FESTIVAL LISTENING GUIDE
by Mrs. Drinda Frenzel
Southern California Vocal Association

1. Does the choir have good posture, breath support and voice production? Is the kind of choral tone appropriate to the selection (bright, strident, dark, breathy, open, etc.)?

2. How well does the group sing in tune (intonation)? Are intervals and chords lined up properly?

3. How well do the voices blend (uniform tone qualities) within and between sections? Are vowels uniform?

4. Do the sections sing in balance with each other so that important parts are clearly heard?

5. Is the choir accurate and precise in their attacks, releases, correctness of notes and rhythms?

6. Are all parts of the words correctly pronounced? Are all consonants clear? Are all vowels well-shaped (diction)?

7. Do the dynamics, tempo, and phrasing of the selection seem varied and interesting enough to bring the piece to life?

8. Does the choir sing with real expression and vitality and communicate the meaning of the text (regardless of tempo)?

9. How well does the ensemble watch and respond to the director? Do any individuals distract the audience from the music before, during or after the performance? Does the choir sincerely reflect the meaning of the text on their faces?

10. Does the overall discipline and deportment of the choir, on and off stage, reflect a professional musical attitude?

The UNLV Choral Ensembles maintain an active schedule of performances each year and enjoy a reputation for excellent performances throughout the southwest and beyond. The choirs recently were praised for a concert described as “...glorious, yet disciplined. The choruses performed with unaffected charisma.” Under the direction of David B. Weiller and Jocelyn K. Jensen, the choirs (University Concert Singers, Chamber Chorale, Varsity Men, Women’s Chorus) present several concerts annually on the university campus and in the greater Las Vegas community. Annual tours have encompassed the southwestern United States as well as Hawaii, New York, Mexico and Canada. Past concert highlights include holiday performances with the world-renowned Boston Pops Esplanade Orchestra conducted by Keith Lockhart and participation in a massed choir performance in New York City’s Carnegie Hall.

University choirs have been honored with invited performances for western region and state conventions of the Music Educators National Conference (MENC) and western division conventions of the American Choral Directors Association (ACDA) in Honolulu and Los Angeles. The choirs have performed major works with the Mexico National Symphony in Mexico City, the Nevada Symphony Orchestra, the Las Vegas Philharmonic and the University Symphony Orchestra.

The university choirs have appeared in numerous fully staged productions in collaboration with UNLV Opera Theatre. On a lighter note, the choirs have presented concerts of classic musical theatre repertoire, including a concert version of George Gershwin’s Pulitzer Prize-winning musical, Of Thee I Sing. Choir members sang in Barbra Streisand’s Millennial New Year’s concerts in Las Vegas, appeared with composer-songwriter Marvin Hamlisch, performed with popular singer Linda Eder and appeared at the opening of the new Wynn Resort.

The UNLV Choral Ensembles also sponsor an active student chapter of the American Choral Directors Association (ACDA), which hosted the 1993, 1996 and 2000 Western Division Student Symposia at UNLV.

The UNLV Choral Ensembles are supported by an outstanding faculty of artist-scholars in the Department of Music that includes voice faculty members Alfonse Anderson, Luana DeVol, Tod Fitzpatrick, Michelle Latour, Arsenia Soto Brickley and emeritus professor Carol Kimball.
