Chancellor's Welcome to Sports Fans to be in Basketball Games Programs

Dear NSU Sports Fan:

Welcome to another, and we hope for all of us a successful, Nevada Southern University Intercollegiate Athletics sporting event. We sincerely hope you enjoy this major sports activity, as your attendance has indicated your continued enjoyment of games in past seasons.

You are watching the NSU Rebels, one of the best teams in the country — a team ranked in the Top 10 in the nation in their division last year. We of the University are justly proud of our fine athletics, and the excellent job of coaching and program directing being done by Coach Rolland Todd and Athletic Director Michael Drakulich. We feel certain your support of all our teams, present and future, will by their showing of skill and sportsmanship in this game, be justified.

We thank all our loyal fans for their support. A special "Thank You" must go to members of the Century Club, a part of the University Rebel Club, for their unequalled contributions to the NSU Athletic Program.

Again, welcome — and thank you for coming.

ROLLAND TODD
Head Coach

Rolland Todd Head Basketball Coach

Rolland Todd begins his third season as Head Basketball Coach for Nevada Southern University. In the 1964-65 season, he compiled a 15-11 record; last season the Rebels posted a 21-6 mark. He began his playing career at Strathmore, California, High School. He was scoring leader in 1953-54 at Fresno State College.

Todd is a Fresno State graduate (1958) and completed his master's degree at the University of Washington in 1963.

A stickler for fundamentals, Todd began his coaching career at Rainier Beach High, Seattle, a conference runner-up in its first year (14-6).

His previous college coaching experience at Riverside City College (winner of 35 straight during 1963-64) and Los Angeles State where he was as assistant for two years prior to coming to Nevada Southern.

Todd gained All-American recognition in 1960 with the AAU Buchan Bakers and later saw action with the San Francisco Saints and Oakland Oaks.

Coach Todd's enthusiasm and refusal to rest on the laurels of last year's success has brought to Nevada Southern University the most talented group of basketball players in the history of the school, that coupled with returning lettermen should make for an exciting Rebel basketball team that Southern Nevadans can be proud of.

WILLIAM "Bill" SCOBLE
Assistant Coach

William Scoble Assistant Basketball Coach

Coaching the freshmen team will be William (Bill) Scoble, who is also head track coach at NSU. No stranger to this area Bill will be remembered as varsity coach at Gorman High School for all sports in 1963-65.

Bill was born February 4, 1939, in Toledo, Ohio. He received his Bachelor's Degree in 1962, from Wisconsin State University. He completed work on his Master's Degree at the University of Washington in 1966.

His background includes basketball and tennis coach at Redmond High School in Redmond, Washington; a teaching fellowship (1965-66) at the University of Washington in Seattle and basketball, track, and football coach in the Superior School District, Superior, Wisconsin, 1961-63.

This will be Bill's first season at NSU.

UNIVERSITY OF HOUSTON — 1967-68 OUTLOOK

Coach Guy Lewis' University of Houston basketball team should again rank among the nation's best in 1967-68. Houston, ranked among the country's top ten for the entire 1966-67 season and third-place finisher in the NCAA tournament, will return six lettermen, including the top two scorers.

They are All-American Elvin "BigE" Hayes (6-8) and Don Chaney (6-5), a USBWA all-Southwest choice. Hayes led the Cougars in scoring with a 28.4 average. Chaney was second with a 15.3 mark.

Hayes, a two-time All-American selection, needs only 84 points this season to become the greatest scorer in Texas major college history. The senior forward from Rayville, La., has already smashed every UH school record for scoring and rebounding.

Melvin Bell, the Cougars' third leading scorer last season and one of the country's top sophs last year, has been lost for the coming season because of a knee operation. The loss of Bell, who averaged 12.8 points per game and 9.1 rebounds, cuts down Houston's depth and size considerably. He will be replaced in the starting lineup by Theodis Lee, a 6-7 junior who played sparingly last year.

Ken Spain, a 6-9 junior, will take over the center spot, vacated by Leary Lentz, now playing for the Houston Mavericks of the ABA. Spain gave an indication of his potential when he came off of the bench to score 24 points and grab 14 rebounds in 26 minutes against third-ranked North Carolina.

Houston's fifth spot is up for grabs. Junior College transfer George Reynolds (6-4) could have the inside track over letterman Vern Lewis (5-11), sophomore Tom Gribben (6-2), junior Niemer Hamood (6-0) and junior college transfer Billy Bane (6-2).

Lewis looks at the season this way:

"If some of our newcomers and younger players develop, we could be as strong as last season. As I said last year, I would like to know right now that we could duplicate that record. (27-4) That was the best in the school's history.

"Our strong points will be the same as last season. We will be strong inside, scoring and rebounding. We won't be as big up front this year because of Bell's loss. Our weakness is still the lack of a proven outside shooter."
