The May Auctions

Michael Jesen
Auction Director

Spring is finally in full swing in New York and we are delighted to bring you an incredible three days of auction (one evening and two day sessions to be exact!). In the two catalogs that make up our May New York sales, we present a staggering total of 2445 lots of the world's finest and rarest wines with a total low/high estimate of nearly $5 million to $7.5 million. On May 14th, we revisit our special evening sale format with an incredible, select offering of nearly 200 lots of some of the most prized and highly sought after bottlings from the best collections around the world. Our more traditional day sale on the 15th and 16th is highlighted by an extensive array of wine from all regions and a broad span of vintages. There is even a little Cognac, thanks to a change in the auction laws of New York.

The May auctions are marked by significant offerings from prominent and important cellars, several of which have selections featured in both the evening sale and the day sessions. Of note is An Extensive Collection Of Pristine Rarities From A Meticulous European Collector Featuring An Offering Of Exciting 2005 Burgundy Bottlings (lots 9 through 71), a collection from a dear friend and one of the great collections of well stored wines of the world. Featured later in the evening is A Fabulous Offering Of European Wines From A Highly Important North American Cellar (95 through 132), which represents an astonishing assortment of rarities. An additionally deep and important offering of wines from this cellar is also featured in the May 16th session at lots 1618 through 2245. The evening sale is then rounded out by Spectacular Burgundies And Magnums Of Chateau Mouton Rothschild 1945 And Chateau Petrus 1982 From One Of America's Greatest Collections (lots 143 through 170), a selection we are very privileged to be featuring from one of the wine world's most knowledgeable and respected connoisseurs. A further offering from this vast collection is found at lots 796 through 947. The final lots of the evening sale represent the first offering we have had – and perhaps the auction market has seen – of Domaine de la Romanee Conti wines from the already mythic 2005 vintage. Bidding is sure to be furious and a new precedent in the pricing of blue chip Burgundy is likely to be set.

Featured in the day session are several mouth watering collections. Kicking off on the 15th is A Selection From The Cellar Of Lee Finley (lots 199 through 450), an amazing depth of case lot Bordeaux, predominately in original wood. Later in the day we are thrilled to bring A Comprehensive Collection Of Superlative Wines From An Astute American Connoisseur (lots 550 through 757), a cellar from a longtime, extremely knowledgeable American collector with a very broad taste in wine. In addition to these fine offerings are many, many wonderful consignments providing opportunities for wine enjoyers of all kinds to stock their cellars.

We look forward to seeing you at restaurant Daniel May 14th through 16th. As always, please do not hesitate to contact us if there is anything we can do for you.

Cheers!

Michael Jessen

A SELECTION FROM THE CELLAR OF LEE FINLEY

This offering from avid collector Lee Finley features multiple case quantities of classic Bordeaux, Champagne, and California Cabernet. All wines were purchased on release or through mailing lists, and almost all remain in their original packaging.

I have had the great opportunity to work on this consignment from the moment the list was received. Lee Finley is a fascinating individual, and it has been a pleasure to talk to him about his many interests: classic cars, good food, and, of course, fine wine.

Lee Finley's four decade career in the utility truck industry has led him from western Canada to Spokane, Washington and finally to Fort Worth, Texas, where he lives with his wife, Susie, and owns a commercial utility truck equipment manufacturer. During the fifteen years he spent in Spokane, this native of Vancouver, British Columbia ventured into unknown territory (for him) and opened a restaurant with some business associates. The restaurant eventually failed, but the experience introduced him to the world of wine and wine collecting.

By 1976, Lee Finley had caught the collecting bug and began to assemble collections centered around his two main interests: Corvettes and red Bordeaux. His personal preferences have always driven his acquisitions, and while his taste in cars has remained constant – his first love is still old Corvettes – his drinking preferences have changed over the years. For the first ten to twelve years of collecting, Mr. Finley focused on French wines, primarily Bordeaux. In the early 1990s his attention began to shift towards California, and he became enamored with the beautiful vineyards and wineries of Napa as well as the cult Californians that were emerging in notoriety and quality.

Perhaps most notable about Lee Finley's collection are the large quantities of red Bordeaux and Champagne that he amassed in the 1980s and 1990s. Once, when attending a wine association dinner in Dallas, he entered into conversation with Remy Krug, who playfully remarked that Finley owned more 1985 Krug than he did!

