Let a great team protect your family.

In the game of life, life insurance is the soundest way—often the only way—to guarantee that your family will be free of money worries if you should die.

The moment you own a policy, you've guaranteed them cash. For food and clothing. For paying off the mortgage. For schooling. You've guaranteed that your family's future is more secure.

And no one is better prepared than a New York Life Agent to help you provide this basic financial security for your family. Carefully chosen, thoroughly trained and experienced, New York Life Agents make a full-time career of guiding families and businesses like yours towards greater financial security.

UNLV TRAINING ROOM

Providing care and attempting dilligently to prevent all athletic injuries for the UNLV Rebels is the school's fine training room under the capable direction of Rodney Poindexter, beginning his fourth year with the program after graduating from North Carolina State University in 1971.

Quickly becoming one of the most valuable persons on the UNLV athletic staff, Poindexter has developed an extremely efficient operation enhanced by the co-operation of local physicians.

The Rebel team physician for nearly 10 years has been Dr. Thomas Armour who has donated countless hours of his time and ability to help the Rebel athletic program.

Also assisting greatly in the Rebel athletic program over the years has been Dr. Theodore Jacobs, who with Dr. Armour, was honored this past July as the "Nice Guy" award winners for 1975 by the University Rebels Club booster organization.

Helping Poindexter in the university's new training room complex at the Paul McDermott Physical Education Center are student assistants Mike Bernstein, Mike Bacca, Paul Lenae and Ron Nold. Nold, who is also the student-trainer for Valley High in Las Vegas, is in his second year with the Rebel training room, while the other three are all rookies.

Miss Joan Gillette is beginning her first full year as the UNLV trainer for Women's Athletics. She is a very qualified trainer from the State of Texas and will handle the four Women's intercollegiate sports as well as the training room for women students and faculty at UNLV.

TODAY'S GAME

Ron Meyer
UNLV Coach

Dick Gwinn
WSC Coach

The UNLV Rebels close the 1975 home season by meeting Weber State College, the first team ever to play the Rebels at the Las Vegas Stadium. That first game was in October of 1971 and the winds were so bad that Weber even attempted a 91 yard field goal in the third quarter.

The Rebels hope to end the home season on a winning note and the Wildcats are hungry for their first win of the season. UNLV is 5-4 for the season, following two consecutive wins, and the Wildcats are 0-8-1.

Weber and UNLV have several common opponents as the Rebels play nearly all of the Big Sky Conference teams, of which, Weber State is a member.

The Rebels and the Wildcats have each played Boise State, Montana, Idaho State, and the University of Idaho. Looking at the comparative scores, Boise beat UNLV 34-21 and Weber, 28-13; UNLV and Weber also both lost to Montana—UNLV 21-20 and Weber 48-12; and both schools lost to Idaho State, UNLV 15-7 and Weber 20-3.

By Dominic Clark
UNLV Sports Information Director

UNLV lost to Idaho 39-7, but, Weber, getting it together for the first time last weekend, tied the Vandals, 40-40, the highest scoring tie game in the history of the NCAA.

Weber State is a young team under third-year head coach Dick Gwinn and one talented senior is not a stranger to Las Vegas. Number 22 for the Wildcats, Don Reddic, was an all-conference star for Las Vegas High School, graduating in 1972.

Reddic is the leading rusher for Weber, a top pass receiver, and is the leading kickoff return man as well for the Wildcats. Reddic returned one kickoff for a 94 yard touchdown against Boise State this season.

Tonight will also be the final home game appearance for 13 Rebel seniors, who are all ending fine careers with the Scarlet and Gray.

Before the National Anthem, join with Dave Burton and sing the UNLV Fight Song:

On UNLV Fight,
Lifting our voices High;

with a conquering hand of might,
we raise our banner to the sky.

On UNLV fight,
Charging Triumphantly
Fight, UNLV, fight,
For Victory.

AND NOW, THE WEATHER. FAIR AND WARMER
WITH A MONTEZUMA SNOWBLAST LIKELY THIS EVENING.

What better way to follow up a lot of tough, strenuous football watching than with a cool, refreshing Montezuma Snowblast? You've never heard of a Montezuma Snowblast? Well, you can find out what it is by ordering one at your favorite watering hole. Or better yet, you can make one yourself, right in your own domicile.

Here's how.

To make a Montezuma Snowblast, you take a large amount of subzero altocumulus clouds—no, that's not it. Here it is.

Take 1½ ounces of that noblest of tequilas—Montezuma—and set it aside. Or drink it, and set another 1½ ounces aside. Then take 12 heaping ounces of ice, fill a glass with it, pour in Montezuma and fill up the glass with Fresca*, the tangy citrusy Thirst Quencher. Quetzalcoatli! You've got an authentic Montezuma

Snowblast ready to unleash on friend and foe alike.

