Athletic Fund Raising

There is not a stronger more influential group supporting a college athletic program than UNLV's own University Rebels Club. Growing right along with the program over the past 19 years, the URC continues to be the driving force behind booster support for the 16-sport UNLV intercollegiate athletic program. The membership roles continue to grow daily as the group becomes one of the most prominent in the entire intercollegiate athletic world in America.

This past summer, the URC culminated its greatest fund-raising drive ever bringing in over $1 million for the support of the grant-in-aid program for Rebel athletics. This total once again is one of the very top in the entire nation, especially for schools without large endowment funds and lengthy lists of graduates over man-decades.

The honorary list of UNLV alumni is one of the largest as the record drive indicates all the thousands of Rebel supporters there are in Las Vegas. The P & P boys who continue to ramrod the organization and the administrative duties of the URC are Davey Pearl and Dr. Wayne Pearson.

Davey, the energetic little fireball who could just about be able to talk President Carter into giving the Rebels the White House to use for some function, is the coordinator for booster support activities at UNLV while the reputable Dr. Pearson is the director of fund-raising for UNLV athletics.

The new president, but certainly no stranger to the organization, is Tom Wiesner, the prominent Las Vegas businessman and long-time Rebel booster. The 15-man board of directors meets monthly and their are a minimum of two annual meetings of all the UNLV athletic donors. And, then, there are the visiting honorary alumni like Dr. Frank Sinatra who has performed for the Rebel "Thank You" concerts for the last three years. On August 23, of this year, Dr. Sinatra led an evening at the sold out 7,500-seat Aladdin Theatre For the Performing Arts with fellow stars Dean Martin, Jerry Lewis, Paul Anka, Jackie Gayle, The Third Generation Steps and Dave Burton. Each of the past three years, Dr. Sinatra has given us even more memories for a lifetime.

The URC office is open daily at the UNLV Paul McDermott Physical Education Center or by calling 739-3614.

JERRY TARKANIAN: Head Coach

UNLV Runnin' Rebel basketball has come a long, long way. It wouldn't have advanced to the NCAA finals and the NCAA playoffs in the top 20 the past three seasons if it hadn't been for Jerry Tarkanian, the winningest active major college basketball coach in America. After nine seasons of coaching Division I basketball, Tarkanian has won 224 games and lost only 36 for a brillian 622 winning percentage.

In four seasons as UNLV's head coach, Tarkanian has led the Rebels to records of 20-6, 24-5, 29-2 and 32-1. The goal of the players who were with Tarkanian each of the four years he has been at UNLV was to get away 100 games, a goal they established for themselves as freshmen. When Eddie Owens, Glen Gondrack, Lewis Brown, Robert Smith, and Sam Smith left UNLV after the 1976-77 season, their four year total was 102-16 -- an amazing record for an astounding group of players.

After four seasons, Tarkanian's record of 102-16 is a winning percentage of 844. At UNLV after the 1976-77 season, their four year total was 102-16 -- an amazing record for an astounding group of players.

In the Western Regional Championship during the 1976-77 season and finished with the third-place trophy in the NCAA Finals in Atlanta, Georgia last March. To get there, the Runnin' Rebels established 23 NCAA single-game, single-season, and tournament records. In the playoffs, UNLV defeated the University of Washington, the University of Utah, 88-83, Idaho State University 107-90 in the Western Regionals. Then UNLV lost a heartbreaker, 84-83 to the University of North Carolina, Charlotte, 106-94 in the NCAA Finals.

In 1975-76, UNLV won its first 22 games, ended at 29-2 with a lofty third place rating in the Associated Press poll.

Winning is a fact of life to Jerry Tarkanian, on the court and off. In 20 years as a college basketball coach, he has played the collegiate, high school and junior college ranks, the fourth-year Rebel Coach has known nothing but success.

In nine seasons as a major college coach, his teams have appeared in seven NCAA post-season tournaments in addition to his being the winningest major college basketball coach.

What is equally amazing is that Tarkanian NEVER lost a home game while coaching at Long Beach State. His 49ers won 59 straight games going into the 1977-78 season and, in three seasons, the Rebels have a spectacular 67-2 record in the friendly, boltierless, surroundings of the Las Vegas Convention Center.

On Runnin'- Rebel game nights, the otherwise noisy conversion hall is turned into a mass of ear-splitting explosions which quickly works the student body into a frenzy and a prominently-placed sign welcomes visitors with "Welcome to Tarkanian's Thrill Tank."

The only two teams that dared to defeat the Runnin'- Rebel's were both in the 1973-74 season when the freshman-squad Texas Tech fell to the campus of Arizona State, 75-72. The freshmen avenged the Houston loss in 1976, beating the Cougars in the opening round of the Holiday Classic 119-67.