Mr. Finley's collection has long since outstripped the capacity of his 3,000-bottle home cellar, and the bulk of it is now stored in temperature controlled storage. He jokes that he has gotten a little carried away over the years and now has decided to sell some of his wine in order to maintain the currency and identity of his collection as a more personal "drinking cellar."

DOMAINE DUJAC

There are Burgundy domaines which are long established and long renowned, having estate-bottled for fifty years or more. There are others which have only recently become stars, because it is only in the last decade that they have themselves bottled a significant portion of their produce, though they might have been producing wine for generations. And there is a third category: domaines which have been created from scratch. Of these, none has had such a meteoric rise to super-stardom as the Domaine Dujac in Morey-Saint-Denis.

Jacques Seysses was born in 1941. His father, Louis, was head of Biscuits Belin, since sold to Nabisco, and, importantly, president of the Club des Cent, a club of wealthy continental oenophiles and gastronomes dedicated to the art of good living. Three-star restaurants and five-star domaines were the happy hunting grounds of these ladies and gentlemen, and from an early age Jacques was party to the entertainment. He remembers being taken to La Tour d'Argent at the age of seven; and visiting Pere Ramonet and the Domaine de la Romanee Conti when his father went down to re-stock his cellar. "Thanks to my father I drank the great 1929's and 1934's in their prime. He gave me a marvelous introduction to all the best domaines and chateaux in Burgundy and Bordeaux. My yardsticks were implanted from an early age."

What I like about the Dujac wines is their purity. These are wines of lightish color but intense fruit, and great elegance and definition. Other domaines' and negociants' wines naturally have their own particular character. But sometimes this thumbprint imposes too much, obliterating the terroir. Not so at the Domaine Dujac. The explanation, I believe, is this modest, hands-off approach. "We have a tendency to think that the miracle is in the sophistication of the equipment," says Jacques Seysses. "In reality the miracle comes from the matiere premiere, from the grape. I rely more and more on tasting to decide what to do. These days the scientists and oenologues have given us the courage to rely on our palates and not merely on analysis." Jacques Seysses produces wines which reflect his own taste and personality. Thirty years' experience has proved that this is a style which is enthusiastically appreciated throughout the world. A deserved success. A very fine domaine.

WINES FROM THE CELLAR OF A NEW YORK CITY FINE WINE AND FOOD CONNOISSEUR

All wines purchased on release and held in temperature-controlled professional and home storage.

The wines offered here come from a longtime personal friend, a man who is truly a connoisseur of food and wine. I have enjoyed many dinners with this incredibly kind and generous host and enjoyed countless wines from his cellar, and they have all been fabulous.

It's been great to observe how his tastes, knowledge and interests have broadened over the years. Now a very serious wine lover, he spends much of his time traveling to wine regions and enjoying the best food and wine each has to offer. From Napa to Beaune he enjoys, and more importantly understands, fine wines from all regions of the world.

Not only has everything offered here been purchased upon release, but all the wines were kept in a professional wine storage facility, or in custom-built wine fridges in his apartment. Buyers can rest assured that all wines are in pristine condition.

A selection from this lovely collection of wines is featured in the evening session on Wednesday, May 14.

BURGUNDY

LA TACHE

The style of La Tâche is one of the great individual wines of the entire Côte d'Or. In the eighteenth century, during the seventeen years that the wine of Romanée-Conti was not sold on the open market (1760-1776), being then reserved for the private use of the Prince de Conti, La Tâche was widely considered the greatest wine of Burgundy. To this day there are many that will still strenuously argue that this remains the case. There is no disputing that among the wines of the Domaine de la Romanée-Conti, La Tâche is the only wine that competes with, and at times perhaps even surpasses Romanée-Conti itself. La Tâche is certainly the bigger and more powerful wine of the two, with an aromatic and flavor profile that few wines, if any, can surpass.

