JERRY TARKANIAN STORY

"The time is the charm." Well, if there is any truth at all to that wise adage—well, then, Jerry Tarkanian's third year as the UNLV basketball coach should be the finest yet. And, if year number three is better than number two, it will be a great Rebel year in 1975-76. Last season was UNLV's finest, a 24-5 record, the West Coast Athletic Conference championship, and the Rebels advanced to the Division I playoffs for the first time and ended the season in top 20 in both the AP and coach polls.

To be the best is not the easiest challenge ever accepted by a Rebel coach. Jerry Tarkanian has made the commitment and he and his team are dedicated to that goal.

Winning is a fact of life to Jerry Tarkanian—on and off the court. In 19 years of coaching in the collegiate, junior college ranks, the third-year Rebel coach has known nothing but success.

In seven seasons as a major college coach (five at Cal State, Long Beach), Tarkanian has the highest winning percentage in collegiate basketball, winning 166 games while losing only 31. Two seasons with the Rebels have brought in a 44-11 record (6-6 in 1973-74 and 24-5 in 1974-75).

What is equally amazing is that Tarkanian NEVER lost a home game at Long Beach. His four years with the Rebels won 65 straight games in the Campanile Gym and Long Beach area, culminating with a nationally-televised impressive 77-66 victory over Marquette that drew a PCAA and CSULB record crowd.

At UNLV, Tark's troops have won 21 straight games going into the 1975-76 season and in two years in Las Vegas, the Rebels, in the friendly confines of the Las Vegas Convention Center, are 29-2. The only two losses have been to Texas Tech, 82-76, and to the University of Houston, 75-72. Both were during the 1973-74 season.

Sell-out crowds have been a tradition in the Tarkanian era. In the Rebels two WCAC seasons with Tarkanian, UNLV did not lose a home game in 14 nights. UNLV has now withdrawn from the WCAC to compete as a Division I independent so as to clear the way to schedule the best competition possible. The Rebels are also developing as a strong road team as well under Tarkanian's guidance. In two seasons, UNLV is 15-9 on the road, including the first-ever Division I playoffs at the end of last season.

THE UNIVERSITY REBELS CLUB

Certainly one of the finest in the nation, the University Rebels Club is the driving force behind booster support for the UNLV athletic program. With continued active member participation, the URC is growing even stronger.

This past year the URC had its greatest fund raising drive ever, raising nearly $450,000 for the support of the grant-in-aid program for Rebel athletics. This total is also one of the top five in the nation, and, to think UNLV has had just over a decade of graduating classes, so the alumni roster isn’t very long.

The honorary list of alumni at UNLV is one of the largest as the record drive would indicate all the thousands of Rebel boosters there are in the community. URC co-ordinator is Davey Pearl and the director of athletic fund-raising for the university is Dr. Wayne Pearson. No university in the country has two more dedicated men than Pearl and Pearson and they have literally become living legends among booster groups across the nation.

William “Wildcat” Morris is back as President of the University Rebels Club this year, but, Morris has never been far behind the scenes in Rebel athletics, and, was one of the main men who helped establish football at UNLV.

On July 10, 1975, Caesars Palace Hotel hosted the grandest URC “Thank You” Banquet of all as nearly 2,500 Rebel boosters were honored by one of the all-time greats - Mr. Frank Sinatra.

The URC office on the UNLV campus is open daily and all Rebel boosters and friends are urged to drop by and say hello to Wayne and Davey. Information regarding the URC and what it takes to become a UNLV scholarship donor may be obtained by calling 739-3614 or dropping by their office.

In the sub-regional game played on the campus of Arizona State in Tempe, UNLV defeated San Diego State, 90-80. In the CAA Regional tournament in Portland, Ore., the Rebels were narrowly trimmed by Arizona State, 84-81, but bounced back in the consolation game to defeat a favored University of Montana team, 75-67.

Before Long Beach, where Tarkanian's reputation first drew national acclaim, he spent seven seasons in the Junior College ranks at Riverside and Pasadena City Colleges. At Riverside (1962-66), he had a 131-9 overall record, which included three consecutive state championships and four league championships in five years. No other junior college coach in the history of California basketball has achieved those heights. At Pasadena (1966-68), Tarkanian was 67-4 and bagged a fourth state title while finishing in the runner-up spot another time.

An astonishing feature of his wins is that they were accomplished at schools which had never previously won a basketball championship. Riverside was last in its conference two consecutive years before Tarkanian; Pasadena was last in its conference the previous year; Long Beach had never won a championship in basketball, and UNLV had never finished higher than fourth in the WCAC.

The outstanding coach started his coaching career with five years in high school at San Joaquin Memorial, Antelope Valley and Redlands High Schools. Regarded as one of the great recruiters in the nation, "The Red Piper" of college basketball landed for Long Beach such nationally recognized superstars as Sam Robinson, George Rapp, Chuck Terry, Ed Ratliff, Leonard Gray and Roscoe Mondexeter. In his first year at UNLV, Tarkanian may have recruited as well as he did during his entire tenure at Long Beach State.

