November 1978

Dear Faculty and Staff Member,

With the season opener with New Mexico State at the Convention Center on November 25 almost here, I would like to take this opportunity to invite you to be a part of the exciting Lady Rebel basketball team.

In just four years, the UNLV women's basketball program has developed into one of the finest in the country. From a 8-7 record in 1974-75, the squad has emerged as a national contender while compiling an incredible 64-11 mark (including a 37-home game win skein) and appearing twice in post-season action.

This season of Lady Rebel basketball promises to be just as thrilling. The roster features talented young ladies from California, Indiana, Oklahoma, Puerto Rico and Nevada. And, the schedule, including many of the nation's top teams and premier players, is highlighted by the NIKE Tournament of Champions on December 8 and 9, when UNLV will host the University of Maryland (#2 nationally last year), Montclair State (#3 nationally last year) and North Carolina State (#4 nationally last year) at the Las Vegas Convention Center. Pre-game and half-time entertainment, featuring a pep band and drill team, also will be part of the action.

As faculty and staff members, you and your families may be admitted, at no charge with your ID card, to all of the Lady Rebel games at the UNLV South Gym. These games are so designated on the enclosed schedule.

Anyone who holds a Runnin' Rebel basketball ticket is entitled to admission, at no extra cost, to all of the women's contests which are preliminaries for the men's games at the Convention Center.

Tickets for the NIKE Tournament of Champions, which are priced at $7.00 and $5.00/four games and $5.00 and $3.00/two games, are on sale now at the UNLV Athletic Ticket Office.

I hope to see you and your families at the Lady Rebel games. I personally guarantee an enjoyable and action-packed evening for all.

Sincerely,

Dan Ayala
Lady Rebel Head Coach
