Jerry Tarkanian
Head Basketball Coach

Winning is a fact of life to Jerry Tarkanian--on the court and off.

In 17 years of coaching at the collegiate, high school and junior college ranks, the first-year Rebel coach has known nothing but excellence;

He is bringing to his new school such highly-touted high school All-Americans as Eddie Owens (Houston, Texas), Lewis Brown (Los Angeles, California), Jackie Robinson (Los Angeles, California). They are joined by a pair of junior college All-Americans, also new recruits, Lawrence Williams (Los Angeles) and Ricky Sobers (New York). They'll combine with returning Rebels Jimmie Baker, a consensus All-American, and Bobby Flore, a fine-shooting senior, to give Tarkanian the makings of a superior team.

Tarkanian comes to Las Vegas with a COMMITMENT TO EXCELLENCE as his driving philosophy. Not only does he hope to achieve a nationally-ranked basketball program, but he is also working with a special tutoring and counseling program for his players. He emphasizes equally the importance of academics and basketball to his student athletes.

Evidence of his strong belief in classes, as well as games, is his selection as "Professor of the Year" in 1970 by the students of Long Beach State and his selection as "Father of the Year" in 1966 in Riverside County for his "guidance and care on and off the court to all the young men under his tutelage, as well as his family of four."

Tarkanian's players have gone on to establish themselves in the pros. They include: Chuck Terry (Milwaukee Bucks), Eric McWilliams (Houston Rockets), George Trapp (Detroit Pistons), Bob Rule (Cleveland Cavaliers), Ed Ratleff (Houston Rockets) and recently-retired John O. Trapp (Los Angeles Lakers).

An intense individual, he has also coached in Ecuador for the People to People Sports Committee and in April and May of 1968 he coached the Junior College Olympic Team in the Olympic Trials.

The 43-year-old coach has won the hearts of Las Vegas fans and the L. A. Times called him "the most beloved Las Vegas celebrity." A true champion-builder, when he arrived at Long Beach, it was unknown nationally. When he left, it was an established power, second in the West only to UCLA.

A native of Juclid, Ohio, Tarkanian attended Pasadena City College before graduating from Fresno State in 1956. He received his Masters from the University of Redlands in 1960.

Tarkanian and his devoted and totally-involved wife, Lois, reside with their four children, Pamela, Jodie, Danny and George in Las Vegas.