This recipe is void where prohibited or otherwise restricted.

Get an authentic Montezuma Snowblast T-shirt. Just look for our display at your local store. Or send $2.95 (check or M.O. only) to Barton Brands, Dept. C, 200 S. Michigan Ave., Chicago, IL 60604. Indicate S, M, L, or XL. Offer good while supply lasts. Void in any state where prohibited or restricted.

Fresca, it puts out thirst.

Montezuma, the noblest tequila of them all.

UNLV SCENE

You shouldn't confuse ESP with the occult, supernatural or mysticism says Russ Burgess, who amazes audiences with a program of "live" extra-sensory perception.

Burgess can identify people in the audience by their initials; tell them things about themselves (often things that nobody else knew); and then answer their questions blindfolded.

He has predicted newspaper headlines; accurately called out people's social security numbers; and on one occasion told a woman she was pregnant—to the surprise of her husband who had not yet been informed of the event.

He claims a batting average of 85 percent in his predictions and offers a $10,000 challenge to anyone who can prove that he gets help in advance of his demonstration.

What is the irresistible lure of ESP? No other subject has aroused more curiosity, prompted more research and encouraged more experiments than the unexplained. Even the most die-hard skeptics have been impressed by Burgess. For 25 years he has been exploring ESP, has recorded two albums: Stop Smoking Today and Developing Your ESP Powers.

Sponsored by the Consolidated Students of UNLV, Burgess' lecture-demonstration will be at 8 pm November 20 in the Student Union Ballroom. Admission is $5 for the general public, faculty and staff; $3 for parttime students and alumni; and 50 cents for CSUN members.

Come out to the campus and see him. He'll boggle your mind.

Ride Our Rainbow, Half Price.

And in some cases, even less! For Senior Citizens, it's only 20¢ a ride with I.D. And there's the 10-ride Commuter Card for $3.35. That's only 33¢ a ride. Also, there's a new 6-token rate, which is only 40¢ per ride. So ride our rainbow. It's the best buy on wheels.

need it.

In 1512, Vasco Da Gama was searching for a quick route to India by way of Alaska. Da Gama was a robust man whose appetite for fine waffles was equalled only his thirst for the frenzy of his national dance, the Mambo. (He introduced the Mambo to the natives of Arizona, where it is still popular.)
Escaping from waffle-hungry gypsies in Miami, who were in search of the Golden Fleece, Da Gama led his men over the Alps on elephants. En route, they ate waffles at the truck stops and made it safely to India, arriving on January 1, 1517.

The International House of Pancakes honors Vasco by featuring Waffles on his day.

ONE MAN'S OPINION

By TOM DYE
L. V. Review Journal

After reading a recent summary of cliches utilized by sports writers, I feel compelled to write about my favorite cliches from the world of football coaches.

Like sports writers, coaches often have a tough time being original. A sports "scribe" (how's that for a cliché?) usually has to rack his brain (another cliché) seconds from deadline and the words "crunched," "slammed" and "battered" easily creep into his copy.

Coaches usually have a different reason for using cliches. The grid "pilot" doesn't want to say anything that might give away secrets and he certainly doesn't want to psyche up weak opponents by degrading them.

Thus, nearly all opponents turn out to be "powerful". Ever heard a coach describe an opponent as being weak, or lousy? He'll never tell you that "on the record."

Well, coach, how does it look for the season?

"We're going to play 'em one at a time," he replies. (Grambling is the only team that tried to play 'em two at a time. The Tigers accidentally scheduled Oregon State and Prairie View for the same day.)

Looking at the films and the scouting reports, how does Podunk State look? (The replies here vary a little):

"They are awesome. They are a big physical team," says the coach. (Truth: They are so slow it's pathetic.)

"They are the best team we've played this season." (Except for the first eight.)

"They have some good personnel." (But they must be sitting on the bench because they don't show up in the films.)

The next question for our fearless coach concerns the progress of his team.

"Our offense just isn't executing. We are making too many mistakes." (If they don't start executing, the coach is going to execute them right off first string.)

Any trick plays this week, coach?

"No, you don't win with tricks but with good fundamental football. We've just got to block and tackle better." (Actually, the coach will use any trick in the book including an invisible halfback if the opposition is dumb enough to fall for his tricks.)

Anything else different in your game plan, coach?

"We're going to throw the ball more this week." (If the fans are lucky the team may throw 10 passes.)

"Our game plan is to run right at 'em." (Surprise, surprise. The coach is going to let the quarterback throw.)

Most of the preceding comments come from a coach who is winning. If he has problems, you are likely to hear the following:

"We are going to bounce back this week. Now we'll find out what kind of character this team has." (The team better have character because there aren't many healthy players left.)

"I know you are getting tired of hearing, but we're going to bounce back this week." (Help, now the team is really in trouble.)

