PROJECT 150

GONZALO MORIAN GUTIERREZ-DESANTIAGO

Social Issue – Introduction:

History and Purpose

- Project 150 addresses the issue of homelessness amongst the local youth
- Has been helping local high school students since December 2011
- Dedicated to providing clothing, materials, and food to unfortunate high school students

Approach to Issue:

Service Site Approach

- Project 150 provides essentials to homeless/in need high school students such as clothes, food, etc
- Donations are accepted; physical and/or monetary
- Gives to the community as much as they can

Paradigms of Service

- Charity – I, personally, will not always be there. Every time I go there's different volunteers
- Project – this organization has a schedule for when and how to serve the community

Experience and Making a Difference

- Advocacy (Social Change) - Project 150 strives in helping high school students succeed and graduate. Their motto: High School is Tough Enough

My Service/Experience

- I was responsible for organizing the clothing and school supplies
- I helped tidy the warehouse and Betty's Boutique when needed
- Acquainted with great new people
