

2007 Inaugural Conference

PARTICIPANT COMMENTS

"I'm glad we're looking at ways to collaborate between researchers, business and community organization."

"The keynote speakers were very interesting — in particular Dr. Fink from ASU provided very useful ideas and information that UNLV and the local community should really be paying attention to."

"The panel speakers were excellent."

"It is nice to have some interest/energy focused on sustainability. Just holding the conference period is a blessing – it is a tool for change. Please do not stop; I hope it becomes an annual affair."

"A variety of distinguished speakers and relevant topics."

"Chris Nelson's presentation was great. He shared lots of excellent information and was enjoyable to listen to. His credentials were amazing and lent a great deal of credibility to his presentation."