To my way of thinking, there are two distinct schools of La Tâche, depending on the relative ripeness of the given vintage. In hotter and riper years, La Tâche is a wine whose fruit component is comprised of stunningly pure and sweet dark berries and plums, with notes of chocolate often found playing a supporting role. In the less torrid or higher acid vintages, La Tâche's fruit runs more to the classic "petits fruits rouges" of Vosne-Romanée, with the red fruit usually accompanied by a kaleidoscopic potpourri of spices. With age, these more red fruity vintages of La Tâche develop what Michael Broadbent has called "the celestial beetroot" of DRC wines, which is most often prevalent in Romanée-Conti itself. In either guise, La Tâche will also deliver game notes of either duck or venison, a very strong soil signature that I would not quite classify as "mineral" but is unmistakable, and spice tones most often redolent of fresh nutmeg and clove. Like all the wines of Domaine de la Romanée-Conti, La Tâche is built for a long and graceful evolution in the cellar, and it is really a crime in any of the great vintages to not give the wine at least twenty years of bottle age. I speak from experience, having consumed all my 1985 La Tâche relatively early on, only to find the wine recently still on its way up, and significantly more interesting today than it was when I could not keep my hands off of my bottles eight or nine years ago.

LA TACHE DOMAINE DE LA ROMANEE CONTI 1996

Cote de Nuits, Grand Cru

"Fantastically pure with the classic spice box, hoisin and soy nose followed by big, rich, very structured flavors that display notes of earth, leather and tea. The tannins are big, ripe and are completely buffered by the sap with length that is simply phenomenal...96." Burghound 9/05.

483 3 bottles per lot $3800-5500

ROMANEE CONTI

DOMAINE DE LA ROMANEE CONTI 1996

"Incredible harmony to this pedigreed red Burgundy... it unfolds layers of elegant yet superripe fruit, wrapping around the palate, coating every taste bud with the silky flavors. Full-bodied and not powerful, it's just lovely...98." WS 9/99.

484 1 bottle per lot $4200-6000

LA TACHE DOMAINE DE LA ROMANEE CONTI 1998

Cote de Nuits, Grand Cru

"Stunning nose of red and black fruits, oriental spices, tea and leather notes. Intensely sappy flavor with wave after wave of ever-changing flavors...A great effort...95." Burghound 1/01.

485 4 bottles per lot $2200-3200

CLOS DE TART MOMMESSIN 1999

Cote de Nuits, Grand Cru

"...a gorgeous nose of rich plums, sweet black cherries, candied blueberries, and loads of spices. Medium to full-bodied and opulent, this is a lush, deep, and fresh wine. Its velvety-textured flavor profile is crammed with blueberries, red cherries, and blackberries that seem to burst in the mouth, revealing their sweet, refreshing juices, in a way not dissimilar to the finest 1996s. It also displays complex nuances of spices, oak, and hints of orange zest. Bravo!...93-95." WA 8/01.

486 2 magnums (1.5L) per lot $700-1100

LEROY AND DOMAINE D'AUVENAY

How do you determine great? Is it size? Is it quality? Is it price? Is it 'reputation' (whatever that is)? However you compute it, the greatest domains of Burgundy today must be those under the control of Lalou Bize: the Domaine Leroy and her own Domaine d'Auvenay. The sheer concentration, depth and intensity Lalou Bize manages to squeeze into her bottles is breathtaking.

Much of the domaine, of course, is new, additional parcels having been joined to the initial 12 ha Charles Noellat estate acquired in 1988. But this has only replaced an equally impressive negociant business based in Auxey-Duresses. Maison Leroy is as much of a cachet on the label as Domaine Leroy, and it is because of the quality and vigour of these merchant wines that we can extrapolate into the future with confidence that we do when we today taste out of cask at the Domaine Leroy headquarters in Vosne-Romanee.

In many ways the Leroy wine-making methods are deeply traditional. Pruning is excessively strict. There is no destemming, a severe triage, two pigeages a day - there are automatic plungers but they have now reverted to pigeage a pied and a long cuvaizon at temperatures up to 33 degrees Celsius. Each vat at Vosne-Romanee is equipped with an internal temperature-controlling stainless-steel coil. 100 percent new wood is used, there is no filtration, and not always a fining either.

Superficially, the above sounds very much like what they do at DRC. Yet curiously the results are quite different. In the DRC wines you can occasionally taste the presence of all the stems during fermentation. Chez Lalou never. The DRC wines are well coloured but not as full, almost densely thick, as at Leroy. Lalou's are even more concentrated, even more tannic, even more long-tasting. Yet never too solid and impenetrable. They are hugely intense, and from the outset manifest quite extraordinary depth of fruit. They are great wines.