Sellout crowds have been traditional at UNLV in the Tarkanian era. In the Rebels' last 13 home games, UNLV did not lose a home game in 14 nights (UNLV has now won in 48 straight conference contests). In one game, UNLV played the college and high school basketball teams they defeated.

In four seasons under Tarkanian, UNLV has scored 100 on the road.

In NCAA playoff action after the 1974-75 season, the Rebels were promoted to possible NCAA tournament, with Tarkanian's career now being measured in its conference for two consecutive seasons before Tarkanian, Pasadena City College was last in its conference the previous season. Lost in that experience was the fact that UNLV had never finished higher than fourth in the WCAC.

The outstanding coach started his coaching career with five seasons at Cal State Long Beach such as he did during his entire tenure at Long Beach State.

Tarkanian has won 224 games in six seasons, more than fourth in the WCAC. When the Rebels run up a big score, everybody wins at Arby's. Because we'll give you a free regular soft drink when the Rebels get 95 to 109 points at a home game. When they score from 91 to 119, we'll give you a 25-cent补 or potato cakes. And when the Rebels rack up 120 or more, you get a free regular Arby's Roast Beef Sandwich. Just bring in this offer for free Arby's Roast Beef Sandwich. When redeemable, one per customer per game. This offer does not apply to away games.

With Tarkanian's tradition and image, he gets offers almost daily. In 1976 alone, he accepted average salary for one per week during the off-season, sending him all over the country.

In the midst of the most unique cities in the world, one which sees losers every day. Maybe that's why they appreciate a man like Jerry Tarkanian even more. He's a winner.

Tarkanian's Record: UNLV after the 1976-77 season, their four year total was 102-16 -- an amazing record for an astounding group of players.

The sensational freshman is that they were accomplished at schools which had never previously won a basketball championship. Riverside was last in its conference for two consecutive years before Tarkanian; Pasadena City was last in its conference the previous season. Lost in that experience was the fact that UNLV had never finished higher than fourth in the WCAC.

REBEL PROFILE: Ralph Readout - Assistant Coach

Ralph Readout returns for his fourth season as an assistant coach under Jerry Tarkanian.

This exuberant coach has 14 years of head coaching experience at the prep level in Ohio, where he established winning programs at four schools.

He has an extensive background in many fields, having earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Education from Ohio University in 1961, and his Master of Arts degree in Education Administration from Ohio State University in 1967. Readout attended Ohio University on a scholastic scholarship and graduated with honors from Ohio State's graduate school.

Tark's assistant is an intense and enthusiastic coach with keen insight into the learning process and psychological applications of coaching. His approach to basketball coaching is firmly based on psychological motivation and his contributions to the success of last year's 29-9 record-breaking Rebel team were indeed significant.

He was quite an athlete at Ohio University: he played not only basketball, but baseball as well, he was a three-year letterman starter and was elected captain of his basketball team.

He has a great relationship with the Rebel players and has the innate ability to communicate on all levels with those whom he is associated.

He first came to UNLV in 1973 and served as an assistant football coach under Ron Meyer (who is now at SMU), working with the defensive secondary.

Ralph and his wife, Dottie, are thoroughly enamored with the Las Vegas community.

BEST WISHES REBELS!
MIKE MILKE
6-3, 174, Senior, Chula Vista, California

A three-year Runnin' Rebel letterman, Mike Milke is expected to make strong contributions this season. He has always been a hardworking, determined and quietly consistent player and this should be his year with UNLV.

In three seasons with UNLV, he hasn't scored too much or even played too much but his presence has been felt on the practice court, where coach Tarkanian has said many times that games are won or lost. He practices like he were a starter and not only has this helped him perfect his game, it also has given the regulars something tough to go against on a day-to-day basis.

He could have gone to other schools of lesser quality and been a starter, but he has courageously chosen to stay at UNLV and be a vital, if not spectacular part of a growing and winning program.

Last season Mike played 96 minutes in 20 games, scoring 32 points and giving out 27 assists.

As a freshman, Milke proved he could make the big play: he came off the bench late in the final minutes of the crucial road game against St. Mary's to sink three challenging free throws to ice and 81-75 Rebel victory.

He is a solid ball handler and has had 61 assists in his three seasons on the Rebel varsity.

Milke is a soft-spoken, likeable young man from Hilltop High School in his hometown of Chula Vista, California, where he earned numerous honors and played in the San Diego prep All-Star game as well.

