UNLV VS STATE COLLEGE OF ARKANSAS

By Dominic Clark
UNLV Sports Information Director

KEN STEPHENS
SCA Coach

Phase II in the growth and development of University of Nevada, Las Vegas football kickoff tonight as Rebel head coach Ron Meyer begins his first season with 22 returning lettermen, 30 freshmen and 24 junior college transfers.

Meeting for the first time in the history of either school, UNLV will start five players on each unit who were on last year's team against the Bears.

The Rebels, 1-10 last year, will start eight seniors, eight juniors, five sophomores and one freshman against an SCA team, 2-7-1 a year ago, that has 56 freshmen on a squad of 83.

This will be the second season for SCA coach Ken Stephens and both head mentors are anticipating a "jam-up" game with defense being the real key to victory. Rebel team captains for 1973 are Lenny Lucas and Steve Henry.

The 1973 UNLV team will have three necessary ingredients for success that not one of the other five Rebel teams to date had to such a high degree. This squad is the biggest, the fastest and has more depth than any previous Rebel squad. Meyer started with 96 candidates on August 17 and after two weeks of two-a-day drills and another week of single practices each day, 81 players have passed the test and earned the right to represent UNLV on the gridiron.

Tonight is Rebel senior safety Mike Brock's 22nd birthday . . . Some of the new faces in the Rebel lineup to watch tonight include Cliff Conedy, Perry Dorsey, Mike Dye, Mark Green, Joe Ingersoll, Lucas, Sam Montoya, Jesse Roberts, and Mike Thomas.

UNLV is committed to success and tonight begins a new era of excellence for the Rebels.

This is the official University of Nevada, Las Vegas Rebels football program, published by the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics for all home games. It is printed by American Printing, 1514 East Fremont, Las Vegas, and represented for national advertising by: Spencer Marketing Services, 370 Lexington Avenue, New York, N. Y. 10017

The Best Of Trivia

BY TERRY SHONKWILER
Publicity Director — Showboat Hotel

One of the toughest trivia questions in sports is: "How was the game of baseball invented?" Well, there's no answer because no one really knows for sure.

The question has baffled experts for years. In fact, in 1907 a special committee of officials was named to determine the origins of baseball. After their "investigation", they decided that Abner Doubleday had laid out the first field and organized the first baseball game in 1839 in Cooperstown, N. Y. For that reason Cooperstown was selected as the site for the Hall of Fame which was opened in 1939 -- on the supposed 100th anniversary of baseball.

But that 1907 committee couldn't have been more off base. Later historians discovered that at the time Doubleday was thought to be inventing baseball in Cooperstown he was actually a cadet at West Point. Furthermore there was some doubt that he had ever even played the game!

It is now generally agreed that the sport evolved early in the 1800's from cricket and another English game, rounders, which used posts for bases and had a batter who punched the ball and was put out only by being hit with the thrown ball. There were other variations known as "Town Ball" and the "New York Game."

The man now credited with creating the modern form of baseball was Alexander Cartwright. Cartwright was a surveyor by trade and also a member of the Knickerbocker Baseball Club. He was given the job of laying out a field and devising rules of play. Cartwright placed the bases 90 feet apart, set up foul lines, settled on nine players (there had been an unlimited number on each side) to a team and three outs to an inning. He then decreed three strikes to a batter and added a rule that a base runner could not be put out by throwing the ball at him.

Cartwright laid down these basic rules, but it was nearly 50 years later before baseball was played the way we know it today. Pitchers were at first allowed only to throw underhand. The "pitchers box" was 46 feet from home plate. And it wasn't until 1887 that a batter could no longer call for a high or low pitch! And at one time nine balls were needed to walk a batter, the number gradually decreasing until the four-ball rule was out into effect in 1889.

In the 1890's the custom of the umpire raising his right arm for a strike started. It was necessitated by Bill "Dummy" Hoy who played for St. Louis and who was a deaf mute. Since he couldn't hear the umpire's call when he was batting, the umpires began using arm gestures to tell him the count.

Introducing the 1974 Chevelle Malibu Classic.
 Luxury just stopped being a spectator sport.

That's right. This is a 1974 Chevelle. The brand-new Malibu Classic.
 Which means that now you can do a whole lot more than look at luxury cars in football programs. You can participate. At any Chevrolet dealer's.
 All this, for the price of a Chevelle.

Chevrolet. Building a better way to see the U.S.A.

A Fan's Glossary

BY JOHN MOSER
R-J Sportswriter

Football season would be a lot easier to get along with for the average fan if he understood the intricate language of the game.