The problems of her abrupt sacking from her position as co-gerante of the Domaine de la Romanee Conti now largely behind her - and she will admit the Noellat acquisition brought with it an inevitable conflict of interest which she was slow to acknowledge - Lalou is now happy at the Domaine Leroy and on her own. 'Look at my vines,' she will say. 'Look how healthy and comfortable they are.' Lalou's wines are, according to her, always 'extra'. The one-time cellar rat is now a master in her own right, which she never really felt herself to be at the DRC, and the wines she produces, admittedly at very high prices (but if you produce 20 hl/ha rather than 40 or 50 then they have to be) are triumphantly brilliant.

"A dense purple/ruby color accompanies extraordinary aromatics of balsam wood, dried Provencal herbs, pepper, roasting juices, and over-ripe prune, cherry, and blackberry liqueur. Enormous on the palate (note the taste of aged beef and blood), it is every bit as big as any of its predecessors, but with more glycerin, alcohol, and a hedonistic, thick, jammy richness. Sumptuous, full-bodied, and massively concentrated, this is one of the Rhone Valley's legendary wines. It should provide remarkable levels of pleasure, excitement, and hedonism...100." WA 6/00.

"The 1990 La Landonne is a perfect wine!...It possesses an opaque black color, and a huge, truffle, licorice, cassis, and peppery-scented nose. While it is one of the most concentrated wines I have ever poured across my palate, it is perfectly balanced, with adequate underlying acidity, huge extraction of ripe fruit and tannin, and a phenomenal 70-second or longer finish...100." "Spectacular aromatics offer up aromas of incense, smoke, blackberry fruit, cassis, barbecue spice, coffee, and a touch of chocolate. As it sits in the glass, additional nuances of pepper and grilled steak emerge...abundant tannin, an amazing 60-second finish, and a level of glycerin and thick, fleshy texture that have to be tasted to be believed...100." The aromas begin slowly, but then roar from the glass like an out-of-control locomotive, offering up a smorgasbord of candied black fruits, pepper, garrigue, earth, and truffles. Enormously thick and rich, but, amazingly, not heavy...100." WA 12/01.

six bottom neck or better, three very top shoulder, one bin-soiled label, three torn labels

"...opaque black/purple color, followed by an extraordinary, compelling, sweet bouquet of black-raspberries, cassis, minerals, smoky oak, and vanilla. This multi-dimensional wine's huge extraction of fruit, profound flavor concentration, astonishing balance, and layers of fruit make it the greatest of the modern day Granges...99." WA 8/95.

742 9 bottles per lot $3000-5000

PENFOLDS GRANGE 1990

South Australia

bottom neck or better, lightly scuffed labels

"Magnificent, exotic, a veritable cascade of opulent flavors--earthy currant, black cherry and licorice--on a grand frame of incredible length, wrapped in finely grained tannins...98." WS 1/97.

743 8 bottles per lot $1600-2600

PENFOLDS GRANGE 1991

South Australia

"Rich, chewy, spicy and full of currant and blackberry character, this is distinctive for the harmony that's beneath the hedonistic fanfare of flavors. A stunning wine with all the Grange characteristics...95." WS 1/97.

744 8 bottles per lot $1300-2000

CLARENDON HILLS ASTRALIS 1997

South Australia

"...tell-tale Syrah characteristics of pepper, melted asphalt as well as a wealth of blackberry and creme de cassis fruit. The new oak seems to have been sucked up completely...spectacular wine that has surreal levels of richness and potential complexity...98." WA 2/02.

745 12 bottles per lot $1500-2200

PENFOLDS GRANGE 1998

South Australia

"...astounding wine, utterly seamless, maybe the best Grange yet. Powerful, aristocratic and impressive in the way it gathers up its flavors and lets them hang on and on while the finish lingers...99." WS 5/03.

746 4 bottles per lot $1000-1600

CLARENDON HILLS ROMAS OLD VINE GRENACHE 2001

South Australia

"...reveals a broodingly deep plum/purple color. At first reticent aromatically, it explodes with aeration to reveal a pure, peppery, raspberry, and blackberry-scented bouquet with hints of spice, underbrush, and incense in the background. Enormously concentrated yet not over the top or too extracted, this beautifully pure, full-bodied Grenache saturates/stains the palate with fruit, glycerin, and flavor. In short, it's a tour de force!...98." WA 8/03.

