national stature to become one of the top NCAA Division 1 conferences in the country.

He heads a conference office staff that includes: Assistant to the Commissioner, Dennis Farrell; Supervisor of Football Officials, Jack O. The Thomas and Mack Center
For Special Events

The $30 million Thomas and Mack Center is the newest addition to the Entertainment Capital of the World, located in the heart of Las Vegas on the campus of the University of Nevada, Las Vegas.

Constructed with state-of-the-art engineering capabilities, the Center is an athletic and special events facility. It is the largest structure of its kind in the state of Nevada, and is the fourth largest on-campus arena in the United States.

The Center was specifically designed to handle a wide variety of athletic events—including basketball, wrestling, tennis, volleyball, gymnastics, soccer, hockey, ice skating and rodeo—but it is also perfect for such events as concerts, conventions, circuses and commencement exercises.

The most impressive feature of the facility is its 18,000 seat arena. Spectators have optimal sight lines from arm-chair seats in 51 rows on two tiers.

Surrounding the arena is spacious, accessible concourse with 44,500 square feet of floor space, easily capable of providing capacity crowd movement, displays or trade shows. The Center's main floor has four expandable meeting rooms, another large meeting room, ticket offices, a restaurant with bar, press room, locker rooms and snack bars.

Overall, the Thomas and Mack Center is 251,450 square feet and is 2,027½ feet above sea level.

The University of Nevada, Las Vegas

The University of Nevada, Las Vegas, one of the last growing institutions of higher education in the southwest, is a component of the University of Nevada System, which is governed by the seven-member Nevada Board of Regents.

THE HISTORY: The past academic year marked UNLV's 25th anniversary. The extensive academic programs provided on UNLV's large, beautiful campus prove the explosive growth of higher education since its birth in southern Nevada. After several years of providing extension courses in southern Nevada started by faculty from the University of Nevada in Reno, the state legislature officially established the Southern Regional Division of the University in 1957. That same year the first building on campus—Maude Frazier Hall—was opened. By the mid-1960's, the university had become a four-year degree-granting institution known as Nevada Southern University. Full autonomy, with status equal to UNR, came in 1968. The following year the regents gave the campus its new name: University of Nevada, Las Vegas (UNLV).

THE CAMPUS: The 335-acre campus is located two miles from the Las Vegas Strip, in the heart of a busy commercial and residential area. On-campus facilities serve over 11,000 graduate and undergraduate students as well as provide a center for cultural and extended educational experiences for the community. Points of interest on the campus include the following: Museum of Natural History—With specialized exhibits to illustrate the story of man in this region, the museum is open from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday-Saturday. Visiting groups are encouraged to call for arranged tours. There is no admission charge. 739-3381.

Arts and Aviary—This lush garden and bird sanctuary is located in the hub of Juanita Greer White Hall. The building is open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays. 739-3399.

Art Gallery—Exhibits by students, faculty and nationally renowned artists change every 2-3 weeks in the gallery, which is located in the northwest corner of the Alta Ham Fine Arts Building (HFA-121). Hours are noon to 4 p.m. Monday-Saturday. McDermott Physical Education Center—This large, well equipped facility is open to the public. Hours vary, phone number: 739-3150/3157.

Center for the Performing Arts—at the northern end of the campus mall are two auditoriums: Artemus W. Ham Concert Hall, which is the scene of regularly scheduled concerts (739-3801); and Judy Bayley Theatre, where plays are staged throughout the year (739-3966). On the plaza area between them is The Flashlight, a 38-foot-tall, 74,000-pound steel sculpture by internationally known artist Claes Oldenburg.

THE EXPANSION: During the past three years, UNLV has embarked on an ambitious, $60 million construction program which has resulted in four new buildings on-campus—three of them the direct result of local philanthropy.

Ground was broken in 1981 for the Thomas and Mack Center, an 18,000-seat sports pavilion. Construction is expected to be completed by November 1983, when the Runnin' Rebels take to their new home basketball court. The university expects to book a wide variety of events into this spacious facility, named for long-time university donors E. Perry Thomas and Jerome Mack.

Construction also was completed in 1983 on an $11.7 million building to house both the College of Business and Economics and the College of Hotel Administration. Frank and Estelle Beam Hall (named for the parents of donor Thomas T. Beam). In addition to many specialized facilities, to meet the needs of both colleges, the structure features a semi-covered outdoor patio.

A generous gift from local attorney Artemus W. Ham, Jr., provided the seed money for the recently opened Alta Ham Fine Arts Building. Named for Ham's late mother, the $5 million facility houses all of the university's performing arts, music, art and dance programs. It also contains an innovative Black Box Theatre for smaller-scale theatre productions as well as the campus' Fine Arts Gallery.

Finally, a $7 million, four-story addition to the James H. Dickinson Library opened in Fall 1981, providing special facilities and more room for the expanded library holdings required by a growing student population.

THE FACULTY: A distinguished faculty of more than 400 men and women are actively involved in teaching, research and community service. Faculty members, 77% with doctorates, have come to UNLV from many of the great learning centers of the country — M.I.T., Yale, Harvard, Berkeley, Stanford.