Here, the Review-Journal's irrepressible John Moser attempts to set that fan straight with a handy glossary of the more commonly-used -- yet oft-misunderstood -- terms of the national passtime.

If, after reading through the following glossary you find yourself still confused about football, take up golf, Chinese Checkers or the martial arts.

TWO MINUTE WARNING -- What the Convention Authority gave Monsanto for replacing the faulty AstroTurf at Las Vegas Stadium.
SLOPPY GROUND GAME -- What the Rebels would have been forced to play at Butcher Field if Monsanto hadn't heeded the two-minute warning.

QUICK PITCH -- An enthusiastic Ron Meyer selling his "Las Vegas Way" to area fans.

SAFETY BLITZ -- A small Jewish Pastry with seatbelts.

STACKED DEFENSE -- What the ranch hand did after taking the corral apart.

TAILBACK KEEPER -- Armed guard who protects cage which houses growling, animal-like ground-gainer.

OFFENSIVE LINE -- "Ref, you no good +$+%-&'+*!"

INCOMPLETE PASS -- Quarterback being slapped by a cheerleader at a party after the game.

UNSPORTSMANLIKE CONDUCT -- Quarterback slapping cheerleader right back.

TOUCHDOWN DRIVE -- What Jack Nicklaus would do if he teed up on the opposite goal line.

AGGRESSIVE TACKLE -- Rod and reel that bites.

CRUCIAL PLAY -- "Pygmalion"

QUARTERBACK DIVE -- "Bachelors III" in New York City.

FUMBLED SNAP -- Newspaper photographer missing key play when he had camera pointed in wrong direction.

TRIVIA ANSWERS . . .

1. Ted Williams of the Boston Red Sox hit .406 in 1941.
2. Harold "Red" Grange of the University of Illinois.
3. Oklahoma State University in 1945-46. The Cowboys were led by All American Bob Kurland.
4. James Figg of England in the 1700's who retired undefeated.
5. The Boston Bruins of 1924.
6. George Mikan of the Minneapolis Lakers.
7. The first mention of a woman golfer in history was Mary Queen of Scots in 1552.
8. Two. Don Budge in 1938 and Rod Laver in 1962.
9. The modern version of the Olympics began in 1896 after being organized by Frenchman Pierre de Coubertin.
10. Dick Weber with 23 career victories on the PBA tour.

BY MARK HUGHES
Information Director

It's going to be a busy fall for the Office of Conferences and Institutes at UNLV. That means it's also going to be an interesting time of the year for the thousands of Las Vegas residents who enroll in the many special-interest classes that Conferences and Institutes will be sponsoring soon in the community.

This fall, more than 50 non-credit courses -- offered at minimal cost to the participants - will be instructed on the kinds of topics that have proved to be popular with a lot of Southern Nevadans. Like gardening in the arid, desert soil. Or painting in oil, jogging, photography and bicycling.

Here is a listing of some of the classes designed for all kinds of people - young and old - that will begin this month and next on the UNLV campus. Contact Conferences and Institutes at 739-3396 for complete details on any one of them.

College Rules Keep Pace with Game

by DAVID M. NELSON, Secretary-Editor, NCAA Football Rules Committee

There are some sports watchers who believe that the NCAA has a two-front offensive underway, one with the AAU and the other with professional sports. The offensive aimed at the pros is based on the NCAA constitutional provision that there must be a clear demarcation between college athletics and professional sports. Nowhere does the demarcation stand out more than in the differences in the football rules of the two groups.

Many Changes

The college game continues to be a dynamic, exciting contest catalyzed by rules changes that adapt to the cycles of the sport which are created by the increased speed, size and greater skills of the players. There are 180 changes listed for the last 15 years, covering everything from the scoring, (two-point conversion), the size of the goal posts (23' 4"), the timing of the game (starting and stopping the clock), a prohibition against blocking below the waist and at least one adjustment in each of the ten basic rules.

While keeping the game alive with innovative changes the NCAA and the National High School Federation have marched to the same drummer, making 73 changes in the last seven years to bring the two codes closer together. There have been very few rule changes in professional football since 1959. The only significant ones in 13 years were (1) the prohibition against grabbing the face mask, (2) the addition of the sixth official and (3) moving the hash marks 20 yards from the sideline. The demarcation between professional football and the college game was dramatically demonstrated by three games played on the West Coast last season. Take a look at the best of the two football worlds and see where the action is:

The National High School Federation and college football are not resting on their laurels and are annually adjusting their rules to the modern game. On the opposite page are the major NCAA changes in order of importance with capsule summaries in the turf handicapper's style.

