JERRY TARKANIAN STORY

There is an old adage that says something to the effect: "The third time is the charm." Well, if there is any truth at all to that ancient quote, then Jerry Tarkanian's third year as the UNLV basketball coach should be the finest yet.

And, if, year number three is better than number two, it will be a great Rebel year in 1975-76. Last season was UNLV's finest yet, a 24-5 record, the West Coast Athletic Conference championship, and the Rebels advanced to the Division I playoffs for the first time and ended the season in the top 20 in both the AP and UPI polls.

To be the best is not the easiest challenge ever accepted by a man, but Tarkanian has made the commitment and he and his staff are dedicated to that goal.

Winning is a fact of life to Jerry Tarkanian — on the court and off. In 19 years of coaching in the collegiate, high school and junior college ranks, the third-year Rebel coach has known nothing but success.

In seven seasons as a major college coach (five at Cal State, Long Beach), Tarkanian has the highest winning percentage in collegiate basketball, winning 166 games while losing only 31. His two seasons with the Rebels have brought in a 44-11 record (20-6 in 1973-74 and 24-5 in 1974-75).

What is equally amazing is that Tarkanian NEVER lost a home game at Long Beach. His 49er teams won 65 straight home games in the Campus Gym and Long Beach arena, culminating with a nationally-televised impressive 77-66 victory over Marquette that drew a PCAA and CSULB record crowd.

At UNLV, Tark's troops have won 21 straight games going into the 1975-76 season and in two years in Las Vegas, the Rebels, in the friendly confines of the Las Vegas Convention Center, are 29-2. The only two losses have been to Texas Tech, 82-76, and to the University of Houston, 75-72. Both were during the 1973-74 season.

Sell-out crowds have been traditional in the Tarkanian era. In the Rebels two WCAC seasons with Tarkanian, UNLV did not lose a home game in 14 nights. (UNLV has now withdrawn from the WCAC to compete as a Division I independent so as to clear the way to schedule the best competition possible. The Rebels are also developing as a strong road team as well under Tarkanian's guidance. In two seasons, UNLV is 15-9 on the road, including the first-ever Division I playoffs at the end of last season. (Continued on Page 20)

THE UNIVERSITY REBELS CLUB

Certainly one of the finest in the nation, the University Rebels Club is the driving force behind booster support for the UNLV athletic program. With continued active member participation, the URC is growing even stronger.

This past year the URC had its greatest fund raising drive ever, raising nearly $450,000. for the support of the grant-in-aid program for Rebel athletics. This total is also one of the top five in the nation, and, to think UNLV has had only just over a decade of graduating classes, so the alumni roster isn't very long.

The honorary list of alumni at UNLV is one of the largest as the record drive would indicate all the thousands of Rebel boosters there are in the community. URC co-ordinator is Davey Pearl and the director of athletic fund-raising for the university is Dr. Wayne Pearson. No university in the country has two more dedicated men than Pearl and Pearson and they have literally become living legends among booster groups across the nation.

William "Wildcat" Morris is back as President of the University Rebels Club this year, but Morris has never been too far behind the scenes in Rebel athletics, and, was one of the main men who helped establish football at UNLV.

On July 10, 1975, Caesars Palace Hotel hosted the grandest URC "Thank You" Banquet of all, as nearly 2,500 Rebel boosters were honored by one of the all-time greats — Mr. Frank Sinatra.

The URC office on the UNLV campus is open daily and all Rebel boosters and friends are urged to drop by and say hello to Wayne and Davey. Information regarding the URC and what it takes to become a UNLV scholarship donor may be obtained by calling 739-3614 or dropping by their office.

In the sub-regional game played on the campus of Arizona State in Tempe, UNLV defeated San Diego State, 90-80. In the NCAA Regional tournament in Portland, Ore., the Rebels were narrowly trimmed by Arizona State, 84-81, but, bounced back in the consolation game to defeat a favored University of Montana team, 75-67.

Before Long Beach, where Tarkanian's reputation first drew national acclaim, he spent seven seasons in the Junior College ranks at Riverside and Pasadena City Colleges. At Riverside (1962-66), he had a 131-9 overall record, which included three consecutive state championships and four league championships in five years. No other junior college coach in the history of California basketball has achieved those heights. At Pasadena (1966-68), Tarkanian was 67-4 and bagged a fourth state title while finishing in the runnerup spot another time.

