I Am In Need of Music .................................................. David L. Brunner

(b.1953)

Acclaimed as a dynamic conductor, inspired teacher and imaginative composer, David Brunner's music has been performed worldwide by choirs of all ages. Dr. Brunner is professor of music and director of choral activities at the University of Central Florida. I Am In Need of Music is dedicated to the memory of David Nott, director of choral activities at Illinois Wesleyan University from 1964-1995.

I am in need of music that would flow
Over my fretful, feeling finger-tips,
Over my bitter-tainted, trembling lips,
With melody, deep, clear, and liquid-slow.
Oh, for the healing swaying, old and low,
Of some song, sung to rest the tired dead,
A song to fall like water on my head,
And over quivering limbs, dream flushed to glow!

There is a magic made by melody:
A spell of rest, and quiet breath, and cool
Heart, that sinks through fading colors deep
To the subaqueous stillness of the sea,
And floats forever in a moon-green pool,
Held in the arms of rhythm and of sleep.
(Elizabeth Bishop, 1911-1979)

Exultate Deo ................................................................. Francis Poulenc

(1899-1963)

This sparkling and exuberant motet by the French master was composed in 1941. Many of Poulenc’s most noticeable stylistic traits are readily apparent: short phrases separated by brief rests, intense rhythmic energy, dramatic dynamic contrasts, and a sweetness of melody combined with ever-present pungent harmonies.

Exultate Deo adjutori nostro, Jubilate Deo Jacob.
Sumer psalmim, et date tympanum
Psalterium jucundum cum cithara
Buccinate in neomenia tuba
Insigni die solemnitatis vestrae.

Rejoice greatly to God our helper,
Shout for joy to the God of Jacob.
Take up a psalm, and bring the timbrel and the sweet psaltery with the harp,
Blow the trumpet in the new moon,
On the notable day of your solemnity.

Ave Domine, Jesu Christe ................................................. Cristóbal de Morales

(c. 1500-1553)

This meditative motet from the Spanish Renaissance is notable for its simplicity and beautiful melodies. The musical motives enhance the quiet emotionalism of the text, particularly lumen caeli (light of the world), fons pietatis (fount of piety) and the cascading phrases of gaudium nostrum (our joy).

Ave, Domine Jesu Christe, rex benedicte,
lumen caeli, praetium mundi.

Hail, Lord Jesus Christ, blessed king,
light of heaven, ransom of the world.

Agnus Dei, salus mundi, hostia sacra.
Verbum caro factum, fons pietatis.

Lamb of God, salvation of the world, holy sacrifice.
Word made flesh, fount of piety.

Ave, Domine Jesu Christe, rex benedicte,
lumen caeli, praetium mundi.

Hail, Lord Jesus Christ, blessed king,
light of heaven, ransom of the world.

gaudium nostrum, panis angelorum cordis nubilis, rex et sponsus virginitatis.

our joy, bread of angels, ready of heart, king and bridegroom of virginity.
The coolin (from Reincarnations) ................................................... Samuel Barber
(1910-1981)

The word coolin refers to a lock of hair that grew on a young girl's neck and came to be used as a term of endearment for one's sweetheart. Irish poet James Stephens adapted his text from an old Irish poem by Anthony Raferty, the last of the great blind harpists. Stephens wrote: "I sought to represent that state which is almost entirely a condition of dream wherein the passion of love has almost overreached itself and is sinking into a motionless languor." Barber's setting of the cycle contains three poems, composed during 1936-1940 but not performed until 1949 by an octet of singers in the Juilliard Summer Concert series.

Come with me, under my coat,
And we will drink our fill
Of the milk of the white goat,
Or wine if it be thy will.

But an eye to look into an eye;
And a hand in a hand to slip;
And a sigh to answer a sigh;
And a lip to find out a lip!

And we will talk, until Talk is a trouble, too,
Out on the side of the hill;
And nothing is left to do,

What if the night be black!
Or the air on the mountain chill!
Where the goat lies down in her track,
And all but the fern is still!