The two most significant changes for 1973 are the substitution change and the permission given for each team to use its own ball. The change in the substitution rule to permit as many as eleven substitutes to enter the game while the ball is dead originated with the AFCA Football Rules Committee at their meeting in Chicago last January. The coaches have been clamoring for this completely free rule since 1965 when Rule 3-5-1 was changed to permit "platoon football."

Pleasant Surprise

After attempting without success for several years to get a more liberal rule, the coaches forgot about it. The sudden change came as a pleasant surprise to the coaching fraternity. The change will permit faster and smaller players to cover punts and will also permit faster, more agile players to rush the punt.

The officials will "burn a few barns" because they no longer have to check substitutes during the downs other than those where team possession changed. The Rules Committee was elated because three pages of nit-picking interpretations were deleted from the Official Rules Interpretations Book. Everybody seems happy, so the Rules Committee might have done something right for a change.

A change in the rule governing the type of ball that may be used in the game is another amendment that originated with the AFCA. Prior to the 1973 adjustment governing the type of ball used in the game, one brand or manufacture of ball meeting the rule specifications had to be used for the entire game. Coaches complained that one brand either felt different, spiraled differently, looked different, or had a peculiar odor; and these little things upset the passers and kickers so much they gave sub-par performances on the road. Previously, the home team had the choice of the ball to be used in a game.

Helium-Filled Ball?

The new rule raises several interesting questions including the violation of the old adage that you never allow an opponent to use his own ball,

Today's football officials are finding that they must hustle as much off the field as they do on, due to the ever-changing rules of the college game.

dice or cards. Also, it will be difficult to determine how many balls to take to a road game, especially if the visiting team scores six or seven touchdowns and kicks the conversions into the stands. Then there is the problem of handing a team a different ball when they are kicking out of their own end zone. This is the place you might get the one filled with helium or sand.

The Rules Committee is two for two with the coaches because of these changes. It pays to listen to the coaches who are usually right about one thing, i. e., how the game of football should be played.

The Latest Changes...

Rule Description

1-2-4 It is recommended that the area between the sideline and the limit line (6 feet) in the team area be marked solid white throughout.

Comment

This rule should keep people at the sideline from "stepping on the coaches' toes."

1-2-6 Eight flexible pylons of red or orange color (4" x 4" square x 18" high) must be used at the intersections of sidelines with goal lines and end lines (effective 1974 season).

With eight red pylons on the field, the dog who gets on the field will think he is in fire hydrant heaven.

1-3-2 During the entire game, either team may use a & ball of their choice when they are in possession. Int. Book

Using your own ball is almost as good as using your own dice or cards but you can't take your ball and go home.

1-4-4 Numbers at least 8 inches high on the front and 10 inches on the back of the jersey respectively must be worn. Ten inches in front and 12 inches in back are now legal.

Putting 12 inch numbers on 5'8" players is like putting Dick Butkus's jersey on Eddie LeBaron.

1-4-4 All players must wear securely fastened chin straps on their helmets.

This means the helmet can no longer go off without the head going with it and players won't lose their heads.

1-4-4 All players shall use an intraoral mouth protector composed of at least two portions, one an interocclusion portion and the other a labial portion.

There will be no evidence of teeth marks if a player bites an opponent.

1-4-5 Players with artificial arms, legs, or hands are (d) prohibited from playing.

Passers with glass arms are still legal and they get a break.

2-7-2 A valid fair catch signal is extending one hand and one arm above the head and waving them from side to side. (Interpretation: Shading the eyes is an invalid signal unless given before or after a valid fair catch signal.)

What happens if the signal is given from side to side with one hand while shading the eyes with the other?

3-5-1 Any number of eligible substitutes may enter the game between periods, after a score or try, or when the ball is dead during an interval between downs.

With this change, substitutes and officials will no longer be waving at each other during substitutions.

3-5-2 An incoming substitute must enter the game from (c) his team area, and a replaced player must leave the game at the sideline of his team area.

If you want to join the opposing team at their bench when things get rough, it can't be done.

4-1-3 When Team A catches an illegal forward pass in (c) Team B's end zone, or when Team A completes a pass in Team B's end zone to an ineligible player, the ball is dead.

This makes legal what officials have done for years and have been telling the Rules Committee to get it in the Rules.

4-1-2 If a whistle is sounded inadvertently when the & ball is free on a fumble, the ball is returned to the Int. spot of last possession and given to the team that Book had possession of the ball at that spot.

Gives the official an escape clause, so he does not have to swallow his whistle when he has blown it inadvertently.

5-1-3 The ball shall always be spotted with its length axis parallel to the sideline before measuring. The ball will be placed parallel with the sideline.

This means there will be no more measurements that are on the bias.