An astonishing feature of his wins is that they were accomplished at schools which had never previously won a basketball championship. Riverside was last in its conference two consecutive years before Tarkanian; Pasadena was last in its conference the previous year, Long Beach had never won a championship in basketball, and UNLV had never finished higher than fourth in the WCAC.

The outstanding coach started his coaching career with five years in high school at San Joaquin Memorial, Antelope Valley and Redlands High Schools.

Regarded as one of the great recruiters in the nation, "The Pied Piper" of college basketball landed for Long Beach such nationally recognized superstars as Sam Robinson, George Trapp, Chuck Terry, Ed Ratleff, Leonard Gray and Roscoe Pondexter. In his first year at UNLV, Tarkanian may have recruited as well as he did during his entire tenure at Long Beach State.

As his winning tradition continues to grow, so has his reputation. Two years ago Tarkanian brought three high school All-America performers to be with him. All juniors this season, they are Eddie Owens (Houston, Texas), Lewis Brown and Jackie Robinson (both Los Angeles). New recruits this year are JC All-Star Sam Smith (from Las Vegas), and freshmen Reggie Theus (Inglewood, Calif.) and Mickey Berkowitz (Tel-Aviv, Israel). Berkowitz is the first international player to attend UNLV.

Jerry Tarkanian is a towel-chewing, nail biting, hard-working Armenian who came to Las Vegas with a COMMITMENT TO EXCELLENCE as his inspiring philosophy. He will settle for nothing less than excellence from his players, both on and off the court. In addition to a nationally-recognized basketball program for UNLV, Tarkanian has developed a tutorial program for his players that paid high dividends. A trademark of Tarkanian players is that they almost without an exception, earn their college degree, even though some of them do it during the off season as they are in professional basketball.

UNLV attempts to emphasize equally the importance of academics AND basketball to all its student-athletes.

Evidence of his strong belief in academics is his selection as "Professor of the Year" in 1970 by the students of Long Beach State. He was also honored as "Father of the Year" in 1966 by Riverside County for his "guidance and care on and off the court of all the young men under his tutelage, as well as his family of four."

Tarkanian's players have gone on to play in professional basketball. They include Chuck Terry (Houston Rockets), ERic McWilliams (Houston Rockets), George Trapp (Detroit Pistons), Bob Rule (Cleveland Cavaliers), Ed Ratleff (Houston Rockets), John Q. Trapp (Los Angeles Lakers), Glenn MacDonald (Boston Celtics), Leonard Gray (Seattle Supersonics), and most recently Ricky Sobers (Phoenix Suns).

Darrell Evans who played for Tarkanian in junior college, is a starter for the Atlanta Braves in major baseball.

An intense individual, he has coached in Ecuador for the People-to-People Sports Committee, and in April and May of 1968, he coached the Junior College Olympic Team in the Olympic Trials.

The 45-year-old coach easily won the hearts of Las Vegas fans, and, the L.A. Times called him an "instant Las Vegas Celebrity." A true-champion-builder, when he arrived at Long Beach, the team was unknown nationally. When he left, it was an established power, second in the West only to UCLA.

A native of Euclid, Ohio, Tarkanian attended Pasadena City College before graduating from Fresno State in 1956. He received his Master's degree from Redlands University in 1960.

Tarkanian and his devoted and totally-involved wife Lois, reside with their four children — Pamela, Jodie, Danny and George — in their new Las Vegas home.

With Tarkanian tradition and image, the speaking engagements for clinics and banquets come in nearly every day. He will average nearly one a week during the off-seasons.

Las Vegas is a town known for having the best, and, Jerry Tarkanian is surely at the top of that list.

SUDDEN SAM RIGHT AT HOME

The number of local players who have gone on to become stars for the UNLV Rebels can be counted on one hand, and, not only is Sudden Sam Smith one of the finest Las Vegas players ever, he is also one of the best Rebels on this talented 1975-76 Runnin' Rebel squad.

Sudden Sam is a 1973 graduate of Clark High where he was coached by Jack Richardson and Smith attended Seminole Junior College in Oklahoma for two seasons before transferring back to his hometown school.