Stay with me, under my coat!
And we will drink our fill
Of the milk of the white goat,
Out on the side of the hill!

James Stephens (1882-1950)

Go, Lovely Rose! ................................................................. Brian Myer
Conducted by the composer
(b. 1988)

The UNLV Chamber Chorale has performed a setting of Edmund Waller's famous lyric poem each season for over twenty years. Past performances include settings by Willard Fast, Sven Lekberg, K. Lee Scott, Halsey Stevens, Mark Henderson and David Montoya, as well as premiere performances of settings by Eric Whitacre, Greg A. Lapp, David Cheetham and Theodor Duda. The poem beckons the ever-shy rose of love and true friendship to reveal itself and share its beauty, even in the desert. Thus, Go, Lovely Rose! also mirrors the life cycle of our own choral ensemble in the desert with its closing words, "How small a part of time they share, that are so wondrous sweet and fair!" UNLV music major Brian Myer composed his setting last year; it is dedicated to the UNLV Chamber Chorale in honor of Professor Weiller's twenty-fifth anniversary at the university.

Go, lovely rose,
Tell her that wastes her time and me,
That now she knows,
When I resemble to thee,
How sweet and fair she seems to be.

Small is the worth
Of beauty from the light retired
Bid her come forth,
Suffer herself to be desired,
And not blush so to be admired.

Tell her that's young
And shuns to have her graces spied.
That hadst thou sprung
In deserts where no men abide,
Thou must have uncommended died.

Then die, that she
The common fate of all things rare
May read in thee,
How small a part of time they share
That are so wondrous sweet and fair!

(Edmund Waller, 1606-1687)

Guest Student Soloists

Glitter and Be Gay (from Candide) ........................................... Leonard Bernstein

Christina Douglas, soprano  Michelle Lee, pianist
(1918-1990)
Ma rendi pur contento

EDWIN COTTON, tenor

Ma rendi pur contento
della mia bella il core,
e ti perdono, amore,
se lieto il mio non è.

GLI AFFANNI SUOI PAVENTO
più degli affanni miei, perché più vivo in lei di quel ch’io vivo in me.

VINCENZO BELLINI

(1801-1835)

Only make happy
the heart of my beautiful lady, and I will pardon you, love if my own heart is not glad.

Her troubles I fear
more than my own troubles, because I live more in her than I live in myself.

Je veux vivre (from Romeo et Juliette)

CECILIA LÓPEZ, soprano

Ah! Je veux vivre dans le rêve qui m'enivre ce jour encor!
Douce flamme, je te garde dans mon âme comme un trésor!

CETTE INCREUSE DE JEUNESSE
ne dure, hélas! qu'un jour.
Puis vient l'heure où l'on pleure; Le cœur cède à l'amour,
et le bonheur fuis sans retour!

KANAKO YAMAZAKI, pianist

Ah! Je veux vivre dans le rêve qui m'enivre longtemps encor!
Loin de l'hiver morose
laisse-moi sommeiller et respirer la rose avant de l'effeuiller.

CHARLES GOUNOD

(1818-1893)

Ah! I want to live in the dream which still intoxicates me on this day!
Gentle flame, I keep you in my soul as a treasure!

This rapture of youth only lasts, alas, for a day.
After that comes the hour when one weeps;
the heart gives way to love,
and happiness flies away, never to return!

Ah! I want to live in the dream, which intoxicates me, for a long time still!
For from gloomy winter
let me slumber and inhale the rose before shedding it of its petals.

Ah! Gentle flame, stay in my soul
as a sweet treasure for a long time still!

Vilja-Lied (from Die lustige Witwe)

ISABELLA IVY, soprano

MICHELLE LEE, pianist

FRANZ LEHÁR

(1870-1948)

Es lebt' eine Vilja, ein Waldmägdelein,
Ein Jäger erschaust' sie im Felsenge Stein!
Dem Burschen, dem wurde so eigen zu Sinn, Er schaut' and schaut' auf das Waldmägdelein hin.
Und ein nie gekannter Schauer faßt
den jungen Jägersmann; Sehnsuchtsvoll fing er still zu seufzen an:

Vilja, o Vilja, du Waldmägdelein,
Fah' mich und laß mich dein Trautliebster sein.
Vilja, o Vilja, was tust du mir an?
Bang fleht ein liebkranker Mann!