THE PROGRAMS: Bachelor's degrees are awarded in 46 major subjects, and there are 26 programs which lead to master's degrees. Specialist degrees and doctorates are offered in the field of education. All programs have been fully accredited by the Northwest Association of Schools and Colleges.

THE CALENDAR: UNLV operates on the semester system, with a Mini Term offered between the fall and spring semesters. During the summer there are two five-week summer sessions. The arrangement of course offerings provides students with a wide range of scheduling possibilities.

THE COMMUNITY: The Las Vegas community is served directly by an ambitious, continuing education program at UNLV. Approximately 16,000 local residents take part annually in more than 500 credit and noncredit courses. These "Classes for People" are designed with a wide range of potential students in mind.

First settled in 1855 as a missionary outpost of the Mormon Church, Las Vegas today has blossomed into a metropolis of more than 450,000 permanent residents. We have new parks, museums, churches, hospitals and libraries.

Our cultural scene is enriched by art galleries, legitimate theatres, a professional ballet company and numerous serious musical organizations. When you live here, you soon realize that the glitter and glamour of the “Strip” is usually left to the tourists; in all the other important ways, Las Vegas is no different than any large city on the move. The advantage is that if you want to take part in Las Vegas’ unique entertainment scene, it’s there.

For UNLV, this is the picturesque southwestern United States. Within a 30-mile radius lie the shores of Lake Mead, massive Hoover Dam and the Colorado River recreation area, the snow skiing trails of 12,000-foot Mount Charleston, and a panorama of red-rock mountains, eroded sandstone landscapes and forgotten ghost towns. The city is only 4 to 5 hours drive by car from Los Angeles, Phoenix or southern Utah’s great national parks.

"Today, more than ever, you save when you do-it-yourself. And, with Home, you can do it!"  Don Drysdale
When the UNLV Lady Rebel basketball squad was left out of post-season play last year, following a sparkling record, there have been some disappointments on the part of some fans who were not aware of the Lady Rebels' fine seasons in the past three years. It is also true that much of that team is back who makes the future of the program seem promising.

"We have a strong nucleus of sophomores playing this year who saw a lot of action as freshmen," said Strike. "We are a young team and we should have four new players in the lineup because we do have experience."

That's a combination that the coaching duo, who are married to each other, are counting on to propel the Lady Rebels to an even better season this time out. Back at the guards positions are two players who turned in stellar performances last year. Senior Rochelle Oliver, a 5'7 senior from Bakersfield, CA, was the second leading scorer for the Lady Rebels with a 17.3 average. Oliver was the only player to start in all 28 games last year. The other guard will be Misty Thomas, a 5'11 sophomore from Whittier, Ontario, Canada, who averaged 12.1 ppg and led the team in assists with 3.4.

Thomas was one of four freshmen who saw prominent roles last year, something that will have to happen again.

"The freshmen will have to play for us," said Bolla. "They will have the opportunity to play in situations, which will keep some of the pressure off of them. It will be a learning experience for them."

"We have four freshmen this year," added Strike. "All four have the caliber to play and we're hoping to have at least two contribute this season."

Returning forwards are senior Lori Arent and sophomore Donny Monro. Arent, a 6'1 transfer from the University of Pittsburgh, missed the first part of last season but then joined the team to play in 18 games and average just under five points/game. A strong inside player, Arent averaged 4.5 rebounds a game.

Monro another of last year's super frosh class, started 27 games, scored 10.4 ppg, averaged 8.2 rebounds/game and was tied for second on the team with eight blocked shots.

Both Arent and Monro saw action at center along with another freshman, Tara Gameo. The 6'5 sophomore played in 24 games last year, led the team in blocked shots (10), averaged 6.2 ppg.

The Lady Rebels, however, will miss their co-captains from last year. Team leading scorer Penny White, 5'10 ppg and four-year starter, decided this year would be the best time to leave the game, so Strike and Arent will have to fill the void.

"They (Welch and Lykes) were the team leaders," said Strike. "They were the tireless workers who kept everyone up in practice. Their involvements in those aspects won't be determined until we are into the season."

The Lady Rebels will be facing a more difficult schedule this year. Many of the early games are at home and much of the traveling is toward the end of the season. The coaches wanted this to allow the young players a chance to 'get their feel' within the tough opponents on the road.

Some of the games that will test the Lady Rebels this year include the season opener against Cal-State Fullerton on Dec. 8, Arizona State in the Budweiser Round Robin Tournament in Jan.; LSU and Louisiana Tech in back-to-back road games Jan. 26 and 28; BYU in Feb., and the Alaska Tournament featuring Texas and Florida State.

After the game...

...most folks head for where the action is: SAM'S TOWN!!

FUN is the key word, from the live sounds of Romy's Saloon to the foot-stompin' line dance music in the Western Dance Hall.

Great eatin' is available 24 hours in the Stagecoach Restaurant — or for just dinner, in Diamond Lil's or Willy and Joe's Mexican Cantina. And, Sam's Town has the best ice cream anywhere!

Shop the Western Emporium, bowl, play bingo, keno or poker, bet your favorites in the Race & Sports Book.

After the game, it's definitely Sam's Town!