As a three-year starter in high school, he ended his prep career by averaging 21.3 points per game in addition to handing off eight assists per game and pulling down six rebounds in each contest.

Milke is from a very athletic family. His father retired in 1972 after coaching for 20 years (during which he even coached against Tarkanian a few times). His brother George was a starting pitcher for the University of Southern California Trojans and was named MVP of the 1974 College World Series in Omaha, Nebraska.

UNLV is a campus that's on the move. In fact, it is one of the fastest-growing schools in the nation. There are more than 9,000 students attending classes on the campus today. To accommodate all of these new students, the university has undertaken a massive construction program that has brought more than $25 million worth of new buildings to the campus in just the past five years.

These include one of the most modern teacher education facilities in the country, a major classroom and office building, a 600-seat drama theatre, a physical education center complete with a 50-meter indoor swimming pool, excellent laboratories and classrooms for the life sciences, and a beautiful new 2,000-seat concert hall which serves as a cultural home for the entire community.

The campus of UNLV has tripled in size in less than a decade, allowing room for the university's vastly expanding degree offerings. There are currently 65 different degree programs available to students, including almost two dozen at the graduate level.

Because it has become such an exciting place to live and to teach, the university has been able to attract to Las Vegas some of the brightest young professors in the country. There are more than 400 faculty on the staff now. They come from distinguished centers of learning — Berkeley, Harvard, Chicago, Princeton — and through their research and publications, they are establishing a fine academic reputation for UNLV in circles of higher education.

The university is striving for excellence in a diversity of graduate and undergraduate programs. The College of Hotel Administration, for example, ranks among the finest programs of its type in the United States and its graduates hold top management positions in hotels, restaurants and hospitals the world over.

Science students and faculty are carrying out important research projects in such areas as desert ecology, environmental biology and geology, taking full advantage of their unique Southwestern desert setting.

The university's theatre department has consistently earned national awards for acting, directing, set design and costuming. And music students may earn credits while playing behind the superstars of show business on the Las Vegas Strip. Recently, UNLV's student Jazz Ensemble was named the second best college jazz group in the world in competition in Switzerland.

The university also has a progressive teacher education program, a growing nursing department, solid preparation of students in the social sciences, the humanities, business and economics.

UNLV also reaches out into the community through its aggressive continuing education programs that last year enrolled 15,000 local residents.

The outlook is bright for UNLV as it completes its 20th year of service to Nevada through its programs of teaching, research and public service.
UNLV plays all of its home games on one of the finest hardwood court arenas in the country—the 6,357 seat Las Vegas Convention Center rotunda. Capacity crowds cheer the Rebels to comfort from theater-type cushioned seats. Ample parking is available at the conveniently located facility, one mile east of the famed Las Vegas Strip.

UNLV certainly enjoys playing in its home facility; as a matter of record, going into the 1977-78 season, the Runnin' Rebels have won 59 straight games in the Center. Jerry Tarkanian's four-season total in the Convention Center is 67-2 against regular NCAA competition. This year, UNLV will play 19 games in the boisterous facility.

In 1976-77, UNLV played 19 home games again, scoring 2,109 points for an average of 111.0 per game. Once again, the Runnin' Rebels had 16 games of 100 or more points and in a pre-season exhibition game against the National Team of the Republic of China, UNLV pumped in 174 points.

The Convention Center has also been SOLD OUT for the past four seasons, with only very limited seating available for a few games.

Producing the elaborate light shows during pre-game ceremonies again this season will be a long-time Rebel supporter, Art Rader.

A fantasy of colors and costumes will fill the stage of the Ham Concert Hall when the Nevada Dance Theatre presents its annual Christmas concert Dec. 17 and 18 at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas.

The seasonal program by the state's only resident ballet company will feature Tchaikovsky's ever-popular "Nutcracker Suite," Prokofiev's "Peter and the Wolf," Rachmaninoff's "Spring Waters," and a new piece entitled "Slavonic Dances" choreographed by NDT founder-director Vassili Sulich to music by Anton Dvorak.

"These are dances the whole family can enjoy," commented Elizabeth Carns, company manager. "We're urging parents to bring their children, especially those who have not been exposed to the ballet arts before."

She said tickets, priced at $4, $6, $8 and $10, may be reserved beginning Dec. 5 through the Ham Concert Hall box office at 739-3801. Ticket office hours are 12:30 to 5 p.m. Monday through Saturday.

Traditionally performed around the holiday season, "The Nutcracker Suite" tells the story of Clara, the little girl who dreams of a magic fantasyland complete with sugar plum fairies, dancing flowers, a handsome cavalier and people from such far-away countries as Arabia, Russia, Spain and China.