TOP BORDEAUX, BURGUNDY AND CALIFORNIA
WINES FROM THE COLLECTION OF A EAST COAST
GENTLEMAN

ALL WINES PURCHASED UPON RELEASE

I have known this collector for many years and have spent much time helping him manage his cellar, and the lots which follow here are what every collector always dreams of finding in an auction catalog. A member of the Bacchus Society, he is a serious connoisseur of fine food, and his intention has always been to enjoy his wines over dinner. The collection is full of immaculate wines in their original cartons and cases, stored professionally since purchase on release. Most were opened for the first time by Zachys Wine Auctions specialists.

From a few humble purchases in the 1980s, the collection grew to one of sizeable proportion. From the original holdings of Bordeaux the collection soon expanded to Burgundy, California, Champagne and beyond. However, as any serious collector will tell you, there comes a time when the realization hits that one simply has more wine than one could ever hope to consume, and so a decision has been taken to let some of these precious wines go for others to enjoy.

A selection from this outstanding collection is featured in the evening session on Wednesday, May 14. DW

BORDEAUX

CHATEAU HAUT BRION 1986

Pessac Leognan, Premier Cru Classe

2cm or better, one nicked label, original wood case

"This wine is a remarkably concentrated, powerful Haut-Brion that should prove to be extremely long-lived... Explosively rich, full-bodied, and with gobs of tannin, this classic wine is one of the great stars of the vintage...93." WA 4/93.

758 12 bottles per lot $2600-4000

CHATEAU LAFITE ROTHSCHILD 1986

Pauillac, Premier Cru Classe

into neck, original wood case

"...outstanding richness, a deep color, medium body, a graceful, harmonious texture, and superb length...powerful, dense, rich, and tannic, as well as medium to full-bodied, with awesome extraction of fruit...100." WA 10/94.

759 12 bottles per lot $9000-13,000

CHATEAU MOUTON ROTHSCHILD 1986

Pauillac, Premier Cru Classe

nine bottom neck or better, three top shoulder, original wood case

"An enormously concentrated, massive Mouton-Rothschild... this impeccably made wine is still in its infancy...it has the potential to last for 50-100 years!...100." WA 8/96.

760 12 bottles per lot $8000-12,000

CHATEAU HAUT BRION 1990

Pessac Leognan, Premier Cru Classe

2cm or better, original wood case

"...a decadently ripe wine with much more evolution to its fragrant cassis, mineral, smoked-herb, hot rocks, tobacco, sweet, toasty nose. Fat, rich, and medium to full-bodied...superbly-concentrated, forward, awesomely-endowed...96." WA 2/97.

761 12 bottles per lot $5000-8000

CHATEAU LEOVILLE LAS CASES 1982

St Julien, Deuxieme Cru Classe

ten bottom neck or better, two very top shoulder, two bin-soiled labels, original wood case

"...youthful yet profoundly complex...the finest Leoville-Las-Cases ever made...massive proportions yet extraordinary purity, elegance, and balance...The nose offers up blazingly well-delineated, pure aromas of creme de cassis, cherry jam, minerals, and toasty new oak...100." WA 6/00.

762 12 bottles per lot $5000-7500

BURGUNDY

CHAMBERTIN CLOS DE BEZE ARMAND ROUSSEAU 1996

Cote de Nuits, Grand Cru

"Incredibly vinous, pure, pretty and exquisite aromas of dark fruit, spices, indeed positively kaleidoscopic in breadth followed by tannic, sappy, intense, remarkably complex flavors...Fresh, long and beautiful and this should age for a very long time as the balance here is first rate...92." Burghound 10/03.

763 6 bottles per lot $2200-3200

BATARD MONTRACHET MICHEL NIELLON 1996

Cote de Beaune, Grand Cru

"Super-ripe fruits, white flowers, mulling spices and sweet toast soar from the glass. This massive wine is a powerful, broad-shouldered, expansive, and mouth-coating monster that managed to retain extraordinary elegance and delineation - a rare combination to achieve. This full-bodied wine offers of layers hazelnuts, roasted peaches, liquid minerals, and candied pears as well as a seemingly unending finish. It is a grand-slam home run!...99." WA 2/98.