Actually, Las Vegas sports writers are lucky to be able to quote a coach who has a lot of originality. In his first year, our coach threatened to "kick the town in the ass" if they didn't come out to watch the team.

Well, the breaks went against our coach (another cliché) and he suggested the town return the favor. Where else but in Las Vegas can you get quotes like that?

A GROWING UNIVERSITY

The 1974-75 academic year has been one of continued achievement at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas. Here is a glimpse at the highlights:

Enrollment: There are now more than 7,000 students enrolled at UNLV, and the rate is still climbing at about 10 per cent a year—many times the national average. Students come from every state of the nation and more than three dozen foreign countries.

Instruction: Presently, students may enroll in any of 65 degree programs at the bachelor's and master's level offered by UNLV's 32 academic departments. This summer, the school's first doctoral program got under way in the College of Education as a joint effort between UNLV and the University of Nevada, Reno.

The university conducted its second successful "Mini Term" in January. The innovative program gave students two weeks of intensive study into topics of wide ranging and timely concern. Some students worked in local businesses or government offices, while others traveled out of state to investigate everything from plant ecology to mountain resorts.

More than 4,000 persons attended the university's two summer sessions, and 10,000 adults enrolled in the many classes, institutes, workshops and seminars conducted for community residents.

New Construction: One of the country's finest physical education centers opened its doors this spring. The $6 million facility, containing two gymnasiums, a 50-meter indoor swimming pool, handball courts, training and equipment rooms, will not only provide space for physical education instruction, but will become a center for the entire community, since numerous classes for every age level are being organized by the school's Division of Continuing Education. The complex has been named the Paul McDermott Physical Education Center in memory of the long-time Las Vegas business and civic leader, friend and regent of UNLV. Two major facilities now under construction include the 2,000-seat Artemus Ham Concert Hall, scheduled for completion early next year, and a $5 million Life Science Building, set to open during the summer of 1976.

National Honors: The theatre arts department's production of "The House of Bernarda Alba" was selected in the American College Theatre Festival as one of the nation's top ten plays for 1974 out of 335 colleges and universities which competed for the distinction. The play was performed last spring at the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts in Washington, D.C. with all expenses paid by the festival.

In athletics, the Rebel football team carried a perfect 11-0 season into the national Division II regional finals where it advanced to the Grantland Rice Bowl in Baton Rouge, La., and a nationwide television audience. The nationally 16th-rated basketball team completed its regular season with a 22-4 record, won its first West Coast Athletic Conference crown, and advanced to NCAA Division I playoff games in Tempe, Arizona and Portland, Oregon.

Summing Up: In just 18 years, UNLV has blossomed from a single small building beside a dirt road into a beautiful 300-acre campus. It has attracted a well-qualified faculty of some 325 professors who are not only devoted to good teaching, but who are earning reputations for their research work and community service endeavors. Overall, the economic contribution of UNLV to the city has been significant, with millions of dollars brought into the area through student and faculty expenditures, capital construction, endowments and grants. The university is a resource that all in Las Vegas are proud to support.

REBELS CLUB

Certainly one of the finest in the nation, the University Rebels Club is the driving force behind booster support for the UNLV athletic program. With continued active member participation, the URC is growing even stronger.

This past year the URC had its greatest fund-raising drive ever, raising nearly $450,000 for the support of the grant-in-aid program for Rebel athletics. This total is also one of the top five in the nation, and, to think UNLV has had only just over a decade of graduating classes, so the alumni roster isn't very long.

The honorary list of alumni at UNLV is one of the largest as the record drive would indicate all the thousands of Rebel boosters there are in the community. URC co-ordinator is Davey Pearl and the director of athletic fund-raising for the university is Dr. Wayne Pearson. These two men have become living legends among booster groups across the nation.

The new officers of the URC, for the 1975-76 academic year are: President, William "Wildcat" Vice-President, Eddie LaBaron; third Vice-President, Chuck Wenner; and Secretary-Treasurer, Doug Crosby. This is a repeat performance for Morris at the top, as the former University of Nevada Regent, has given years of service to Rebel athletics.

On July 10, 1975, Caesars Palace Hotel hosted the grandest URC "Thank You" Banquet of all as nearly 2,500 Rebel boosters were honored by one of the all-time greats — Mr. Frank Sinatra.

The URC office is open daily on the UNLV campus. All Rebel boosters and friends are urged to contact Davey or Wayne at 739-3614.

Head Coach

The suave, dynamic head football coach for the UNLV Rebels, Ron Meyer is ever-so-quickly building a high-powered, well-organized, progressive and productive product for the department, university and entire State of Nevada. Football is an extensive and expensive sport, and the Meyer-men have responded with back-to-back nationally ranked 8-3 and 11-0 seasons, two All-Americans and money in the bank. Football is definitely paying its way at UNLV.

