Why I did my Service?
- Make children aware and appreciate their religion.
- Give the children the necessary information to be able to make a decision about the religion in their future.
- Help the kids understand why certain things are done in the church.
- I wanted to work with kids that are where I once was.

What I learned from completing my Service?
- Adults in our religion know less about it.
- Children are in need of people to look up to.
- I found that I love teaching kids more about a religion I grew up in.

How I completed my Service?
- There were about 5-10 kids every Sunday in our classroom to teach.
- I assisted in teaching the children about the Greek Orthodox Religion and other aspects of life.
- Taught the children about the different building blocks of the faith.
