CHAPARRAL HIGH SCHOOL EXPRESSIONS

THE EXPRESSIONS are an auditioned mixed vocal ensemble of 28 talented singers from Chaparral High School. This singing group performs a cappella choral literature in the Las Vegas community each year, and they perform at Chaparral for many athletic events and student activities. This year, the Chaparral Expressions collaborated with the UNLV Dance department in a performance of Eric Whitacre's "Seal lullaby" for UNLV’s fall dance recital; they performed in December at the Clark County Government Building for their "Sounds of the Season" cable TV broadcast; they performed for the Christmas Tree Lighting at Sam's Town, and most recently appeared in concert with the Las Vegas Master Singers.

BARRY D. ISBELL is in his third year as the Director of Choirs at Chaparral High School, where he conducts four choirs and also teaches piano and guitar. Mr. Isbell has been teaching vocal music in Clark County for the past twelve years; he was at Durango High School for nine years prior to coming to Chaparral. Barry Isbell served two years as Secretary for the Nevada Music Educators Association and currently is serving as President-Elect for the Nevada chapter of the American Choral Directors Association. Barry is the Minister of Music at Advent United Methodist Church in Las Vegas, and has serve there for eight years. Whenever he is not making music at school or in church, Barry enjoys time at home with his two sons, Noah and Elijah.

The UNLV CHORAL ENSEMBLES maintain an active schedule of appearances each year and enjoy a reputation for excellent performances throughout the southwest and beyond. The choirs recently were praised for a concert described as "...glorious, yet disciplined. The choruses performed with unaffected charisma." Under the direction of David B. Weiller and Jocelyn K. Jensen, the choirs (University Concert Singers, Chamber Chorale, Varsity Men’s Glee Club and Women’s Chorus) present several concerts annually on the university campus and in the greater Las Vegas community. Past concerts include performances with the world renowned Boston Pops Esplanade Orchestra and participation in a massed choir performance in New York City’s Carnegie Hall.

University choirs have presented major works with the Mexico National Symphony in Mexico City, the Las Vegas Philharmonic, the Nevada Symphony Orchestra, and the University Symphony Orchestra. The UNLV Chamber Chorale has performed by invitation at western region and state conferences of the National Association for Music Education (NAfME) and at western division conferences of the American Choral Directors Association (ACDA). The university choirs have appeared in numerous fully staged productions in collaboration with UNLV Opera Theatre, and, on a lighter note, the singers have presented several concerts of classic musical theatre repertoire. For further information about the UNLV Choral Ensembles, visit our website: <http://music.unlv.edu/ensembles>

DAVID B. WEILLER, Associate Professor of Music, celebrates 29 years as Director of Choral Studies at UNLV. Under his leadership the university choral ensembles enjoy a reputation for vibrant performances. Professor Weiller currently conducts the Concert Singers, Chamber Chorale and Varsity Men’s Glee Club. He teaches related courses in choral conducting, literature and pedagogy, and he plays an active role in furthering quality choral performances throughout the school district and community. He is a recipient of the UNLV William Morris Award for Excellence in Teaching and the UNLV Alumni Association’s Distinguished Faculty Award. Many of his former students are successful music teachers across the country.

David Weiller has appeared as a guest conductor of the Las Vegas Philharmonic and the Nevada Symphony Orchestra in major works for chorus and orchestra. During his career he has conducted over sixty stage productions at the university and as a principal conductor for the College Light Opera Company on Cape Cod, one of the most respected educational theatre companies in the country, where he conducts the Gilbert & Sullivan canon, Viennese and early American operettas, and Broadway classics.

Professor Weiller holds an A.B. degree in music from Occidental College in Los Angeles and the M.M. degree in choral music from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. Additional intensive studies took place at California State University, Fullerton; the Oregon Bach Festival; Westminster Choir College, the University of Oklahoma; the University of Nevada-Reno and Carnegie Mellon University. His teaching mentors include James A. Young, Drinda Frenzel, Thomas Somerville, Harold Decker, Dennis Shrock and Rodney Eichenberger.

The UNLV Choral Ensembles express their heartfelt appreciation to the Las Vegas Master Singers and Dr. Jocelyn K. Jensen for their vision and commitment in establishing THE SUSAN L. JOHNSON SCHOLARSHIP FOR CHORAL STUDIES, an endowed fund that provides ongoing support of talented choral musicians at UNLV.
