JERRY TARKANIAN STORY

There is an old adage that says something to the effect: "The third time is the charm." Well, if there is any truth at all to that ancient quote, then Jerry Tarkanian's third year as the UNLV head basketball coach should be the finest yet.

And, if, year number three is better than number two, it will be a great Rebel year in 1975-76. Last season was UNLV's finest ever, a 24-5 record, the West Coast Athletic Conference championship, and the Rebels advanced to the Division I playoffs for the first time and ended the season in the top 20 in both the JPI and AP polls.

To be the best is not the easiest challenge ever accepted by a man, but Tarkanian has made the commitment and he and his staff are dedicated to that goal.

Winning is a fact of life to Jerry Tarkanian — on the court and off. In 19 years of coaching in the collegiate, high school and junior college ranks, the third-year Rebel coach has known nothing but success.

In seven seasons as a major college coach (five at Cal State, Long Beach), Tarkanian has the highest winning percentage in collegiate basketball, winning 166 games while losing only 31. His two seasons with the Rebels have brought in a 44-11 record (20-6 in 1973-74 and 24-5 in 1974-75).

What is equally amazing is that Tarkanian NEVER lost a home game at Long Beach. His 49er teams won 65 straight home games in the Campus Gym and Long Beach arena, culminating with a nationally-televised impressive 77-66 victory over Marquette that drew a PCAA and CSULB record crowd.

At UNLV, Tark's troops have won 21 straight games going into the 1975-76 season and in two years in Las Vegas, the Rebels, in the friendly confines of the Las Vegas Convention Center, are 29-2. The only two losses have been to Texas Tech, 82-76, and to the University of Houston, 75-72. Both were during the 1973-74 season.

Sell-out crowds have been traditional in the Tarkanian era. In the Rebels two WCAC seasons with Tarkanian, UNLV did not lose a home game in 14 nights. (UNLV has now withdrawn from the WCAC to compete as a Division I independent so as to clear the way to schedule the best competition possible. The Rebels are also developing as a strong road team as well under Tarkanian's guidance. In two seasons, UNLV is 15-9 on the road, including the first-ever Division I playoffs at the end of last season. (Continued on Page 20)

THE UNIVERSITY REBELS CLUB

Certainly one of the finest in the nation, the University Rebels Club is the driving force behind booster support for the UNLV athletic program. With continued active member participation, the URC is growing even stronger.

This past year the URC had its greatest fund raising drive ever, raising nearly $450,000. for the support of the grant-in-aid program for Rebel athletics. This total is also one of the top five in the nation, and, to think UNLV has had only just over a decade of graduating classes, so the alumni roster isn't very long.

The honorary list of alumni at UNLV is one of the largest as the record drive would indicate all the thousands of Rebel boosters there are in the community. URC co-ordinator is Davey Pearl and the director of athletic fund-raising for the university is Dr. Wayne Pearson. No university in the country has two more dedicated men than Pearl and Pearson and they have literally become living legends among booster groups across the nation.

William "Wildcat" Morris is back as President of the University Rebels Club this year, but Morris has never been too far behind the scenes in Rebel athletics, and, was one of the main men who helped establish football at UNLV.

On July 10, 1975, Caesars Palace Hotel hosted the grandest URC "Thank You" Banquet of all, as nearly 2,500 Rebel boosters were honored by one of the all-time greats — Mr. Frank Sinatra.

The URC office on the UNLV campus is open daily and all Rebel boosters and friends are urged to drop by and say hello to Wayne and Davey. Information regarding the URC and what it takes to become a UNLV scholarship donor may be obtained by calling 739-3614 or dropping by their office.

In the sub-regional game played on the campus of Arizona State in Tempe, UNLV defeated San Diego State, 90-80. In the NCAA Regional tournament in Portland, Ore., the Rebels were narrowly trimmed by Arizona State, 84-81, but, bounced back in the consolation game to defeat a favored University of Montana team, 75-67.