764 3 bottles per lot $2000-3000

CHABLIS VALMUR VERGET 1996

Chablis, Grand Cru

"...a stunning wine. Rich aromas of liquid minerals, white flowers, red berries and sweet oak notes are followed by a broad, full-bodied, and supremely complex character. Silky-textured, deep, and broad, this steely offering is filled with flint, metals, minerals, and dried herbs. As with its older brother, the 1995, this Valmur has an unbelievably long, precise, and pure finish...93-96." WA 2/98.

765 12 bottles per lot $850-1200

SPECTACULAR RED AND WHITE BURGUNDIES FROM ONE OF AMERICA'S GREATEST COLLECTIONS

Carefully collected and stored in three custom-built refrigerated underground home cellars.

The selection of wines offered below comes from the extraordinary collection of one of America's most knowledgeable and generous collectors. For truly rare French wines, past and present, his collection is the mother lode. I have tasted with the consignor on numerous occasions, and visited his cellar, which contains many wines purchased from carefully cultivated sources in Europe—often the domains themselves—the rarity and condition of which will take your breath away. I have tasted nary a clunker from this collection—except a slightly corked bottle of Romanee-Conti 1959, which was quickly replaced with another from the cellar! There have been many memorable occasions enjoying wine provided by the consignor—Drouhin Musigny almost besting Vogue in a blind flight of Musigny 1969s; managing to guess an 1893 Yquem blind (well, my first guess was 1929), my first tasting note on 1847 Yquem (yes, awesome!!), 1978 Montrachet DRC besting Ramonet by a nose, and Volnay Clos des Chenes Lafarge emerging on top of a group of big name red Burgundies from the 1978 vintage—tasted blind, of course, otherwise how could THAT have happened?

The range of Burgundies on offer here is staggering – from mid-twentieth century Marey Monge bottlings to a plethora of young whites and reds, all prime candidates to lock away in the cellar. All of the top producers of white Burgundy are represented, often in staggering quantities, including a selection from the 2005 vintage.

LAFON

Jules Lafon is known not only for being a successful lawyer but also enhancing the substantial vineyard holdings which his wife Marie Boch inherited with a lovely parcel of Montrachet. Perhaps the greatest of Jules Lafon's achievements was the creation of the Paulée, the last and infinitely the most enjoyable of the three gastronomic festivities which surround the Hospices de Beaune auction. In 1923, being mayor of Meursault, he had the idea of reviving the traditional end-of-harvest meal when the owner celebrates the vintage with his workers. Lafon invited thirty-five of his friends to a small feast. Today some 600 manage to squeeze their way in, each bearing an interesting old wine or three. It is the greatest bottle party in the world.

At the helm of this domaine currently is Dominique Lafon, one of the most talented winemakers in all Burgundy. Lafon vineyards tend to be harvested later than most. 'If you keep the yield low,' he says, 'you don't have to worry too much about the acidity. And I'd rather wait for the extra concentration.' Lafon wines are made to last. The vinification and élevage processes are not rushed, and the wine for the most part left to develop in its own way. The white wines are fermented in barrel (new oak for the Montrachet and premiers crus), kept on their fine lees in the very cold deep cellar, and racked only once after the post malolactic assemblage. They are fined but not filtered, and bottled twenty to twenty-two months after the vintage. This is one of the very few indisputably three-star (my top rating) white wine estates in Burgundy. A great domaine.

AN AMAZING OFFERING FROM THE CELLAR OF A FLORIDA COLLECTOR

Zachys Wine Auctions is excited to offer the following wines from this longtime customer. The consignor built an admirable collection through extensive purchases during the 80's. Nearly all of the wine was bought as futures through Zachys retail. They have been kept undisturbed in the same home wine cellar since delivery. The cellar is kept at a constant fifty-seven degrees and at least eighty percent humidity.

The consignment contains Bordeaux, Sauternes, Champagne, and Port gems. Of the many Bordeaux highlights, there are individual lots of each of the Big Eight 1982. You will also find La Mission Haut Brion 1982, Haut Brion 1989, and Latour 1990 all in original wood cases.