As his winning tradition continues to grow, so has his reputation. Two years ago Tarkanian brought thru high school All-America performers to be with him. All juniors this season, they are Eddie Owens (Houston, Texas), Lewis Brown and Jackie Robinson (both Los Angeles). New recruits this year are JC All-Star Sam Smith (from Las Vegas), and freshmen Reggie Theus (Inglewood, Calif.) and Mickey Berkowitz (Tel-Aviv, Israel). Berkowitz is the first international player to attend UNLV.

Jerry Tarkanian is a toweling chewing, nail biting, hard-working Armenian who came to Las Vegas with a COMMITMENT TO EXCELLENCE as his inspiring philosophy. He will settle for nothing less than excellence from his players, both on and off the court. In addition to a nationally-recognized basketball program for UNLV, Tarkanian has developed a tutorial program for his players that paid high dividends. A trademark of Tarkanian players is that they almost without an exception, earn their college degree, even though some of them do it during the off season as they are in professional basketball.

UNLV attempts to emphasize equally the importance of academics AND basketball to all of its student-athletes.

Evidence of his strong belief in academics is his selection as "Professor of the Year" in 1970 by the students of Long Beach State. He was also honored as "Father of the Year" in 1966 by Riverside County for his "guidance and care on and off the court of all the young men under his tutelage, as well as his family of four."

Tarkanian's players have gone on to play in professional basketball. They include Chuck Terry (Houston Rockets), Eric Williams (Houston Rockets), George Trapp (Detroit Pistons), Bob Rule (Los Angeles Lakers), Glenn MacDonald (Boston Celtics), Leonard Gray (Seattle Supersonics), and most recently Ricky Sobers (Phoenix Suns). Darrell Evans, who played for Tarkanian in junior college, is a pitcher for the Atlanta Braves in major baseball.

An intense individual, he has coached in Ecuador for the People-to-People Sports Committee, and in April and May of 1968, he coached the Junior College Olympic Team in the Olympic Trials.

The 45-year-old coach easily won the hearts of Las Vegas, and the L.A. Times called him an "instant Las Vegas celebrity." A true-champion-builder, when he arrived at Long Beach, the team was unknown nationally. When he left, it was established power, second in the West only to UCLA.

A native of Euclid, Ohio, Tarkanian attended Pasadena City College before graduating from Fresno State in 1956. He received his Master’s degree from Redlands University in 1960.

Tarkanian and his devoted and totally-involved wife Lois, side with their four children — Pamela, Jodie, Danny and George — in their new Las Vegas home.

With Tarkanian tradition and image, the speaking engagements for clinics and banquets come in nearly every day. He will average nearly one a week during the off-seasons.

Las Vegas is a town known for having the best, and Jerry Tarkanian is surely a at the top of that list.

Other violations also possible
Following a sophomore season as the UNLV "Super Sub", hustling Robert Smith is the starting point guard for the nationally-ranked Runnin' Rebels.

At 5-11, he is rather a short guard but he makes up for it with great quickness, basketball knowledge and a collection of basketball skills that can bring many a roar from a Rebel fan and a cry of disdain from opponents.

As the UNLV point guard, Robert is the man in charge of the Rebels running game. He is the first man back on defense. He is third on the team in steals, getting over one per game.

Through the first 19 Rebel games in 1975-76, Rapid Robert was seventh in scoring for the Rebels, with six players ahead of him in double figures and he with a 9.2 per game scoring average. But there is no one that has seen him play that thinks he lacks scoring ability. But, playing the point guard for UNLV, Robert must make the offense work and so far the Rebels are averaging over 100 points per game, top in the nation.

As the UNLV point guard, Robert is the man in charge of setting up the Rebels running game and he is the first man back on defense. In his junior season, Robert has lived up to his role, performing with all the deftness of an artisan at his work.

And Robert takes charge of the Rebel running game. He had 92 assists in the first 19 Rebel games, an average of 4.8 per game. He is the team's leading free-throw shooter with a .820 average and his field goal percentage of .475 isn't all that bad either, especially when most of his shots come from outside the lane.

Robert has done some exciting things in two seasons with the Rebels, and his first starts were in the NCAA Western Regional last year in Portland. Not only did Robert score 25 points and get 10 assists, he was also named to the All-Regional team, a distinct honor especially when you consider that national champion UCLA was in that same regional and placed two players on the squad.

This season Robert played brilliantly in several key games, including the Las Vegas Holiday Classic when the Rebels rolled by the University of Houston and the University of Michigan for the title. Robert was selected to the all-tournament team from a group of players that included at least two All-America candidates.

On the road, Robert has produced key plays that have enabled the Rebels to win all seven games that they have played away from the Convention Center.

Motivation never seems to be a problem for Robert, he's always ready to play. The quiet spoken, well-mannered young Rebel and his active wife Gloria, are getting ready to celebrate a birthday in their family. Robert Jr., was born to them February 21, after the Rebels had clinched the West Coast Athletic Conference crown by defeating Loyola Marymount University, 93-81.

Completing an already well-rounded game, Rapid Robert is third on the team in steals, getting over one per game.

It's the little things that make the Rebels work. Like unselfish play. Like aggressive defense. Like few turnovers. Like good shooting. Like good ball handling. Like tremendous hustle. Like taking charges, LIKE ROBERT SMITH.