Before Long Beach, where Tarkanian's reputation first drew national acclaim, he spent seven seasons in the Junior College ranks at Riverside and Pasadena City Colleges. At Riverside (1962-66), he had a 131-9 overall record, which included three consecutive state championships and four league championships in five years. No other junior college coach in the history of California basketball has achieved those heights. At Pasadena (1966-68), Tarkanian was 67-4 and bagged a fourth state title while finishing in the runnerup spot another time.

An astonishing feature of his wins is that they were accomplished at schools which had never previously won a basketball championship. Riverside was last in its conference two consecutive years before Tarkanian; Pasadena was last in its conference the previous year, Long Beach had never won a championship in basketball, and UNLV had never finished higher than fourth in the WCAC.

The outstanding coach started his coaching career with five years in high school at San Joaquin Memorial, Antelope Valley and Redlands High Schools.

Regarded as one of the great recruiters in the nation, "The Pied Piper" of college basketball landed for Long Beach such nationally recognized superstars as Sam Robinson, George Trapp, Chuck Terry, Ed Ratleff, Leonard Gray and Roscoe Pondexter. In his first year at UNLV, Tarkanian may have recruited as well as he did during his entire tenure at Long Beach State.

As his winning tradition continues to grow, so has his reputation. Two years ago Tarkanian brought three high school All-America performers to be with him. All juniors this season, they are Eddie Owens (Houston, Texas), Lewis Brown and Jackie Robinson (both Los Angeles). New recruits this year are JC All-Star Sam Smith (from Las Vegas), and freshmen Reggie Theus (Inglewood, Calif.) and Mickey Berkowitz (Tel-Aviv, Israel). Berkowitz is the first international player to attend UNLV.

Jerry Tarkanian is a towel-chewing, nail biting, hard-working Armenian who came to Las Vegas with a COMMITMENT TO EXCELLENCE as his inspiring philosophy. He will settle for nothing less than excellence from his players, both on and off the court. In addition to a nationally-recognized basketball program for UNLV, Tarkanian has developed a tutorial program for his players that paid high dividends. A trademark of Tarkanian players is that they almost without an exception, earn their college degree, even though some of them do it during the off season as they are in professional basketball.

UNLV attempts to emphasize equally the importance of academics AND basketball to all its student-athletes.

Evidence of his strong belief in academics is his selection as "Professor of the Year" in 1970 by the students of Long Beach State. He was also honored as "Father of the Year" in 1966 by Riverside County for his "guidance and care on and off the court of all the young men under his tutelage, as well as his family of four."

Tarkanian's players have gone on to play in professional basketball. They include Chuck Terry (Houston Rockets), ERic McWilliams (Houston Rockets), George Trapp (Detroit Pistons), Bob Rule (Cleveland Cavaliers, Ed Ratleff (Houston Rockets), John O. Trapp (Los Angeles Lakers), Glenn MacDonald (Boston Celtics), Leonard Gray (Seattle Supersonics), and most recently Ricky Sobers (Phoenix Suns).

Darrell Evans who played for Tarkanian in junior college, is a starter for the Atlanta Braves in major baseball.

An intense individual, he has coached in Ecuador for the People-to-People Sports Committee, and in April and May of 1968, he coached the Junior College Olympic Team in the Olympic Trials.

The 45-year-old coach easily won the hearts of Las Vegas fans, and, the L.A. Times called him an "instant Las Vegas Celebrity." A true-champion-builder, when he arrived at Long Beach, the team was unknown nationally. When he left, it was an established power, second in the West only to UCLA.

A native of Euclid, Ohio, Tarkanian attended Pasadena City College before graduating from Fresno State in 1956. He received his Master's degree from Redlands University in 1960.

Tarkanian and his devoted and totally-involved wife Lois, reside with their four children — Pamela, Jodie, Danny and George — in their new Las Vegas home.