The Rebels advanced to the Division II semi-finals last season after the brilliant undefeated regular season and next season seems to promise more of the same. A total of 49 returning lettermen, including 17 returning regulars, will attest to that.

Meyer is well-educated. He won the Noble Kizer award for athletic/academic prowess at Purdue University in 1963, graduating college "with distinction" that year with a 5.2 grade point average out of a possible 6.0. He earned his Master's degree in science there in 1965 and was on the Boilermaker football coaching staff for six years, working with both offensive and defensive backfields. In his only head coaching job before UNLV, he led Penn High School in Indiana to a 5-4-1 record in 1964.

His six seasons on the Purdue staff followed, then his overall personality rose to the forefront. He went to the Dallas Cowboys of the National Football League as one of their four talent scouts and was part of the organization that won Super Bowl VI.

With the deftness of a Minnesota Fats and the approach of a combination Henry Kissinger/Charles Finley, he has diplomatically - yet - straightforwardly brought to Las Vegas a keen and active devotion to Rebel football. The titanic UNLV-Boise State football game last October is a living example of the involvement Meyer's Magic has brought the Rebel gridiron program. A total of 18,631 people crowded into the 16,100-seat Las Vegas Stadium to see the Rebels defeat the Broncos, 37-35. It is the largest crowd ever to witness a sporting event in the State of Nevada.

Meyer appears to have the markings of one of the all-time great pigskin coaches, but time and fate will dictate much of his future. If ever there was a man who could change fate, however, it may just be this one. His highly-organized, well-disciplined, "equal opportunity for all, special privileges for none" LAS VEGAS WAY program is an eloquent example of the great accomplishments of athletics.

Coaches develop and cultivate All-Americans. At Purdue, he guided several supers in Bob Griese, Leroy Keyes and Mike Phipps. At UNLV there have been Mike Thomas and Joe Ingersoll. Obtaining all the little qualities that go into making him a complete, thoroughly-prepared coach, Meyer also has a demanding speaking tour, clinic assignment schedule, a radio show and a weekly half-hour television show in Las Vegas.

He is the composer and director of the UNLV football symphony and his music is becoming increasingly popular. Following the great Rebel season in 1974, Meyer's peers selected him as the District 8 Coach-of-the-Year in recognition of his accomplishments. He was also selected as an assistant coach for the 15th Annual Coaches' All-America game in Lubbock, Texas.

In college, Meyer was an All-Academic Big Ten performer and recipient of the Big Ten "Medal of Honor" for combined proficiency in scholarship and athletics in 1962.

In two productive seasons as the UNLV coach, Meyer has brought the school its first nationally-ranked football team, and its first team to compete in the NCAA playoffs. With the vigor, optimism and enthusiasm of youth, and the confidence of an experienced coach, he has a 20-4 won-loss record in just two seasons, directing a team that has re-written the school record book.

An active member in both the American Football Coaches Association and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Meyer and his wife Cindy have a very lovely family.

Meyer is dedicated to the pursuit of excellence, and his goals and ideals will settle for nothing less. He is a shining leader in the UNLV athletic program.

STADIUM GLITTERS IN THE DESERT

Sitting like an oasis in the desert, the sparkling Las Vegas Stadium provides the location for UNLV's seven home football games this year. Built by the Las Vegas Convention Authority at a cost of $3.5 million, it has 15,000 permanent seats and 1,100 bleacher seats that have been added to the existing facility to bring its current seating capacity to 16,100.

The newest Astro-Turf facility in the United States, seven light standards provide enough brightness to broadcast color TV at night and the palatial facility, truly built in Las Vegas Style, has a fine press box and complete dressing room facilities for both the Rebels and their opponents.

Designed with the future in mind, ultimate expansion as needed calls for 60,000 seats and a triple-decked press box.

The stadium is located in East Las Vegas, approximately seven miles from the UNLV campus. In pre-season and spring practice, the Rebels hold Saturday scrimmages at the stadium, otherwise practicing at an on-campus site.

Opened for the first time when the Rebels lost to Weber State College, 30-17 on October 23, 1971, the official stadium dedication ceremonies were held during the halftime of the UNLV-Western Illinois game on September 9, 1972. Western Illinois won a good game, 35-28, before 8,800 fans.

During the 1974 undefeated Rebel season, the stadium was twice sold out. On October 19, UNLV defeated Boise State University, 37-35, before 18,631-standing-room-only-fans—the largest crowd in the history of the State of Nevada to ever witness a sporting event. Then again, on November 16, the sixth-annual Big Game was played at the facility, and the Rebels beat the University of Nevada, Reno, before another oversold house of 17,119 fans.

Everyone who has seen the stadium agrees that it is definitely another showplace in the entertainment capital of the world.
