Selecting titles

Unified title selection criteria across all states enforced by the Library of Congress

- Image quality of microfilms
- Research value
- Geographic representation
- Temporal coverage (1789-1963)
- Bibliographic completeness of microfilms
- Duplication

Statewide Advisory Board and the title selection process

- Inventory of eligible Nevada newspapers for digitization
- Selecting titles that
  - are paper of record
  - have great research value
  - represent every Nevada county
  - are in the public domain
  - are available on microfilms
  - are full runs
- Calculating estimates to meet the 100,000 pages goal
- Official Title List approved by Library of Congress
- Digitization priorities for each grant cycle
- Essays for each newspaper group

Title changes graphic
- Represents the title changes of major newspaper groups
- Chronological arrangement title/year
- Disambiguates the titles with completely different names and relates them to the appropriate group

Geospatial map
- Visual representation of the title list
- Provides exact publication location
- Provides details for each title - dates, links to Chronicling America records
- Provides better grasp of the different Nevada counties and the titles representing each of them

Progress updates
- Graphically represents the overall project progress
- Work segmented by batches
- Track the progress of each batch
- Great resource to check which titles are being digitized and which are coming next

EASTLAND ORPHAN BEATEN UP
BY FARMER AND WIFE

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 22—Dilly Schappacher, 11-year-old girl, is lying near death as a result of being attacked, starved, beaten and almost worked to death on a farm near Netherlands, where she was placed with her 9-year-old brother after the death of her mother in the Eastland disaster. Physicians declare that even if she should live her mind will probably be impaired permanently.

Mrs. Martha Ivy, who is charged with malicious assault upon the child she adopted, is in the Peninsular County Jail at Caruthersville. She admitted that she tied Dilly to a bed and had whipped her and threatened to burn her. Her husband, who is charged with the crime upon the child for which the maximum punishment is death, refused to talk.

It ain't hard to be poor—it's the easiest thing in the world.

Ballington Booth home for children in San Francisco, will tell of her work with the little ones. She is an eloquent speaker of wide experience.

Mrs. J. R. Ritter presided as hostess last Wednesday at a charming musical recital of the Adelphi Club. Mrs. Josephine Aylwin, pianist; Mrs. Caroline Crew, soprano, and Mrs. Samuel Bernhard, reader, contributed the program. A group of songs composed by Mrs. Aylwin and sung by Mrs. Ritter was a feature of the hour.

A Dickens afternoon was enjoyed by the members and guests of the Adelphi Club Saturday, the women of the receiving party appearing in the costume of many of the quaint characters. A delightful program of readings from the works of the famous writer, with a half hour of music given by Mrs. Charles Hughes, vocalist, and Raymond Gott, violinist, was enjoyed before the clever talk on Dickens and his work by Rev. William Rader of San Francisco.

Tuesday last the music history section were hostesses at a musical, when the compositions of California men and women were rendered by Wallace Sablin, Eda Waldrop, August Hinrichs, Mrs. Belle O'Connor, Miss Mary Sherwood and Miss Winifred Mastick.

WOMAN TIRED OF DODGING BULLETS

Mrs. Errington Was Target for Hubby's Pistol Practice—Other Tales of Woe Told in Court.

Tired of being a target for her husband's pistol practice, Caroline Errington applied for a divorce in Judge Hosmer's court, Saturday morning.

Mrs. Errington said that when her husband, John George Errington, became intoxicated, which was frequent, his chief desire was to shoot her, and during the time she lived with him she became quite proficient in dodging bullets. The fear that some day he might hit the mark caused a nervous breakdown, the wife testified.

Mrs. Errington described a thrilling experience she went through when living on Stanton-ave. Her husband came home intoxicated, she said, and as usual got his revolver and commenced firing. She dodged five bullets, and then made her escape into the street.

SOCIETY WOMAN IS FORCED TO GIVE UP SMUGGLED PEARLS

MRS. ADA F. C. ADRIANCE.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—Her instinct to cheat the government by jewel smuggling has brought public humiliation and shame to Mrs. Ada F. C. Adriance, society leader of Poughkeepsie and wife of a millionaire mower manufacturer.