With Tarkanian tradition and image, the speaking engagements for clinics and banquets come in nearly every day. He will average nearly one a week during the off-seasons.

Las Vegas is a town known for having the best, and, Jerry Tarkanian is surely at the top of that list.

EASY EDDIE GETTING CLOSER

Everyone who ever played the game of basketball wanted to become an All-America. Just imagine, for a moment, how many college basketball players there are this season alone. Using some fairly accurate figures, there are approximately 650 teams in the country, each with roughly 10 players on each. Any way you add it up, that's 6,500 athletes, most of whom are fairly talented.

Look at the Rebels for example. Jerry Tarkanian's "HARDWAY EIGHT" are an extremely well-balanced, terrifically talented group of young men who have carried the Runnin' Rebels to a superlative 26-1 record with but two regular season games remaining.

To say that just one Rebel is worthy of All-America honors would be unfair. Eight players have worked their hearts out to give the school its most successful basketball team ever. Yet, it's possible that not one of the "Starting Eight" will make an All-America team. Why. Well, it's fairly obvious. The 1975-1976 UNLV Runnin' Rebel basketball team is collectively one of most well-balanced units to have ever played the game of basketball.

When John Naismith invented the game those many years ago, he must have dreamt about the Runnin' Rebels. Individually, each could be a "star" on a team with only one great player. Together, it's hard to pick five starters, let alone an All-America.

But looking at it realistically, 6-7 junior forward Eddie Owens is the most likely candidate for All-America honors. Easy Eddie came to UNLV with tremendous amounts of national recognition. After all, aren't All-Americans "Living Legends" anyway.

Adrian Dantley is a great player for Notre Dame, right? Right! But, if Dantley was teamed with the likes of Jackie Robinson, Glen Gondrezick, Sam Smith, Boyd Batts, Lewis Brown, Reggie Theus and Robert Smith, would he be so above the crowd?

A case for Eddie Owens would have to include that in just under three seasons, he has become the third leading scorer for a school that has been known for putting puts on the board. With two regular season games remaining this season, Easy Eddie has scored consistently, with 1,415 points to his credit. He has appeared in all 82 games since he came to UNLV, averaging 17.3 points per game. He has connected on .511 per cent of his shots and we all know he is mostly an outside shooter.

Eddie, in three seasons, has three times made the Las Vegas Holiday Classic All-Tournament team, twice being the MVP of the event. He made the 1975 Houston Bluebonnet Classic team and the 1975 Steel Bowl Classic team as well.

As Jerry Tarkanian has pointed out, "Eddie has really become a strong player. Like Ricky Sobers before him, he is a complete player."

Eddie is also a good student, and is a candidate for the Academic All-America team this season. He has a solid "B" average in his social services major.

The 1973 Texas Prep Player of the Year hopes to be a counselor after what should be a fine pro basketball career.

Another mark of an All-America player is the amount of improvement each year. Easy Eddie, although always a consistent player, has worked on the little things in his game to polish it into one of the finest cut gems in America.

It has taken a tremendous amount of dedication, ability, intensity and hard work to make the Rebels 26-1 and number five in the nation. Before the season began, coach Tarkanian said that UNLV would achieve excellence through pride and unity, which it certainly has.

The intensity, aggressiveness and hard work has paid off more than a hundredfold. The Runnin' Rebels have arrived.

Easy Eddie Owens is the greatest of them all. Easy Eddie will be UNLV's next All-America basketball player.

END OF AN ERA : Big Gil in Final Games

Following seven seasons as the team manager for the most successful major college basketball coach in the nation, Gil Castillo is working his final games for Jerry Tarkanian.

Not only will Gil be graduating this summer, he will also marry Juareen Nauvo, a young lady he met here in Las Vegas.

Big Gil has been Jerry Tarkanian's only manager as a major college coach. Gil spent four years with Tarkanian at Long Beach State and is completing his third season with him here at UNLV.