Sauternes, Premier Cru Superieur bottom neck

"...stands up to all the hype—unforgettable for its purity, elegance, harmony, its 'total' everything. Powerful, yet it seems weightless on the palate, almost defying gravity as it tangoes around with its vanilla, peach and apricot flavors. Seamless, nearly endless finish. ### BURGUNDY

LA TACHE DOMAINE DE LA ROMANEE CONTI 1966

*Cote de Nuits, Grand Cru
4cm*

"Glorious in 1992 and three notes since: superb, assertive, 'vast and tannic' at Prince Rupert Lowenstein's in 1996, and early the following year, within a day of each other in New York, a slightly woody, tannic bottle brought to a restaurant for lunch but not given enough time to open up. A fully mature-looking hefty, spicy, sweet and powerful bottle from Tawfiq Khoury's cellar, with quite a bite and remarkable acidity...★★★★★." MB 2/97.

1110 1 bottle per lot $3000-4500

LA TACHE DOMAINE DE LA ROMANEE CONTI 1985

*Cote de Nuits, Grand Cru
1.5cm*

"A great wine, and an obvious cellar trophy...Last tasted with Drs. Didizian and Stein in Philadelphia, 1999. Deep violet color. The nose was resplendently rich and immediately forward, redolent of plums and cherries, sweet, smoky and gamey. The palate was rich and still moderately tannic with trademark DRC flavors of stalk and prominent citric acidity, and a hint of tea. The very long expansive finish was accented by back-of-palate aromas of dried plums and apricots. Outstanding." FH.

PREMIER OLD WORLD WINES FOCUSING ON RHONE AND BURGUNDY

This selection of tantalizing Rhone and Burgundy wines, both red and white, shows the breadth of this collector's knowledge of producers and vintages. In addition to the Domaine de la Romanee Conti, Burgundy greats such as Girardin, Jadot, Leroy, Liger-Belair, Lafon, and Domaine Leflaive are well represented. Rhone giants Brunel, Guigal and Chapoutier also stand out and a vein of fine Italian wines caps off the consignment. Many lots are solid case quantities and bottle conditions are generally pristine. These wines were largely acquired on release or at auction and were removed from climate controlled storage for this sale.

CHARMES CHAMBERTIN DOMINIQUE LAURENT 1995Cote de Nuits, Grand Crutwo 6-pack original cartons*

"Laurent's dark-ruby colored Charmes-Chambertin reveals a port-like nose of super-ripe fruits and white pepper. It is a beautifully crafted, elegant, sweet cherry-packed, supple wine with touches of vanilla, Asian spices and violets for additional complexity...91-94." WA 6/97.

1119 12 bottles per lot $600-900

MAZIS CHAMBERTIN DOMINIQUE LAURENT 1995Cote de Nuits, Grand Crutwo scuffed labels*

"Very impressive. Thick and unctuous, this huge, powerful, unfiltered and unfined Pinot Noir will need a decade or more, although it already shows deep concentration of plum, spice, mocha red- and blackberry character. Clearly oaky, but who cares? There is so much pure fruit, and the tannins are amazingly ripe and velvety. Brilliant winemaking...98." WA 8/98.

1121 12 bottles per lot $900-1300

CHARMES CHAMBERTIN DENIS BACHELET 1996Cote de Nuits, Grand Cruone glue-stained label*

"...combination of power and finesse with elegant, almost completely primary pinot fruit and flavors underpinned by slightly edgy tannins and very nice length. This is delicious yet entirely serious as the structure coupled with the acidity and mid-palate density will permit this to age over the medium term...90." Burghound 10/06.

1122 6 bottles per lot $500-750

CLOS DE LA ROCHE HUBERT LIGNIER 1996Cote de Nuits, Grand Cru*

"Scents of gravel, earth, violets, perfume, jammy blueberries, cassis liqueur, black cherries, and hints of road tar... velvety-textured, full-bodied, and magnificently concentrated wine. Candied cherries, stones, rosemary, spicy oak, Asian spices, and hints of chocolate can be found in this blockbuster's powerful yet graceful flavor profile and substantial finish. Armed with virtually perfect balance and harmony, an amazing depth of fruit, and copious quantities of seamless, satin-textured tannins...94-96." WA 8/98.