There once lived a Vilja, a forest maid;
a hunter espied her 'midst the rocky crags!
A strange feeling overcame the youth,
He looked in trepidation at the forest maid.
And a quite unknown agitation seized
the young huntsman;
He began to sigh, softly and with yearning:

"Vilja, o Vilja, you forest maid,
Embrace me, and let me be your truest love.
Vilja, o Vilja, what do you do to me?
A lovesick man longingly implores you!"
Das Waldmägdlein streckte die Hand nach ihm aus
Und zog ihn hinein in ihr felsiges Haus;
Dem Burschen die Sinne vergangen fast sind,
So liebt und so küßt gar kein irdisches Kind.
Als sie sich dann sattgeküßt verschwand sie zu derselben Frist!
Einmal noch hat der Arme sie gegrüßt:

Vilja, o Vilja, du Waldmägdelein...

The forest maid stretched out her hand to him
And drew him into her stony home;
The youth all but lost his senses,
No earthly child loved and kissed in that way.
When the kisses had sated her,
she all at once vanished!
The hapless boy bid her greeting once more:

"Vilja, o Vilja, you forest maid..."

The Heavens Are Telling the Glory of God (from The Creation) ................. Joseph Haydn
Daniella Toscano, soprano  Emmanuel Mojica, tenor  Randy Hughes, bass  (1732-1809)
Based upon texts from Genesis as well as Milton’s Paradise Lost, Haydn’s monumental oratorio, The Creation, received its premiere performance in 1798 and was one of the most frequently performed classical oratorios throughout the following century. An ebullient chorus, “The heavens are telling,” concludes Part I of the oratorio and features a trio of soloists as archangels: Gabriel (soprano), Uriel (tenor) and Raphael (bass).

The heavens are telling the glory of God.
The wonder of his work displays the firmament.
The day that is coming speaks to the day,
The night that is gone to following night.
In all the lands resounds the word,
Never unperceived, ever understood.

Bogoroditse Devo, raduysa (from The All-Night Vigil, Op. 37) .... Sergei Vassilievich Rachmaninoff (1873-1943)
The All-Night Vigil, composed in 1915, contains some of Rachmaninoff’s most beloved sacred music. Bogoroditse Devo, raduysa is the sixth of fifteen movements; while freely composed, it is reminiscent of the beautiful and austere melodies of ancient orthodox chants.

Bogoroditse Devo, raduysa
Blagodatnaya Maria, Gospod s Toboyu.
Blagoslovenna Ti v zhenah,
i blagosloven plod chreva Tvojego.
yako Spasa rodila yesi dush nashih.

Virgin Mary, Mother of God, rejoice,
Holy Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with Thee.
Blessed art Thou among women,
and blessed is the fruit of Thy womb,
for thou hast given birth to the Savior of our souls.

Ode to Joy (An die Freude) ...................... Z. Randall Stroope
Ode to Joy is a musical expression of the intense, unconfined outpouring of a satisfied life. It is a dance of a spirit at peace with itself, and it invokes joy as the daughter of Elysium (Paradise), the son of fire, the kiss of a heavenly god, and the sustainer of all living creatures. The text is based upon Friedrich Schiller’s “An die Freude,” which is identified primarily with the final movement of Beethoven’s Ninth Symphony. Z. Randall Stroope is one of the most active choral conductors and composers working today. His compositions are performed regularly by esteemed ensembles throughout the world, including professional ensembles in France, Holland, Hong Kong, Spain, Japan, Australia, the Czech Republic, and Canada. He is the director of choral activities at Oklahoma State University in Stillwater.