Gil is the man who takes care of the Rebels. He cleans and packs the Rebel uniforms, putting them out before each game in the locker room. He assists the players with their gear and equipment, helping them correct any abnormalities. He is the head driver on all Rebel road trips. As Tark continually says, "Just follow Gil, he knows how to get everywhere."

Always smiling, perhaps his most important job is preparing the Tarkanian Towels for each game, one moist and one dry, each folded in a special fashion. Gil also sees to it that the famous "Tarkanian Clipboard" makes every trip with the Rebels, even if it means flying back to Las Vegas to get it the one time it was left in Tarkanian's office by mistake.

Don't be misled. Gil could have graduated after four years, but working with Tarkanian has been more important to him than earning the degree. He is an easy-going, personable chap who has taken his life in stride.

Everyone has their own little expressions, and, Gil is the one who always walks up saying, "Hey, what's the deal." (Maybe he picked that one up because he was a dealer this past summer.)

Gil is not sure what the future holds for him, he has even considered becoming a manager for an NBA team. Whatever he decides, one thing is certain. Gil Castillo will never let Jerry Tarkanian throw in the towel.

GET RICHER QUICKER WITH

Ardan
JEWELERS & DISTRIBUTORS

Our merchandising people do a lot more than the usual "buy-a-couple-a-cases-and-stick-them-on-the-shelf" thing.

For example, we consistently buy brand-name products with proven track records and guarantees to back them up. And we've joined the country's largest catalog distributor group with a buying power of over one billion dollars.

In 1975, we opened four new showrooms, bringing our total to 13. And we were received with record-breaking attendances.

Which might suggest that shopping at Ardan is a dandy way to help your pocketbook. Of course, we don't promise that our low, everyday prices will make you a millionaire overnight.

It could take weeks.

If you haven't seen Spanish Oaks yet, you couldn't possibly imagine the concept in luxury the Collins Brothers have created just for your living pleasure.
Spanish Oaks is the ultimate, a carefully designed community of individually detached homes clustered in Spanish courtyard surroundings. When you visit the six beautifully furnished models on West Sahara at 3300, you will then realize there has never been a place like Spanish Oaks.

UNLV's Division of Continuing Education and Department of Intercollegiate Athletics present JERRY TARKANIAN BASKETBALL CAMPS 1976

WHO'S INVITED?

Boys and girls between age 8 and the junior year in high school. You will be grouped and instructed according to age.
THREE SESSIONS will be offered — Monday through Friday, 9:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.

June 7-11 (For boys only)

June 14-18 (For girls only)

June 21-25 (For boys only)

• CLASS WILL MEET in the new Paul McDermott Physical Education Complex on the UNLV campus, where there are two new air-conditioned gyms and other modern facilities. • WHAT'S IT ALL ABOUT? The fundamentals of basketball will be stressed: passing, dribbling, offensive and defensive footwork, defensive stance, ball handling, rebounding techniques, plus a strong emphasis on your shooting techniques. • DAILY CLASSROOM SESSIONS will highlight technique and strategy, with film sessions and instruction on rules and officiating. Also: full-court, organized, officiated games are scheduled each day. • INSTRUCTION will be geared to you, individually; lots of personal attention is built into this program. • YOUR INSTRUCTORS? UNLV basketball coach Jerry Tarkanian and his coaching staff. The entire camp is organized by "Tark," one of the great basketball masters, who will be on the floor personally instructing each student. You'll get the best from the best. • REGISTRATION is a breeze: just complete the attached form and return it with your check. The fee is $60 for a one-week session, and includes the Basketball Camp T-shirt, notebook, refreshments, and special awards. Enrollment is limited, so register right away! • Plan to bring trunks, T-shirt and basketball shoes to camp.

For MORE INFORMATION, call the UNLV office of Conferences and Institutes: 739-3394

REGISTRATION: JERRY TARKANIAN BASKETBALL CAMP — 1976