A high school All-America and a JC All-America player as well, Sudden Sam is a truly tremendous scorer with as much range and accuracy as an anti-aircraft gun. He averaged 32 points per game for a one-man show at Seminole and hit for an average from the field of .550 per cent. For UNLV, Sam is one of eight starters for the Rebels and is the team's second-leading scorer. Through the first 20 UNLV games in 1975-76, Sam scored 15.7 points per game, hitting a very healthy .523 from the field, mostly on his "cannon" shots.

Sudden Sam has his own cheering section at the Rebel games and the first sign appeared before the Pan American game. It read: "Section 19 and Sudden Sam will take care of Pan Am." Sam must have liked it, because he responded with 28 points to lead the Rebels to a surprisingly close 100-95 victory over the Texas visitors.

Against Pan Am, Sudden Sam hit 11 of 19 field goals and six of seven charity tosses for his season high. His career high was last year against an Oklahoma City Junior College when he rivited the nets for 59 points.

Sam makes things happen on the basketball court. Coming in after about four minutes into the game, Sam usually comes up with a couple of steals, three or four 30-footers and generally harasses the opponent to give the Rebels a commanding lead.

Last Wednesday night in Reno, the score was 93-91 with just six minutes left in the game. In a period of just 15 seconds, Sudden Sam made a three point play, had a steal and scored seven points to give the Rebels a 98-93 lead and the game.

Against Iowa State on regional television, Sudden Sam came in to the game and hit three consecutive shots from no closer than 30 feet. Maybe, he wanted to show the Big Eight fans that he could play, too. Sam's brother, Willie, is an all Big-Eight star for the University of Missouri.

Against the University of New Mexico, Sudden Sam made nine consecutive points in the second half as the Rebels took the lead for good and went on to win the game before 18,596 in the "Pit". And it goes on, and on.

Sam leads the Rebels in steals, getting over two a game and to say that he makes things happen is an understatement. He has really done a job for the Rebels this season.

Welcome Home, Sam Smith.

JEWELERS & DISTRIBUTORS

Our merchandising people do a lot more than the usual "buy-a-couple-a-cases-and-stick-them-on-the-shelf" thing.

For example, we consistently buy brand-name products with proven track records and guarantees to back them up. And we've joined the country's largest catalog distributor group with a buying power of over one billion dollars.

In 1975, we opened four new showrooms, bringing our total to 13. And we were received with record-breaking attendances.

Which might suggest that shopping at Ardan is a dandy way to help your pocketbook. Of course, we don't promise that our low, everyday prices will make you a millionaire overnight.

It could take weeks.

UNLV's Division of Continuing Education and Department of Intercollegiate Athletics present JERRY TARKANIAN BASKETBALL CAMPS 1976

WHO'S INVITED?

Boys and girls between age 8 and the junior year in high school. You will be grouped and instructed according to age.
THREE SESSIONS will be offered — Monday through Friday, 9:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.

June 7-11 (For boys only)
June 14-18 (For girls only)
June 21-25 (For boys only)

• CLASS WILL MEET in the new Paul McDermott Physical Education Complex on the UNLV campus, where there are two new air-conditioned gyms and other modern facilities. • WHAT'S IT ALL ABOUT? The fundamentals of basketball will be stressed: passing, dribbling, offensive and defensive footwork, defensive stance, ball handling, rebounding techniques, plus a strong emphasis on your shooting techniques. • DAILY CLASSROOM SESSIONS will highlight technique and strategy, with film sessions and instruction on rules and officiating. Also: full-court, organized, officiated games are scheduled each day. • INSTRUCTION will be geared to you, individually; lots of personal attention is built into this program. • YOUR INSTRUCTORS? UNLV basketball coach Jerry Tarkanian and his coaching staff. The entire camp is organized by "Tark," one of the great basketball masters, who will be on the floor personally instructing each student. You'll get the best from the best. • REGISTRATION is a breeze: just complete the attached form and return it with your check. The fee is $60 for a one-week session, and includes the Basketball Camp T-shirt, notebook, refreshments, and special awards. Enrollment is limited, so register right away! • Plan to bring trunks, T-shirt and basketball shoes to camp.