H.M.S. Pinafore, Act I Finale ..................... W.S. Gilbert & Arthur Sullivan
RALPH RACKSTRAW, a lowly sailor in love with Josephine ............ Joey Nicosia, tenor JOSEPHINE, the Captain’s daughter .................. Elizabeth Rasmussen, soprano
DICK DEADEYE, a villainous scoundrel .................. Brian Myer, baritone COUSIN HEBE, ringleader of the sisters, cousins and aunts ....... Pier Lammia Porter, soprano
BILL BOBSTAY, Boatswain’s mate .................... Ben Lunn, bass
Gilbert and Sullivan collaborated on fourteen operas in the 25-year period from 1871 to 1896. H.M.S. Pinafore, or The Lass That Loved a Sailor, premiered in 1878 and remains one of the most popular of G&S operas today. In the Act I Finale, brokenhearted Ralph Rackstraw is about to end his life because his love for Josephine has been haughtily rejected. Josephine changes her mind at the eleventh hour, and scowling Dick Deadeye predicts doom and gloom as the young couple plans their elopement. The entire scene is served up by the ensemble of sailors, “sisters, cousins and aunts” in a tasty stew of satire, melodrama and frolicsome fun.

University Choral Ensembles

The UNLV CHORAL ENSEMBLES maintain an active schedule of appearances each year and enjoy a reputation for excellent performances throughout the southwest and beyond. The choirs recently were praised for a concert described as “...glorious, yet disciplined. The choruses performed with unaffected charisma.” Under the direction of David B. Weiller and Jocelyn K. Jensen, the choirs (University Concert Singers, Chamber Chorale, Varsity Men’s Glee Club and Women’s Chorus) present several concerts annually on the university campus and in the greater Las Vegas community. Annual tours have encompassed the southwestern United States as well as Hawaii, New York, Mexico and Canada. Past concert highlights include holiday performances with the world-renowned Boston Pops Esplanade Orchestra conducted by Keith Lockhart and participation in a massed choir performance in New York City’s Carnegie Hall.

University choirs have been honored with invited performances for western region and state conventions of the Music Educators National Conference (MENC) and western division conventions of the American Choral Directors Association (ACDA) in Honolulu and Los Angeles. The choirs have performed major works with the Mexico National Symphony in Mexico City, the Nevada Symphony Orchestra, the Las Vegas Philharmonic and the University Symphony Orchestra. Major works presented include Bach Magnificat and Christmas Oratorio (Part I), Vivaldi Gloria, Handel Messiah, Mozart Requiem and Coronation Mass, Beethoven Symphony #9 and Choral Fantasy, Brahms Ein Deutsches Requiem, Mahler Symphony #2, Orff Carmina Burana, Vaughan Williams Dona Nobis Pacem, Honegger King David, Bloch Sacred Service (excerpts) and Bernstein Chichester Psalms.

The university choirs have appeared in numerous fully staged productions in collaboration with UNLV Opera Theatre, including Gluck Orfeo ed Euridice, Mozart The Magic Flute, Offenbach La Perichole, Puccini La Bohème, Gilbert & Sullivan H.M.S. Pinafore and Patience, Strauss Die Fledermaus, Mascagni Cavalleria Rusticana and Lehár The Merry Widow. On a lighter note, the choirs have presented concerts of classic musical theatre repertoire, including a concert version of George Gershwin’s Pulitzer Prize-winning musical, Of Thee I Sing. Choir members sang in Barbra Streisand's Millennial New Year's concerts in Las Vegas, appeared with composer-songwriter Marvin Hamlisch, performed with popular singer Linda Eder and appeared at the opening of the new Wynn Resort.

The UNLV Choral Ensembles sponsor a student chapter of the American Choral Directors Association (ACDA), which hosted the 1993, 1996 and 2000 Western Division Student Symposia on the UNLV campus. The choirs are supported by an outstanding faculty of artist-scholars in the Department of Music that includes voice faculty members Alfonse Anderson, Luana DeVol, Tod Fitzpatrick, Ruth Jacobson, Michelle Latour, Arsenio Soto and emeritus professor Carol Kimball.