Not until this beautiful woman and her daughter Marion had been divested—garment by garment—of all but their birthday clothes did they surrender $6,000 worth of pearls.

Now the government has seized the pearls and at least $100,000 worth of other jewelry and holds Mrs. Adriance in $7,500 bail to appear before the grand jury and answer the charges of attempted fraud.
TRAGEDY OVER POKER GAME

Four Men Shot, One of Whom Will Die—Stranger Wanted to Join Game

James Hibbs was shot in the jaw and abdomen, and David Wright and Erwin Stoyer were shot in the leg by Harry Wiseman at Lida, Esmeralda County, last week, and Wiseman was shot in the mouth by William Seaman. Hibbs will die, but Wiseman has recovered to such an extent that it is thought he will recover.

Wiseman, who is a saloon keeper, entered Seaman's resort and asked to be permitted to sit in a poker game which the four men were playing. Seaman objected, and he left the place, returning shortly afterward with an automatic gun in his hand. As he stepped into the house he drew the gun, and said: "I guess this will let me in the game."

"Not much," said Seaman, who arose from the table with his artillery unlimbered.

Wiseman immediately commenced to shoot, and succeeded in hitting everybody but Seaman, the man he was after. When Wiseman's gun was emptied Seaman took careful aim and fired one shot. Wiseman fell to the floor with the blood pouring from his mouth, and Seaman turned to assist his wounded customers. Dr. Allen examined the men and had Wright and Stoyer sent to the hospital at Goldfield, after setting Wright's leg, which was shattered by the bullet.

MURDERER OF FORMER ELKO WOMAN RETURNED TO ITALY

Jersey City, N. J., Aug.—Porter Charlton, confessed wife murderer, left today to be tried in Italy for killing his wife Mary Scott Castle Charlton and throwing her body in Lake Como. The steamship Re 'd Italia, on which the prisoner travels third class in charge of Italian officers left her pier about ten o'clock. Italy has no death penalty but Charlton faces confinement for life. His father Judge Paul Charlton, a Yale classmate of ex-president Taft, will attend the trial.

Mrs. Charlton, the murdered woman resided in Elko, Nevada, for a long time. Charlton was her second husband, she having been divorced before marrying the man who murdered her.
Weather Forecast.

Cooler tomorrow.

Bald Facts.

The Gentleman With the Beard—Surely you are splitting hairs, professor?
The Gentleman Without—No; I'm merely stating the bald facts.
A Bold Challenge.
It had been explained to a man that mathematics, politics, ethics and gymnastics "is." The plural form bothered him until somebody said, "Well, did you ever hear of a mathematic, a politic, an ethic or a gymnastic?"
The doubter retired in confusion, but came back triumphantly from retirement after awhile.
"Say, you wise guys," said he, "tell me the singular of dandruff."—Chicago Post.

Nonsense
As Time Progresses.
"What will the woman of tomorrow be?" sighed the pensive person.
"Oh, a year or two younger than she is today," replied the one who had reasoned such things out.—Chicago Record-Herald.

An Orgy of Despair.
Two women were leaving the theater after a performance of "The Doll's House."
"Oh, don't you love Ibsen!" asked one ecstatically. "Doesn't he just take all of the hope out of life?"—Success Magazine.
Up-to-Date Recipes

Marriage Flips—Take two people, place in a flat; add a few children; put in a few quarrels, a large portion of mother-in-law; mix well, then add a little installment plan; add more family scraps to suit the taste and let it come to a boil.

Scandal Flaps—Take part of your neighbor’s everyday life, pick over carefully; add a few falsehoods; sprinkle well with “They say” and “I heard;” add more falsehoods to suit the taste and serve in small chunks.

“400” Flops—Take a good portion of swell society; add a few dukes; mix well with scandal, sprinkle thoroughly with divorces, add some chorus girls and serve cold.