"Nutcracker" will be highlighted by the "Grand Pas De Deux" choreographed by George Balanchine and danced by resident NDT member Kolleen Haddow and guest artist James Lane of Los Angeles.

"Peter and the Wolf" will feature Richard Schlein as Peter, Michelle Hamilton as the Cat, Michel Zaplatilek as the Wolf and Vicki Chapman as the Bird.

"This one will be fun and fanciful," said Carns, "with some delightful costumes created by Ellis Pryce-Jones of the university's theatre department."

"Spring Waters," a highly theatrical pas de deux, will be danced by Jerrold Turney and April Daly, both resident members of the company.

The world-premiere of Sulich's "Slavonic Dances," inspired by the choreographer's Yugoslavic childhood and upbringing, will be tinged with the ethnic dances of several Eastern European countries.

Under the university's auspices, the Nevada Dance Theatre has earned a national reputation since its founding by Sulich in 1972. It has been reviewed favorably by Dance Magazine, After Dark and Newsweek, and recently was named the best supporting act in Las Vegas for its performances with Liberace at the Hilton.

Carns said season tickets at a reduced price to the company's December and February concerts are also now available at the box office.
That game drew 5,221—the 4th largest in some early season growing pains. With six truly sensational players switching schools. Schools are accepted into the Western Athletic Conference. The teams considerable action throughout this season. Malovic (6-11) played at scoring average.

This is the third of a fifteen game home stand which extends from late December until mid-January. This part of the Runnin' Rebels worked out. The team has won without playing its best, nor anywhere near up to its full potential.

Kramer, a senior, was named All-Conference last year and led the team in rebounding with a 9.2 average. He also chipped in with an 11.3

UNLV ENTERS WAC, DIVISION 1

UNLV has been officially admitted to the Western Athletic Conference, becoming eligible for league titles in all conference sports with the 1980-81 academic year.

The Rebels will begin a WAC schedule in both football and basketball, however, during the 1978-79 year. In 1978, the Rebel football team will play all WAC schools except Hawaii and the University of Utah.

Long a prestigious conference in the Rocky Mountain area, the WAC expanded West this year after the University of Pacific-8 and UNLV to become the Pacific-10.

The WAC then selected San Diego State, Hawaii and UNLV to fill the two spots. San Diego State becomes eligible for league titles in 1978-79, Hawaii 1979-80 and then UNLV the following year.

Two conditions which UNLV must meet by 1980 are adequate facilities (large enough seating) for both football and basketball. The football stadium will be expanded to 30,000 seats for the 1978 season and the plans have been approved to construct an 18,000-seat basketball arena on the UNLV campus.

This is a big step forward for the entire Rebel athletic program, especially football, and athletic director Bill Ireland, school president Don Donald Baepler and the University Rebels Club are to be thanked.

FACILITIES

Center which also houses most athletic offices. The arena was built at a cost of $9.5 million and serves a myriad of purposes for the university community.

The Miners also began play at an on-campus baseball facility last spring.

Colorado State and Utah both have solid facilities already in existence but have not shied away from improvement. Both added (and sold out) booster club/scholarship donor booths in their football stadium while Utah recently refurbished all of Rice Stadium. Both universities have great all-purpose arenas.

Football stadium expansion is in the wings for both Brigham Young and New Mexico. The Cougars are looking at plans to add somewhere in the neighborhood of 15,000 seats to BYU Stadium. New Mexico is ernestly working on plans to enlarge it's 31,000 seat University Stadium.

In basketball BYU and UNM have few peers. The Marriott Center at Provo seats just under 23,000, second largest (to Kentucky) on-campus facility in the country. The Lobos recently enlarged University Arena, more affectionately called "The Pit," to seat 17,121. Both teams are among the national leaders annually in basketball attendance.

The facilities aren't the only thing changing in the WAC. The membership will vary the next few years with Arizona and Arizona State departing and San Diego State (July 1, 1978), Hawaii (July 1, 1979) and Nevada-Las Vegas (July 1, 1980) scheduled to enter the ranks.

WAC SPORTS

While you are sitting here in comfortable surroundings, watching your favorite Western Athletic Conference team in action, the athletic departments at all conference universities are striving to make their spectator facilities second to none.

The WAC must be headed in the right direction. Comfortable surroundings along with hard-fought competition in football and basketball last year led to record attendance figures in both sports. Some 1,316,684 fans watched 45 home football games in 1976 while 1,139,494 of you saw the 118 home basketball contests, both were better than 10 percent increases over the previous year.

What's underway currently or what has been completed and what does the future hold in the area of WAC athletic facilities? Here's a look:
