The screenshot shows a web browser window displaying the UNLV Special Collections website. The browser's address bar shows the URL <http://www.library.unlv.edu/speccol/>. The website has a dark red header with the text "University Libraries" and "University of Nevada, Las Vegas". Navigation links include "Your Account", "Quick Search", "Catalog", "Hours", "Contact Us", and "Site Search". A "Quick Links" dropdown menu is visible. The main content area features a "Welcome to UNLV Special Collections" banner. Below this, a paragraph describes the collections: "UNLV Special Collections houses unique, rare, and specialized research material that documents the history, culture and physical environment of the city of Las Vegas, the Southern Nevada region, the gaming industry, and the University of Nevada Las Vegas. The collections include books, pamphlets, posters, serials and periodicals, scrapbooks, archives and manuscripts, maps, architectural drawings, photographs, video and audio tapes." Two images are displayed: a landscape painting on the left and a commemorative graphic on the right that reads "40 Forty Years of Special Collections". Below the images, a caption reads: "Images from our current exhibit, 'Vision and Vision-makers of the American West'". A search section titled "Search Special Collections" includes a search box, a "Search" button, and checkboxes for "Oral History Interviews", "Manuscripts", and "Photo Collections". A link for "Search Tips [more+]" is also present. The left sidebar contains a "Department of Special Collections" link, a "Lied Library University of Nevada, Las Vegas" link, and a list of categories: "Welcome", "What's New", "General Information", "Staff Directory", "Collections", "Center for Gaming Research", "Oral History Research Center", "Digital Collections & Exhibits", "Preservation", "Donating to Special Collections", "Nevada History Library Guide", and "Links". The footer of the browser window shows a 100% zoom level.

Special Collections at UNLV

Welcome to the University History at a Glance page. This page provides a timeline of significant events that occurred at the university from its early days to the present. Click on a hyperlink for more information on the people and places that have made UNLV what it is today.

1950s | 1960s | 1970s | 1980s | 1990s | 2000s

1951 = Extension courses are first offered in Las Vegas from the University of Nevada, Reno. James Dickinson and two part-time instructors begin teaching education classes at a local high school. The library has 1,800 donated books stored in a closet. Twenty-eight students sign up for classes, and the population of Las Vegas is around 48,000.

1954 = University of Nevada regents meet for the first time in Las Vegas and tell a crowd of 300 that it is more important to build in Reno than in southern Nevada. They change their minds a few months later under southern pressure and a donation by Estelle Wilbourn of land for a campus. Enrollment grows to 310.

1955 = The Nevada Legislature approves $200,000 for a building for the Southern Regional Division of the University of Nevada. The Nevada Southern Fund is established and a door-to-door campaign led by Dr. R. Guild Gray raises $35,000 to buy additional land.

1956-1958 = Maude Frazier, retired school teacher, principal and Clark County legislator who helped get legislative support for the southern campus, turns the first shovel of dirt to start construction on the first campus building, Maude Frazier Hall. Maude Frazier Hall is constructed on Maryland Parkway. In 1957, William D. Carlson, dean of men and student affairs in Reno, becomes director of the southern campus. The southern campus is named Southern Regional Division of the University of Nevada in 1957. Archie C. Grant Hall opens. Enrollment is up to 805. The UNLV Basketball program begins under Coach Michael Drakulich.

1960-1961 = The Gymnasium (now Marjorie Barrick Museum of Natural History), the Geoscience Building (Lilly Fong), and the Technology Building are completed. The first floor of the James R. Dickinson Library is finished. There are two more floors added in 1963. The population of Las Vegas is 127,000.

1964-1966 = The Social Sciences Building (now John S. Wright Hall) is completed. The campus confers its first degrees in 1964. Donald C. Moyer is appointed chancellor in 1964. In 1965, the regents re-name the school Nevada Southern University. Moyer begins plans for an intercollegiate football team. Jerry Crawford (Professor of Theatre, Emeritus) is appointed the first dean of faculty. UNLV Alumni Association is created. Tonopah Residence Hall and the Dining Commons are completed. The Division of Continuing Education is created to meet the demand for classes off campus.

1967-1968 = Students hang Governor Paul Laxalt in effigy when he announces a budget that does not accommodate Southern Nevada's growth. He backs off and funding is eventually attained to meet the growth of the school. UNLV faculty no longer attends Senate meetings in Reno. Students vote to charge themselves $27 per

FAQs

Welcome to the University Archives Frequently Asked Questions page. This page addresses several reference questions regarding the University of Nevada, Las Vegas. Click on a hyperlink below to access a photo, image or more information regarding a particular topic.

Q. What was the original mascot for the University?

A. The original mascot for the University of Nevada, Las Vegas (UNLV) was "Beauregard." This mascot was created in 1957. It was a wolf dressed in what looked like a Confederate Civil War uniform.

Q. Why was "Beauregard" dressed in a Civil War uniform?

A. "Beauregard" was dressed in a Civil War uniform because of the north south rivalry between the University of Nevada, Reno (UNR) and UNLV. The idea was that UNLV was from the southern part of Nevada that was rebelling against its northern rival UNR. UNLV's mascot was an easy going wolf that was in sharp contrast to the ferocious wolf pack mascot of UNR. However, over time, some students objected to the Confederate uniform that "Beauregard" wore. Eventually, the mascot would be redesigned.

Q. What was the new mascot?

A. The new mascot became a "Minuteman." However, the title "Rebel" remained as a result of a favorable vote by a large percentage of the UNLV student body. Unfortunately, the minuteman mascot never really took off because residents of Nevada and UNLV students couldn't relate to a Revolutionary War figure.

Q. What was the next mascot?

A. The next mascot became "Hov Reb" on December 9, 1982. This new mascot was a mountain man and was designed by Mike Miller. The mountain man mascot had a big hat, mustache, and a coat. The coat had the UNLV and Rebels logo on it. The new mascot came from the idea of UNLV being an institution that was an explorer and a pathfinder.

Q. Who was the first UNLV president?

A. The first campus officer to have the title president was Donald Moyer in 1964. However, William D. Carlson was the first Director or Executive Officer for the Southern Regional Division of the University of Nevada in 1957. 1957 was the year that the first university building was constructed on Maryland Parkway. The campus would eventually be renamed the University of Nevada, Las Vegas in 1969.

About the Archives

Welcome to the University Archives! The University Archives in Special Collections is the repository for the permanent records of the University of Nevada, Las Vegas. Besides keeping files of university publications and reports, the University Archives contains historical records of the administrative offices including the President, Provost, Vice Presidents and Deans, as well as of the academic colleges, schools, departments, and other university units. The University Archives also contain architectural drawings and plans for the campus, photographs and slides, faculty papers, and records of the Board of Regents and other selected records of the Nevada System of Higher Education (NSHE). A Records Transmittal and Receipt (PDF file) form has been created and added to this page in order to facilitate the transfer of documents to the University Archives.

For further information on the University Archives at UNLV Special Collections, please contact University and Technical Services Archivist, Tom Sommer at thomas.sommer@unlv.edu

What was the response to the Exhibit?

The screenshot shows a Mozilla Firefox browser window displaying the UNLV's 50th Anniversary website. The browser's address bar shows the URL: www.library.unlv.edu/speccol/university\_archives/unlv\_50th\_anniversary\_page.html. The website header features the UNLV logo and navigation links: Your Account, Quick Search, Catalog, Hours, Contact Us, and Site Search. Below the header, the page is titled "UNLV's 50th Anniversary" and includes a breadcrumb trail: UNLV Libraries -> About the Libraries -> Departments -> Special Collections -> University Archives -> UNLV's 50th Anniversary.

The main content area is divided into two columns. The left column, titled "Department of Special Collections", lists various services and resources, including "Welcome", "What's New", "General Information", "Staff Directory", "Collections", "Center for Gaming Research", "Oral History Research Center", "Digital Collections & Exhibits", "Preservation", "Donating to Special Collections", "Nevada History Library Guide", and "Links". The right column, titled "UNLV's 50th Anniversary", contains a paragraph of text and a list of links. The text states: "The following links have been created by Special Collections to provide students, faculty and researchers more general information on the history of the university. The creation of these links coincides with the celebration of the university's 50th anniversary which will be held in 2007. The list includes a link to UNLV's Office of Community Relations' 50th Anniversary homepage." Below this text is a large "50" graphic. The list of links includes: Maude Frazier Hall Construction Photos \(NEW!\), UNLV Presidents and Campus Leaders, Timelines, FAQs, and UNLV Bibliography.

On the right side of the page, there are several boxes containing additional links. The "University Archives Quick Links" box lists: Publications Series, Undergraduate Catalogs, Graduate Catalogs \(electronic version\), Records Series, Library Series, NSHE Series, and Faculty Papers & Publications Series. The "Records Transmittal and Receipt Form (PDF)" box contains a link to the form. The "Theses and Dissertations" box contains a link to the collection. The "UNLV's 50th Anniversary" box contains a link to the anniversary page. The "Repositories" box lists: University of Nevada, Reno University Archives, Nevada Repositories, and Repositories of Primary Sources \(U.S., Canada, and International\).

At the bottom of the page, the text reads: "Updated: Wednesday, 01-Dec-2010 15:56:34 PST" and "Content Provider: Tom Sommer".
